And whereas in the ſaid act of parliament concerning the craft of Pewterers and Braſiers, made the ſaid fourth yere (S cap.7.before 2.) for diuers cauſes and conſiderations in the ſame act conteined, amongſt other thinges it is expreſſed, that no perſon or perſons vſing the ſaid craft of Pewterers and Braſiers, ſhould from thenceforth ſell or exchange any pewter or braſſe, new or old, at any place or places within this Realme, but onely in open Faires and Markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, but if they were deſired by the buyers of ſuch wares, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch default, ten pound. This act to endure to the laſt day of the next Parliament. An. 25. H.8.cap.9. This act is continued. An.28. H.8. cap.9. And An. 31.H.8.cap.9. And after Anno 33. H.8.cap.7. it is made perpetuall, as here following appeareth.

4 That all and euery of the ſaid acts and ſtatutes (S. An.4.H. 8.cap.7.before 2. and An. 25.H.8.cap. 9. before 3.) and all and euery article, ſentence and clauſe compriſed in the ſame, may from henceforth ſtand and abide in as full ſtrength and effect for euermore from henceforth to endure, according to the purport, tenor and effect of the ſame acte and acts, as though the ſaid articles, ſentences and clauſes were ſpecially limited, recited or declared in this preſent act. And that no perſon ne perſons from henceforth buy, or take by exchange, or otherwiſe take into or within this Realme, to the intent to ſell any ſuch thinges or wares aboue rehearſed, made or to bee made out of this Realme, vpon paine of like forfeiture and penalties, as are and were expreſſed in the ſaid ſeuerall acts, the ſame penalties and forfeitures to bee leuyed as is afore expreſſed.

Diſturbe Wardens

And that it may bee &c. that if any perſon or perſons doe lawfullie withſtand, interrupt, diſturbe, or let the Maſter and Wardens, or their deputies of the ſaid craft of Pewterers for the time being, or the head officer or gouernour, head officers or gouernours of cities, townes, or boroughes within this Realme, wherein no ſuch Maſter and Wardens are or ſhall be, or any of them, in ſearching, ſeiſing, and taking into their handes and poſſeſſions, ſuch wares as ſhall happen to be bought or brought into this Realme, contrarie to the purport and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord (cap. 9. before 3.) that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending in letting, diſturbing, or withſtanding the ſaid ſeiſure, or taking of ſuch wares as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery time ſo doing, the ſumme of fiue pound ſterling, the one halfe whereof ſhall bee to the kinges vſe, and the other halfe to him or them that will or ſhall ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, writ, bill, plaint, or information, in any the kinges courts of Record, &c. In which action or ſuit, no protection, &c. ſhall be allowed nor admitted. Anno 33. H.8. cap. 4.

And foraſmuch as the ſcience of Phyſicke doth comprehend, include, & conteine the knowledge of Surgerie, as a ſpeciall member and part of the ſame, therefore be it enacted that any of the ſaid companie or fellowſhip of Phyſicians, being able, choſen, and admitted by the ſaid preſident and fellowſhip of Phyſicians, may from time to time, aſwell within the Citie of London, as elſewhere within this Realme, practiſe and exerciſe the ſaid ſcience of Phyſicke in all and euery his members and parts: any act, ſtatute, or prouiſion made to the contrarie notwithſtanding, An.32.H.8. cap.40.

5 The King our ſoueraigne Lord by the aduice, &c. duely pondring among other things neceſſary for the common wealth of this Realme, that it is verie expedient and needfull to prouide for men expert in the ſcience of Phyſick and Surgerie, for the health of mans body, when infirmitie and ſickeneſſe ſhall happen, for the due exerciſe and maintenance whereof, good and neceſſary Acts be already made and prouided: Yet neuertheleſſe, foraſmuch as within the Citie of London, where men of great experience aſwell in ſpeculation as in practiſe of the ſcience and facultie of Surgerie, be abiding and inhabiting, and haue more commonly the daily exerciſe & experience of the ſame ſcience of Surgerie, then is had or vſed within other parts of this Realme, and by occaſion thereof many expert perſons be brought vp vnder them, as their ſeruants, apprentices, and others, who by the exerciſe and diligent information of their ſaid Maſters, aſwell now as hereafter ſhall exerciſe the ſaid Science, within diuers other parts of this Realme, to the great reliefe, comfort, and ſuccour of much people, and to the ſure ſafegard of their bodily health, their limmes and liues. And foraſmuch as within the ſaid City of London, there be now two ſeuerall and diſtinct companies of Surgeons occupying and exerciſing the ſaid ſcience and facultie of Surgerie, the one company being commonly called the Barbors of London, and the other company called the Surgeons of London: which company of Barbours be incorporated to ſue and to be ſued by the name of Maſters or gouernors of the myſterie and communaltie of the Barbours of London, by vertue and authoritie of the Letters patents vnder the great Seale of the late king of famous memorie king Edward the fourth, dated at Weſtminſter the 24. day of Februarie, in the firſt yeere of his reigne, which afterward aſwell by our now moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord, as by the right noble and vertuous prince king Henry the ſeuenth, father vnto the kings moſt excellent highneſſe now being, were and be confirmed, as by ſundrie Letters patents thereof made, among other things in the ſame conteined, more at large may appeare: And the other company called the Surgeons, be not incorporate, nor haue any maner of corporation: which two ſeuerall and diſtinct Companies of Surgeons were neceſſarie to be vnited and made one body incorporate, to the intent that by their vnion and often aſſemblies together, the good and due order, exerciſe, and knowledge of the ſaid ſcience or facultie of Surgerie, ſhould be aſwell in ſpeculation as in practiſe, both to themſelues, and all other their ſaid ſeruants and apprentices, now, and hereafter to be brought vp vnder them, and by their learnings and diligent and ripe informations, more perfect, ſpeedie, and effectuall remedie ſhould be, then it hath been, or ſhould be, if the ſaid two Companies of Barbours and Surgeons ſhould continue ſeuered aſunder, and not ioyned together, as they before this time haue been & vſed themſelues, not medling together. Wherefore in conſideration of the premiſſes, be it &c. that the ſaid two ſeuerall and diſtinct Companies of Surgeons: that is to ſay, both the Barbours and the Surgeons, and euery perſon of them being a freeman of either of the ſaid Companies, after the cuſtome of the ſaid Citie of London, and their ſucceſſors from henceforth immediatly, be vnited and made one entire and whole body corporate, and one communaltie perpetuall, which at all times hereafter ſhal be called by the name of Maſters and Gouernors of the myſterie and communalty of Barbours and Surgeons of London for euermore, and by none other name. And alſo to purchaſe, inioy, and take to them and to their ſucceſſors, all maner of lands, tenements, rents, and other poſſeſſions whatſoeuer they be. And alſo ſhall haue a common Seale to ſerue for the buſineſſe of the ſaid Company and Corporation for euer. And by the ſame name peaceably, quietly, and indifferently haue poſſeſſion, and inioy to them and to their ſucceſſors for euer, all ſuch lands and tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, which the ſaid Company or Communaltie of Barbours haue and inioy to the vſe of the ſaid myſterie and communaltie of Barbours of London. And alſo ſhall peaceably and quietly haue and inioy all and ſinguler benefits, grants, liberties, priuiledges, franchiſes, and free cuſtomes, and alſo all maner of other things at any time giuen and graunted vnto the ſaid Companies of Barboure or Surgeons, by whatſoeuer name or names they or any of them were called, and which they or any of them now haue, or any of their predeceſſors haue had by Acts of parliament, Letters patents of the kings highneſſe, or other his moſt noble progenitors, or otherwiſe by any lawfull meanes haue had, at any time afore this preſent act, in as large and ample maner and forme, as they or any of them haue had, might, or ſhould inioy the ſame, this vnion or coniunction of the ſame Companies together notwithſtanding. And as largely to haue and inioy the premiſſes, as if the ſame were and had been ſpecially and particularly expreſſed and declared with the beſt and moſt cleereſt words and termes in the law, to all intents and purpoſes. And that all perſons of the ſaid Company now incorporate by this preſent act, and their ſucceſſors, that ſhall be lawfully admitted and approued, to occupie Surgerie, after the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe ordained and prouided, ſhall be exempt for bearing of armour, or to be put in any watches or inqueſts. And that they and their ſucceſſors ſhall haue the ſearch, ouerſight, puniſhment, and correction, aſwell of free men as of forreines, for ſuch offences as they, or any of them ſhall commit or do againſt the good order of Barbery or Surgery, as afore this time among the ſaid myſterie & company of Barbors of London, hath been vſed & accuſtomed, according to the good and politique rules and ordinances by them made and approued by the Lord Chauncelor, Treaſorer, & two chiefe Iuſtices of either Bench, or any three of them, after the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe ordained & prouided. And further be it &c. that the ſaid Maſters or gouernors of the ſaid myſterie and communaltie of Barbers and Surgeons of London, and their ſucceſſors, yeerely for euer, after their ſaid diſcretions, at their free libertie & pleaſure, ſhall & may haue and take without contradiction, foure perſons condemned, adiudged, & put to death for felony, by the due order of the kings lawes of this Realme, for Anotomies, without any further ſute or labour to be made to the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors for the ſame. And to make inciſion of the ſame dead bodies, or otherwiſe to order the ſame after their ſaid diſcretions at their pleaſures for their further and better knowledge, inſtruction, inſight, learning, and experience in the ſaid ſcience or facultie of Surgerie. Sauing vnto all perſons, their heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, and demaunde, which they or any of them might lawfully claime or haue, in, or to any of the lands & tenements, with the appurtenances belonging vnto the ſaid company of Barbers and Surgeons, or any of them, at any time afore the making of this act, in as ample maner and forme, as they or any of them had, or ought to haue had heretofore: any thing in this preſent act compriſed to the contrary hereof in any wiſe not withſtanding.

HEnricus Dei gratia &c. The King our ſoueraigne lord conſidereth, how dayly within this Realme, his coine is trayterouſly counterfeited, murders, robberies, felonies been grieuouſly committed & done, alſo vnlawfull reteiners, idleneſſe, vnlawfull playes, extortions, miſdemeanings of ſhirifes, eſcheators and many other enormities and vnlawfull demeanings daily groweth more and more within this his Realme, to the great diſpleaſure of God, hurt and impoueriſhing of his ſubiectes, and to the ſubuerſion of the policy and good gouernance of this his Realme: and by theſe ſayd enormities and miſchiefes his peace is broken, his ſubiectes troubled, inquieted, and impoueriſhed, the huſbandrie of this land decayed, whereby the Church of England is vpholden, the ſeruice of God continued, euery man thereby hath ſuſtenance, euerie inheritour his rent for his land: For repreſſing and auoyding of the ſaid miſchiefes, ſufficient lawes and ordinances be made by authoritie of many and diuers parliaments holden within this realme, to the great coſtes of the king, his lords, and commons of the ſame, and lacketh nothing, but that the ſaid lawes be not put in due execution, which lawes ought to be put in due execution by the Iuſtices of peace in euery ſhire of this realme, to whom his grace hath put & giuen full authoritie ſo to doe, ſith the beginning of his raigne: And now it is commen to his knowledge, that his ſubiectes be little eaſed of the ſaid miſchiefe by the ſaid Iuſtices, but by many of them rather hurt then helped. And if his ſubiectes complaine to theſe Iuſtices of Peace, of any wronges done to them, they haue thereby no remedie, and the ſaid miſchiefes doe encreaſe and not ſubdued. The kinges grace conſidereth, that a great part of the wealth and proſperitie of this land ſtandeth in that, that his ſubiectes may liue in ſurety vnder his peace in their bodies and goods, and that the huſbandrie of this land may increaſe and be vpholden, which muſt be had by due execution of the ſaid lawes and ordinances: chargeth and cōmandeth the Iuſtices of peace of theſe his ſhires, to endeuour them to doe and execute the tenor of their commiſſion, and the ſaid lawes and ordinances, ordeyned for ſubduing of the premiſſes, as they will ſtand in loue and fauour of his grace, and in auoyding of the paines that be ordeyned if they doe the contrarie. And ouer that, he chargeth and commandeth, that euery man, what degree or condition that he be of, that let them in word or deede, to execute their ſaid authority in any maner and forme aboueſaid, that they ſhewe it to his grace. And if they doe it not, and it come to his knowledge by other thē by them, they ſhall not ſtand in his fauour, but be taken as men out of credence, and be put out of Commiſſion for euer. And ouer this, he chargeth and commandeth all maner of men, aſwell the poore as the rich (which be to him all one in due miniſtration of iuſtice) that is hurt or grieued in any thing, that the ſaid Iuſtice of peace may heare, determine, or execute in any wiſe, that he ſo grieued make his cōplaint to the Iuſtice of the Peace, that next dwelleth vnto him, or to any of his fellowes, and deſire a remedie. And if he then haue no remedie, if it be nigh ſuch time as his Iuſtices of Aſſiſes come into that Shire, that then he ſo grieued ſhew his complaint to the ſame Iuſtices. And if he then haue no remedy, or if the complaint be made long before the comming of the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, then he ſo grieued come to the Kings highneſſe, or to his Chanceller for the time being, and ſhew his griefe, and his ſaid highnes then ſhall ſend for the ſaid Iuſtices, to know the cauſe why his ſaid ſubiects be not eaſed, and his lawes executed, whereupon if he find anie of them in default of executing of his laws in the premiſſes, according to his highnes commaundement, he ſhall doe him ſo offendiug, to be put out of the Commiſſion, and furthermore to be puniſhed according to his demerits. And ouer that his ſaid Highneſſe, ſhall not let for any fauour, affection, coſt, charge, nor any other cauſe, but that hee ſhall ſee his lawes to haue plaine and true execution, and his ſubiects to liue in ſuertie of their landes, bodies and goods, according to his ſaid laws, and the ſaid miſchiefes to be auoyded, that his ſubiects may increaſe in wealth and proſperitie to the pleaſure of God. Prohibition and conſultation.

In tithes, oblations, obuentions, mortuaries (when they are propounded vnder theſe names) the kings prohibition ſhall hold no place, although for the long withholding of the ſame, they come to a pecuniarie eſtimation, and ſentence for the ſame. But if a Clerke or religious man, doe ſell his tythes being in the barne, or other where, to any man for money, if the money be demaunded before a ſpirituall Iudge, the kings prohibition ſhal lie, for by the ſale the ſpirituall goods are made temporall, and the tithes turned into cattels. Alſo if debate do ariſe vpon the right of tythes, hauing his originall of the right of the patronage, and the quantitie of the ſame tythes doe paſſe the fourth part of the goods of the Church, the kinges prohibition ſhall hold place, if the cauſe come before a Iudge ſpirituall. And if a Prelate enioyne a penance pecuniary to any man for his offence, and it be demaunded, the kings prohibition ſhall hold place. Notwithſtanding if Prelates enioyne a penance corporall, and the partie will redeeme ſuch penance by money, if the money be demaunded before a Iudge ſpirituall, the kings prohibition ſhall hold no place. Moreouer if any lay violent hands on a clerk, the amends for the violence done ſhalbe made in the kinges Court. And for excommunication before a Prelate, where penance corporall is enioyned, if the defender will redeeme his penance by giuing money to the Prelate, or to the party grieued, it may be required before the Prelate, & the kings prohibition ſhal not lie. An. 25. E. 3. ca. 22.

2 Whereas long ſince in the Parliament of good memorie of Edward king of England, grandfather of our Soueraigne Lord the K. that now is, the xxx. yere of his reigne, holden at Karlile, the petition being heard which was offered vnto the ſaid grandfather and his councell by the cominaltie of his ſaid Realme conteining, that whereas the holy church of England was founded in the eſtate of Prelacie within the realme of England by the ſaid grandfather and his progenitors, and the Earles, Barons and other Nobles of his ſaid Realme, & their anceſters for to informe them and their people in the law of God, and for to keepe hoſpitalities, and to do almes, and other workes of charitie in the places where the Churches were founded, for the ſoules of the founders, their heires, and of all Chriſten, and certeine poſſeſſions, aſwell in fees, lands, rents, as in aduowſons, which doe extend to a great value, were aſſigned by the ſaid founders to the Prelates and other people of the holy Church of the ſaid realme, to ſuſtaine the ſame charge, and namely of the poſſeſſions which were aſſigned to Archbiſhops, Biſhops, abbots, priors, religious men, & other people of holy church, by the kings of the ſaid realme, earles, barons, & other great men of his realm, the ſame kings, earles, barons, & other nobles, as lords & patrons haue had and ought to haue the cuſtodie of ſuch voydances and the preſentments and the collations of the benefices belonging to ſuch Prelacies. And the ſaid kings in times paſt were woont to haue the greateſt part of their Councel for the ſafegard of the Realme, when they had need, of ſuch Prelates and Clerkes ſo aduanced: The Biſhops of Rome vſurping the ſigniorities of ſuch poſſeſſions and benefices, did giue and graunt the ſame benefices to aliens, which did neuer dwell in England, and to Cardinals which might not dwell here, and to other, aſwell aliens, as denizens, as if hee had beene patron, or aduowee of the ſaid dignities and benefices, whereas hee was not ſo of right after the law of England, by which gifts and graunts if they ſhould be ſuffered, there ſhould vneth be any benefice within ſhort time in the ſaid realm, but that it ſhould be in the hands of aliens and fortners by vertue of ſuch prouiſions, againſt the good will and diſpoſition of the founders of the ſame benefices. And ſo the elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other religious, ſhould faile, and the almes, hoſpitalities, and other workes of charitie, which ſhould be done in the ſaid places, ſhould be withdrawen, the ſaid graundfather, and other lay Patrons, in the time of ſuch voydances ſhould looſe their preſentments, the ſaid councell ſhould periſh, and goods without number ſhould be carried out of the Realme in adnullation of the eſtate of the holy church of England, & diſheriſon of the ſaid grandfather, & the earles, barons, & other nobles of the ſaid realme, & in offence & deſtruction of the laws & rights of his realm, & againſt the good diſpoſition & wil of the firſt founders: by the aſſent of the earles, barons, & other nobles, & of all the ſaid communaltie, at their inſtances and requeſtes, (the dammage and grieuances aforeſaid, conſidered) in the ſaid ful Parliament it was ordeined, that the ſaid oppreſſions, grieuances, and dammage in the ſame Realme, from henceforth ſhould not be ſuffered in any maner. And now it is ſhewed to our Soueraigne Lord the king, in this preſent Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the vtas of the Purification of our Ladie, the xxv. yere of his reigne of England, and of Fraunce the twelft, by the grieuous complaints of all the commons of this Realme, that the grieuances and miſchiefes aforeſaid, doe daily abound to more greater dammage and deſtruction of all this realme, more then euer were before, viz. That now of late the Biſhop of Rome, by procurement of Clerkes and otherwiſe, hath reſerued, and doth daily reſerue to his collation generallie and ſpecially, aſwell Archbiſhoprickes, Abbies, and Priories, as all other dignities, and other benefices of England, which be of the aduowrie of the people of holy Church, and doth giue the ſame aſwell to aliens, as to denizens, and taketh of all ſuch benefices the firſt fruits, and many other profits, and that a great part of the treaſure of the realme is carried away & ſpent out of the Realme by the purchaſors of ſuch graces, & alſo that by ſuch priuie reſeruations, many Clerkes aduanced in this Realme by their true Patrons which haue peaceably holden their aduancements by long time, be ſuddenly put out, whereupon the ſaid Commons haue prayed our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, ſith the right of the Crowne of England, and the law of the ſaid Realme is ſuch, that vpon the miſchiefes and damage, which bappeneth to his Realme, he ought and is bounden by his othe with the aſſent of his ſaid people in his Parliament, thereof to prouide remedie, and doe law for the voiding of the miſchiefes & dammage, which do ſo happẽ, that it would pleaſe him hereupon to ordeine a remedie: Our Soueraigne L. the king, ſeeing the miſchiefes and damage before named, and hauing regard to the ſaid ſtatute made in the time of his ſaid grandfather, & to the cauſes conteined in the ſame, which Statute ſtandeth ſtill in force, and was neuer defeated nor adnulled in anie point, and foraſmuch as he is bounden by his othe, to cauſe the ſame to be kept as a law of his realme, though that by ſufferance & negligence it hath been ſithence attempted to the contrary: and alſo hauing regard to the grieuous complaints made to him by his people in diuers his Parliaments holden heretofore, willing to ordeine remedie for the great damage and miſchiefes, which haue happened, and daylie doe happen to the Church of Eng-

By the aſſent of all the great men, and the comminaltie of the ſaid Realme, to the honour of God, and profit of the ſaid Church of England, and of all his Realme, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that the free elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and all other dignities and benefices electiue in England, ſhall ſtand from henceforth in the maner as they were graunted by the Kinges progenitors, and by the aunceſtours of other Lordes the founders of them: And that all Prelates, and other people of holy Church, which haue aduowſons of any benefices of the kinges gift, or of any of his progenitors, or of other Lords and donours, to doe diuine ſeruices and other charges ordeined for the ſame, ſhall haue their collations and preſentments freely in the maner as they were infeoffed by their donours. And in caſe that any reſeruation, collation or prouiſion be made by the Court of Rome, of any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, dignitie, or other benefice, in diſturbance of the election, collations, or preſentations aforenamed, that at the time of the voydance when ſuch reſeruations, collations, and prouiſions ſhall take effect, our Soueraigne Lord the King and his heires ſhall haue and inioy for the ſame time collations to the Archbiſhoprickes and other dignities electiue, which be of his aduowrie, ſuch as his progenitors had before that free election was graunted, ſeeing that the elections were firſt graunted by the kinges progenitors vpon a certaine forme and condition, as to demaund licence of the King to chuſe, and after the election to haue his royal aſſent, and not in other maner. Which conditions being not kept, the thing ought by reaſon to reſort to his firſt nature: And if any ſuch reſeruation, prouiſion, or collation be made of any houſe of religion of the kinges aduowrie in diſturbance of the free election, our Soueraigne Lord the king and his heires ſhal haue for that time the collation to giue this dignitie to a conuenient perſon. And in caſe that collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion be made by the Court of Rome, of any Church, Prebend, or other benefices, which bee of the auowrie of the people of holy Church, whereof the king is auowee paramount immediate, that at the ſame time of the voydance, at which time the collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion ſhould take effect as afore is ſaid, the king and his heires ſhall haue the preſentment or collation thereof for that time. And ſo from time to time whenſoeuer ſuch people of holy church ſhall be diſturbed of their preſentments or collations, by ſuch reſeruations, collations, or prouiſions, as afore is ſaid. Sauing to them the right of their aduowſons & their preſentments, when no collation or prouiſion of the court of Rome is thereof made, where that the ſaid people of holy church ſhal or will to the ſame benefices preſent or make collation. And that their preſentees may enioy the effect of their collations or preſentments: And in the ſame maner euery other Lord of what condition that he be, ſhall haue the collations or preſentments to the houſes of religion which be of his aduowrie, and other benefices of holy Church, which be perteining to the ſame houſes. And if ſuch aduowees do not preſent to ſuch benefices within the halfe yere after ſuch voydances, nor the Biſhop of the place doe not giue the ſame by lapſe of time within a moneth after the halfe yere: that then the king ſhall haue thereof the preſentments and collations as hee hath of other of his owne aduowrie. And in caſe that the preſentments of the king or the preſentees of other patrons of holy Church, or of their aduowees, or they to whom the king or ſuch patrons or aduowees aforeſaid haue giuen benefices, perteining to their preſentments or collations be diſturbed by ſuch prouiſors, ſo that they cannot haue the poſſeſſion of ſuch benefices by vertue of the preſentments or collations ſo to them made, or that they which be in poſſeſſion of ſuch benefices, be impeached vpon their ſaid poſſeſſions by ſuch prouiſors: then the ſaid prouiſors, their procurators, executors, and notaries ſhall be attached by their body, and brought in to anſwere. And if they be conuict, they ſhall abide in priſon without being let to mainpriſe or bayle, or otherwiſe deliuered, till they haue made fine and ranſome to the king at his will, and gree to the partie that ſhall feele himſelfe grieued. And neuertheleſſe, before that they be deliuered, they ſhall make full renunciation and finde ſufficient ſuertie, that they ſhall not attempt ſuch thinges in times to come, nor ſue no Proceſſe by them nor other againſt anie man in the Court of Rome, nor in anie part elſwhere, for anie ſuch impriſonments or renunciations, nor anie other thing depending of them. 12 Whereas the noble king Edward, graundfather to our ſoueraign Lord the king that now is, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter at the vtas of the Purification of our Ladie, the xxv. yeere of his reigne, (before 3.) did to be rehearſed the ſtatute made at Carliel in the time of king Edward, ſonne of king Henry, touching the eſtate of the holy Church of England, the ſaid graundfather of the king that now is, by the aſſent of the great men of his Realme, being in the ſame parliament, holden the ſaid xxv. yeere to the honor of God and of holy Church, & of all his Realme, did ordeine and ſtabliſh, that the free elections of Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, and all other dignities and benefices electiue in England, ſhould hold from thenceforth in the maner as they were granted by his progenitors, and by the anceſtors of other Lords founders. And that all Prelates, and other people of holy Church, which had aduowſons of any benefices of the gift of the king, or of his progenitors, or of other Lordes and donours, ſhould freely haue their collations, and preſentments: and thereupon a certaine puniſhment was ordeined in the ſame ſtatute, for them which ſhould accept any benefice or dignitie, contrary to the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid xxv. yeere, as afore is ſaid, which ſtatute our ſoueraigne Lord the king hath done to be recited in this preſent parliament, at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſame parliament: The tenor whereof is ſuch as hereafter followeth. 14 Whereas the Commons of the Realme in this preſent parliament haue ſhewed to our redoubted ſoueraigne Lord the king, grieuouſly complayning, that whereas the ſaid our Lord the king, and all his liege people, ought of right, and alwayes were wont to ſue in the kings Court, to recouer their preſentments to Churches, Prebends, and other benefices of holy Church, to the which they haue right to preſent: the cogniſance of plea of which preſentment belongeth onely to the kings Court of the ancient right of his owne Crowne, vſed and approued in the time of his progenitors kings of England: And when iudgement hath been giuen in the ſame court vpon ſuch plea and preſentment, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other ſpirituall perſons which haue the inſtitution of ſuch benefices within their iuriſdictions, be bound and haue made execution of ſuch iudgements by the kings commandements all the time aforeſaid, without interruption, (for a Lay perſon may not make ſuch execution) and alſo be bound of right to make execution of many other the kings commandements, of which right the Crowne of England hath been peaceably ſeiſed, aſwell in the time of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the king that now is, as in the time of all his progenitors till this day: But now of late, diuers proceſſes be made by the holy father the Pope, and cenſures of excommunication, vpon certaine Biſhops of England, becauſe that they haue made execution of ſuch commandements, to the open diſheriſon of the ſaid Crowne, and deſtruction of the Regaltie of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the king, his Law, and all his Realme, if remedie be not prouided.

Pope

And alſo it is ſaid, and a common clamour made, that the ſaid father the Pope hath ordained and purpoſed to tranſlate ſome Prelates of the ſamo Realme, ſome of them out of the Realme, and ſome from one Biſhopricke to an other within the ſame Realme, without the kings aſſent and knowledge, and without the aſſent of the Prelates which ſo ſhall be tranſlated, which Prelates be much profitable & neceſſarie to our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the king, and to all his Realme: by which tranſlations (if they were ſuffered) the Statutes ſhould be defeated and auoyded, and his wiſe liege men of his Councell, without his aſſent, & againſt his will withdrawen and gotten out of his Realme, and the ſubſtance and treaſure of the Realme borne away, and ſo the Realme deſtitute aſwell of councell, as of ſubſtance, to the finall deſtruction of the ſame Realme, And ſo the Crowne of England, which hath been ſo free at all times, that it hath been in ſubiection to no Realme, but immediatly ſubiect to God, and to none other, in all things touching the regalitie of the ſame Crowne, ſhould be ſubmitted to the Pope, and the Lawes & ſtatutes of the Realme by him defeated and fruſtrated at his will, to the perpetuall deſtruction of the king our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord, his ſoueraigntie, his Crowne and regaltie, and of all his Realme, which God defend. And moreouer, the Commons aforeſaid haue ſaid, that the things ſo attempted, be cleerely againſt the kings Crowne and his regalitie, vſed and approued in the time of all his progenitors: Wherefore they, and all the liege commons of the ſame Realme will ſtand with our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the king, and his ſaid Crowne, and his regalitie in the caſes aforeſaid, and in all other caſes attempted againſt him, his Crowne, and his regalitie in all points, to liue and to die. And moreouer they haue prayed the king, and him required by way of iuſtice, that he would examine all the Lords in the Parliament, aſwell Spirituall as Temporall ſeuerally, and all the States of the parliamẽt, how they think of the caſes aforeſaid, which be ſo openly againſt the kings Crown, and in derogation of his regalitie, and how they will ſtand in the ſame caſes with our ſoueraigne Lord the king, in vpholding the rights of the ſaid Crowne and regalitie. Whereupon the Lords Temporall ſo demaunded, haue anſwered euery one by himſelfe, that the caſes aforeſaid be cleerely in derogation of the kings Crowne, and of his regality, as it is well knowen, and hath been of a long time knowen, and that they will ſtand with the ſame Crowne and regalitie in theſe caſes ſpecially, and in all other caſes which ſhall be attempted againſt the ſame Crowne & regality in all points, with all their power. And moreouer it was demaunded of the Lords Spirituall there being, and the procurators of other being abſent, their aduice and will in all theſe caſes: which Lords, that is to ſay, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Prelates, being in the Parliament ſeuerally examined, making proteſtations, that it is not their mind to deny or affirme that our holie father the Pope, may not excommunicate Biſhops, nor that he may make tranſlation of Prelates, after the Law of holy Church, anſwered and ſaid, that if any executions of proceſſes made in the kings court (as before) be made by any, and Cenſures of excommunication be made againſt any Biſhop of England, or any other of the kings liege people, for that that they haue made execution of ſuch commaundements: And that if any executions of ſuch tranſlations be made of any Prelates of the ſame Realme, which Prelates be verie profitable and neceſſarie to our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the king, and to his ſaid Realme, or that his ſage men of his Councell without his aſſent, & againſt his will be withdrawen & elopned out of the Realme, ſo that the ſubſtance and treaſure of the Realme may be deſtroyed, that the ſame is againſt the King and his Crowne, and is conteined in the petition before named. And likewiſe the ſame procurors, euery one by himſelfe examined vpon the ſaid matters, haue anſwered & ſaid in the name, and for their Lords, as the ſaid Biſhops haue ſaid and anſwered, and that the ſaid Lords ſpirituall will and ought to ſtand with the king in theſe caſes lawfully in mainteining of his Crowne, and in all other caſes touching his Crowne and his regaltie, as they be bound by their liegeance: Whereupon our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the king, by the aſſent aforeſaid, and at the prayer of the ſaid Commons, hath ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if any purchaſe or purſue, or cauſe to be purchaſed or purſued in the Court of Rome, or elſewhere, any ſuch tranſlations, proceſſes, and ſentences of excommunications, bulles, inſtruments, or any other things which touch the king our Lord, againſt him, his Crowne, and his regaltie, or his Realme, as is aforeſaid, & they which bring within the Realme, or them receiue, or make therof notification, or any other execution within the ſame Realme, or without, that they, their notaries, procurators, mainteinors, abbettors, fautors, and counſailors, ſhall be put out of the kings protection, and their lands and tenements, goods & cattels forfait to the king, and that they be attached by their bodies, if they may be found and brought before the king and his Councell, there to anſwere to the caſes aforeſaid, or that proces be made againſt them by Præmunire facias, in maner as it is ordeined in other ſtatutes of Prouiſours and others, which doe ſue in any other Court in derogation of the regalitie of our Soueraigne Lord the king, An. 16. EUery Marchant which will be ſure of his debt, ſhall cauſe his debtor to come before the Maior of London, or of Yorke, or Briſtow, or before the Maior and a Clerk (which the king ſhall appoint for the ſame) to knowledge the debt, and the day of payment, and the acknowledgement ſhall be entred into a roll by the hand of the ſaid Clerke, which ſhal be knowen. Moreouer the Clerke ſhall make with his owne hand a bill obligatorie, whereunto the ſeale of the debtor ſhall be put, with the kings ſeale, which ſhall be prouided for the ſame purpoſe, the which ſeale ſhall remaine in the keeping of the Maior and Clerk aforeſaid. And if the debtor do not pay at the day to him limitted, the creditor ſhall come before the ſaid Maior and Clerke with his bill obligatorie: And if it be found by the roll, or by the bill, that the debt was knowledged, and that the day of payment is expired, the Maior ſhall incontinent cauſe the moueables of the debtor and his burgages deuiſable as chattels, to be ſold as farre as the debt doth amount, by the prayſing of honeſt men, vntill the whole ſumme of the debt and the money be fully paied to the creditor: And if the Maior can find no buyer, he ſhall cauſe the moueables to be deliuered to the creditor at a reaſonable price, as much as doth amount to the ſumme of the debt, and the kings ſeale ſhall be put vnto the ſale and deliuerance of the burgages deuiſable for a perpetuall witneſſe. And if the debtor haue no moueables within the iuriſdiction of the Maior, whereupon the debt may be leuied, but peraduenture hath ſome other where, within the Realme, then ſhall the Maior ſend the recogniſance made before him and the Clerke aforeſaid vnto the Chauncelor, vnder the kings ſeale aforeſaid, and the Chauncelor ſhall direct a writ vnto the Shirife, in whoſe bailywicke that the moueables of the debtor hap to be, that the Shirife ſhall cauſe the creditor to be ſatiſfied, in ſuch forme as the Maior ſhould haue done, in caſe that the moueables of the debtor had been within his power. And let them that haue preiſed the moueable goods to be deliuered vnto the creditor, take good heede, that they doe ſet a reaſonable price vpon them, for if they doe ſet an ouer hie price for fauour borne to the debtor, to the dammage of the creditor, then ſhall the thing ſo preiſed, be deliuered vnto themſelues, at ſuch price as they haue ſet them, and they ſhall forthwith anſwere vnto the creditor his debt. And if the debtor will ſay, that the moueable goods were deliuered or ſold for leſſe then they were worth, he ſhall haue no remedie thereby, for when the Maior or the Shirife hath ſold the moueable goods lawfully to him that hath offered moſt, he may accompt it his owne folly, that he did not ſell his owne moueable goods himſelfe before the day of the ſuit (which he might well enough) and ſo haue leuyed the money with his owne handes: And if the debtor haue no moueables, whereupon the debt may be leuied, then ſhall his bodie be taken, where it may be found, and kept in priſon, vntill that he haue made agreement, or his friends for him: And if he haue not wherewith he may ſuſteine himſelfe in priſon, the creditor ſhall finde him bread and water, to the end that he die not in priſon for default of ſuſtenance, the which coſtes the debtor ſhall recompence him with his debt, before that he be let out of priſon. And if the creditor be a Marchant ſtranger, he ſhall remaine at the coſtes of the debtor for ſo long time as he tarieth about the ſuit of his debt, and vntill the moueable goods of the debtor be ſold or deliuered vnto him. And if the creditor do not content himſelfe with the debtor alone for the ſuretie of this payment, by reaſon whereof pledges or mainpernors be found vnto him: If thoſe pledges or mainpernors do come before the Maior and Clerke aboueſaid, and bind themſelues by writing and recogniſance in like maner as the principall debtor then, in like maner if the debt be not paied at the day limitted, ſuch execution ſhall be awarded againſt the pledges or mainpernors, as before is appointed for the debtor. So neuertheleſſe that as long as the debt may be fully leuyed of the moueable goods of the debtor, in the forme aforeſaid, the mainpernors or pledges be not indamaged, but in default of moueable goods of the debtor, the creditor ſhall haue his recouerie againſt the mainpernors or pledges in the form as afore is ſaid againſt the debtor. Marchants

2 Foraſmuch as Merchants which heretofore haue lent their goodes to diuers perſons, be fallen in pouertie, becauſe there was no ſuch ready law prouided, whereby they might thereby recouer their debt at the day of payment aſſeſſed: and for that miſchiefe, many merchants haue forborne to come into the realme with their merchandiſe, to the great damage of merchantes, and of all the Realme: The king and his Counſell at his Parliament holden at Acton Burnell, after the feaſt of S. Michael the xi. yeere of his reigne (before 1.) ordeined certeine eſtabliſhments thereupon for the remedy of ſuch merchantes, which ordinances and eſtabliſhments, the king commanded that they ſhalbe firmely kept and obſerued throughout his Realme, whereby Marchantes haue had remedie and leſſe trouble & buſineſſe to recouer their debtes then they haue had before. But for as much as the merchants ſince that haue complained vnto the king, that the Shirifes doe miſinterpret his ſaid ſtatute, and ſometime by malice and falſe interpretation, doe delay the execution of the Statute, to the great dammage of the marchants: The king at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter after Eaſter, the xiii. yeere of his reigne hath cauſed the ſaid ſtatute made at Acton Burnell, to be rehearſed. And for the declaration of certaine articles in the Statute aforeſayd, hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed that a Merchant which will be ſuer of his debt, ſhal cauſe his debtor to come before the Maior of London, or before ſome chiefe Warden of the Citie, or other good Towne, where the king ſhall appoint, and before the Maior or chiefe Warden, or other diſcreete men choſen and ſworne thereto, when the Maior or chiefe Warden cannot attend thereto, and before one of the Clerkes that the king ſhall thereto aſſigne, when both cannot bee attendant, and knowledge the debt and day of payment, and the recogniſance ſhall bee enrolled by one of the ſayd Clerkes handes being knowen, and the roll ſhall bee double, whereof one part ſhall remaine with the Mayor or chiefe Warden, and the other with the Clerkes that thereto ſhall bee firſt named. And further one of the ſayd Clerkes with his owne hand ſhall write an obligation, whereunto the ſeale of the debtor ſhall bee put, with the kings ſeale prouided for the ſame intent, which ſeale ſhall bee of two pieſes, whereof the great piece ſhall remaine with the Mayor or chiefe Warden, and the other in the keeping of the aforeſayd Clerkes. And if the debtor doe not pay the debt, at the day limitted vnto him, then ſhall the merchant come before the Mayors and Clerke with his obligation, and if it be found by the rolle or obligation, that the debt was knowledged, and the day of payment expired, the Maior or chiefe Warden ſhal cauſe the body of the debtor to bee taken (if hee bee lay) whenſoeuer hee happeneth to come in their power, and ſhall commit him to the priſon of the Towne, if there bee any, and ſhall remaine there at their owne coſtes, vntill hee hath agreed for the debt. And it is commaunded, that the keeper of the towne priſon, ſhall retaine him vpon the deliuerie of the Maior or the chiefe Warden, and if the keeper will not receiue him, he ſhall be anſwerable for the debt, if hee haue whereof, and if hee haue not whereof, he that committed the priſon to his keeping ſhall anſwere it. And if the debtor cannot be found by the Mayor or chiefe Warden, then ſhall the Maior or chiefe Warden ſend into the Chancery vnder the kings ſeale, the recogniſance of the debt: and the Chancellor ſhall direct a writ vnto the ſhirife, in whoſe ſhire the debtor happeneth to bee, for to take his bodie (if he bee lay) and ſafely to keep him in priſon, vntill he hath agreed for the debt. And within a quarter of a yeere after that he is taken, his goods and landes ſhall bee deliuered to him, ſo that of his owne hee may leuy and pay the debt. And it ſhall be lawfull vnto him, during the ſame quarter, to ſell his landes and tenementes, for the diſcharge of his debt, and his ſale ſhall be good and effectuall. And if he doe not ſatiſfie it within the quarter then after the quarter expired, al the lands and goods of the debtor ſhall be deliuered vnto the merchant by a reaſonable extent, to holde them vntill ſuch time as the debt is wholy leuied: And neuertheleſſe his body ſhall remaine in priſon, as before is ſayd. And the marchant ſhall find him bread and water. And the merchant or his aſſignes, ſhall haue ſuch ſeiſon in the lands and tenements deliuered vnto him, that hee may maintaine a writ of nouell diſſeiſin, if he be put out, and a rediſſeiſin alſo, as of freehold to hold to him and his aſſgnes, vntill the debt be paide. And as ſoone as the debt is leuied the body of the debtor ſhall bee delinered with his lands. And in the writs which the Chauncellor ſhall award, mention ſhal be made, that the Shirife ſhall certifie the Iuſtices of the one bench or of the other, how he hath performed the kings commandement at a certaine day: At which day the Marchant ſhall ſue before the ſaid Iuſtices, if they bee

And if the Shirife doe not returne the writ, or doe returne that the writ came too late, or that hee hath directed it to the Bailiſe of ſome franchiſe, the Iuſtices ſhall doe as it is contained in the laſt Statute of Weſtminſter. And if the Shirife returne that the debtor cannot be found or that hee is Clerke, the marchant ſhall haue writs to all the Shirifes, where he ſhall haue any land, that they ſhall deliuer all the goods and landes of the debtor by a reaſonable extent, to hold vnto him & his aſſignes in the forme aforeſayd. And there ſhall be alſo an other ſeale prouided, that ſhall ſerue for Faires, and the ſame ſhall bee ſent vnto euery Faire vnder the Kinges ſeale by a Clerkeſworne, or by a keeper of the Faire. And of the Comminaltie of London two marchants ſhall be choſen, that ſhall be ſworne, and the ſeale ſhall bee opened before them, and the one piece ſhall be deliuered vnto the aforeſaid marchantes, and the other ſhall remaine with the Clerke. And before them or one of the marchants (if both cannot attend) the recogniſances ſhall bee taken, as before is ſayd, and before that the recogniſances be inrolled, the paine of the ſtatute ſhall bee openly read before the debtor, ſo that afterward hee ſhall not excuſe himſelfe by ignorance of the payne, whereto hee bound himſelfe, and to maintaine the coſtes of the ſayd Clerke, the King ſhall take of euerie pound a peny in euerie towne, where the ſeale is, except faires, where he ſhall take i.d. ob. of the pound. This ordinance and act the King willeth to bee obſerued from henceforth throwout all his realme of England and Ireland, betweene any that will of their owne accord make any ſuch recogniſances (except Iewes) to whom this ordinance ſhall not extend, and by this ſtatute the writ of debt ſhall not be abated. And alſo the Chanceller, Iuſtices of either Bench, & Iuſtices errants, ſhall not be by this eſtopped to take recogniſances of debtes before them knowledged and made, but the execution of recogniſances made before them, ſhall not be made in the forme abouesaid, but by the law and maner before vſed, and otherwiſe prouided in other ſtatutes: Breue fundatum ſuper Statutum prædictum. Execution

6 Whereas diuers perſons within this Realme of England in times paſt, oftentimes haue been taken and arreſted by diuers Shirifes and other officers of our ſoueraigne lord the king by writs, aſwell going out of the Chancerie of our ſoueraigne Lord the King, as of his noble progenitours, for to haue execution of diuers recogniſances made before the Maiors of the Staple of diuers ſummes, of which ſummes ſuch perſons, to whom the duety belonged, had no conuenient remedie, other then the ſayd executions, which perſons thereby taken and arreſted for executions of the ſame recogniſances, bee oftentimes come in by diuers writs de corpus cum cauſa, before the King in his Chancery out of the priſon, in the which they bee ſo kept, becauſe of ſuch executions, and there they doe ſue, ſhewing forth diuers indentures and other thinges, in defeſance of ſuch recogniſances, deſiring writtes of Scire facias, to warne the partie or parties, at whoſe ſute they bee taken and arreſted, to anſwere vpon the ſame. And thereupon, by ſurety found to the King in his Chancerie, haue been deliuered out of priſon, notwithſtanding their ſayd arreſt for the executions of ſuch recogniſances, as aboue is ſayd, no ſurety being found to the recogniſees, to whom they bee ſo bound, to ſatiſfie them of their dueties, in caſe that the matter compriſed within the ſayd writtes of Scire facias be not found nor adiudged for the recogniſors thereby bound, whereby the ſaid recogniſees haue been ſometime greatly delayed of their execution, and ſometime their execution vtterly loſt, and in time to come likely to bee loſt, becauſe that no aduantage nor auayle thereof may come, bee or grow to the ſayd recogniſees to whom ſuch perſons be ſo bound, by the ſayd ſurety ſo found to the King, becauſe that the ſame perſon ſo bound, may by the kings pardon bee acquit and diſcharged for euer: Our Soueraigne Lord the king conſidering that the ſayd recogniſees to whom perſons be bound, bee often times without remedie, if ſo bee the ſayd recogniſors will not purſue theyr ſayd writtes of Scire facias with effect, or otherwiſe, if the matters of theyr ſayd writtes of Scire facias be found or adiudged againſt them, and thereupon they doe withdraw them to places priuileged, or eloine them out of the Realme, or elſe will not appeare, ſo as theyr bodyes cannot be taken and put in execution, to the great hinderance and vndoing of ſuch recogniſees in time to come, and alſo becauſe that the king is inherited of the taking of ſuch ſureties to himſelfe by the courſe of the Chancerie, the king willeth from henceforth that ſuch ſuretyes bee made ſeuerally aſwell to the king as to the party. And foraſmuch as the kings highneſſe of his moſt high wiſedome, perceiueth the miſuſing and execution of the ſame to bee contrarie to the forme of the ſayd former eſtatutes: Therefore his pleaſure is, that ſome true, lawfull, and reaſonable bond for ſuretie of payment of the ſayd debtes of his ſubiects, ſhal be made and deuiſed by true and iuſt meanes, which in it ſelfe may and ſhall purport right and equitie, and alſo conſonant to reaſon: In conſideration whereof, by the aſſent &c, it is, &c. that from the firſt day of Aprill next comming, the chiefe Iuſtice of the kings Bench, and the chiefe Iuſtice of the Common place, which now be, or at any time hereafter ſhall be, and euery of them by himſelfe, and in their abſence out of the terme, the Mayor of the ſtaple at Weſtminſter, and the Recorder of the citie of London for the time being, ioyntly together by their diſcretion, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to take recogniſances or knowledges of euerie of the kinges ſubiectes for the payment of debtes, according to ſuch formes as heereafter enſueth.

FRom henceforth if any iſſue be tried by the othe of twelue or more indifferent men, for the partie plaintife or demandant, or for the partie of the tenant or defendant, in any maner of action or ſuite, at the Common Lawe of this Realme, in any of the kinges courts of Record, that then the Iuſtice and Iuſtices by whom iudgement thereof ought to be giuen, ſhal proceed and giue iudgement in the ſame, any miſpleading, lacke of colour, inſufficient pleading, or Ieofaile, any miſcontinuance, or diſcontinuance, or miſconueying of proces, miſioyning of the iſſues, lacke of warrant of atturney for the partie againſt whom the ſame iſſue ſhall happen to be tried, or any other default or negligence of any of the parties, their Counſellers or Atturneis had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding. And the ſaid iudgement thereof ſo to be had and giuen, ſhal ſtand in full ſtrength and force to all intents and purpoſes, according to the ſaid verdict, without any reuerſal or vndoing of the ſame by writ of errour or falſe iudgement, in like maner and forme, as though no ſuch default or negligence had neuer beene had or committed. Prouided alway, and be it, &c. in auoyding of errour and other great inconueniences, that doe dayly fortune to riſe and grow in the kings courts at Weſtminſter, through the negligence of Atturnies, becauſe they deliuer not their warrantes of Atturney, in ſuch action and ſuites wherein they be named Atturney, according to the lawes of this Realme, that all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons which ſhal fortune hereafter to be Atturney, to or for any other perſon or perſons beeing Demandant or Plaintife, Tenant or Defendant, in any Action or Suite at any time hereafter commenced or taken in any of the kings ſaid Courtes, and pleade to an iſſue in the ſame action or ſuite: that then the ſame Atturnies and euery of them from time to time, ſhall deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered his or their ſufficient and lawful warrant of Atturney to be entred of record for euery of the ſaid actions or ſuites, wherein they be named Atturnies, to the Officer or his Deputy ordeined for the receit and entring thereof in the ſame terme, when the ſaide iſſue is entred of record in the ſaid Court, or afore, vpon paine of forfeiting vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord ten poundes ſterling for euery default for non deliuering of the ſaide warrant of Atturney. And alſo further to ſuffer ſuch impriſonment, as by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices of the court for the time being, where any ſuch default ſhall fortune to be had or made, ſhall be thought conuenient: this preſent acte with the prouiſo, to indure to the laſt day of the next Parliament. 2 Foraſmuch as the Lordes of fees diſtreining their tenants for ſeruices and cuſtomes due vnto them, are many times grieued, becauſe their tenants do repleuie the diſtreſſe by writ or without writ: Aud when the Lords at the complaint of their tenants, doe come by attachment to the Countie, or vnto another Court hauing power to holde pleas of Repleuin and doe auow the taking to be reaſonable and iuſt: by reaſon that the tenants doe diſauowe and diſclaime to holde ought of him which tooke the diſtreſſe and aduowed it, he that diſtreined it is amerced, and the Tenants goe quit to whom puniſhment cannot bee aſſigned for ſuch diſauowing by the record of the Countie, or of other Courts which haue no record. It is prouided and ordeined from hencefoorth, that where ſuch lords cannot obtaine iuſtice in the Counties, and ſuch maner of Courtes, againſt their Tenants, aſſoone as they ſhal be attached at the ſuite of their tenants, a writ ſhall be granted to them to put the matter before the Iuſticers, afore whom and none other where, iuſtice may bee miniſtred to ſuch Lordes. And the cauſe that ſhall be put in the writ, ſhall be this, becauſe ſuch a man diſtreined in his fee for ſeruices & cuſtomes to him due. Neither is this acte preiudiciall to the Common lawe vſed, which doth not permit, that any plea ſhal be put before the Iuſticers, at the ſuite of the defendant: For though it appeare at the firſt ſhew that the tenant is plaintife, and the lord defendant: Neuertheleſſe, hauing reſpect to that ẏ the lord hath diſtreined & ſueth for his ſeruices & cuſtoms being behind, he appeareth indeed to bee rather plaintife then defendant. And to the intent the Juſtices may knowe of what late ſeiſin the lords may aduow the diſtreſſe to bee reaſonable vpon their tenants: From henceforth it is agreed and enacted that a reaſonable diſtreſſe may bee aduowed of the ſeiſin of any anceſtor or predeceſſor, from the time that the writ of nouel diſſeiſin doth runne. And becauſe it chanceth many times that the tenant after that hee hath repleuied his beaſtes, doth ſell or elloigne them, whereby returne cannot bee made vnto the lord that diſtrained, if it be adiudged: It is prouided, that Shirifes or Bailifes from henceforth, ſhal not onely receiue of the plaintifes pledges to purſue, before they make deliuerance of the diſtreſſe, but alſo for the returne of the beaſtes, if returne bee awarded. And if any take pledges otherwiſe, he ſhal anſwere for the price of the beaſtes, and the lord that diſtreineth ſhall haue his recouerie by Writte, Quod reddat ei tot aueria vel tot catalla. And if the Bailife be not able to reſtore it, his lorde ſhall reſtore it. And foraſmuch as it happeneth ſometime, that after the returne of the beaſts is awarded vnto the diſtreiner, and the partie ſo diſtreined, after that the beaſtes bee returned, doeth repleuie them againe, and when he ſeeth the diſtreiner appearing in the Court readie to anſwere him, he doth make default, whereby returne of the beaſtes is to bee awarded againe vnto the diſtreiner, and ſo the beaſtes be repleuied twiſe or thriſe, and ſo infinitely, & the iudgementes giuen in the Kinges Court take no effect in this caſe, whereupon no remedy hath bene yet prouided: In this caſe ſuch proceſſe ſhall be awarded, that ſo ſoone as the returne of the beaſtes ſhall be awarded to the diſtreiner, the Shirife ſhalbe commanded by a iudiciall writ to make returne of the beaſtes vnto the diſtreiner, in which writte it ſhall bee expreſſed, that the Shirife ſhall not deliuer them without writ, making mention of the iudgement giuen by the Juſticers, which cannot be without a writ iſſuing out of the rolles of the ſaid Juſticers, before whom the matter was mooued. Therefore when hee commeth vnto the Juſticers, and deſireth againe repleuin of the beaſtes, he ſhall haue a iudiciall writ, that the Shirife taking ſuretie of him to proſecute the ſuite, and alſo for the beaſtes and cattell to bee returned, or the price of them if returne be awarded, ſhall deliuer vnto him the beaſtes or cattell before returned, and the diſtreiner ſhall be attached to come at a certaine day before the Juſticers, afore whom the plea ſhall bee handled in the preſence of the parties. And if he that repleuied doe make default againe, or for another cauſe returne of the diſtreſſe being now twiſe repleuied be awarded, the diſtres ſhal remain irrepleuiable, but if the diſtreſſe bee taken of new, and for a new cauſe, the proceſſe aboueſaide ſhall bee obſerued in the ſame new diſtreſſe. IT is prouided alſo, that if a man leaſe his lands for terme of yeeres within the city of London, and he to whom the freehold belongeth, cauſeth himſelfe to be impleaded by colluſion, and maketh default after default, or commeth into the Court, and giueth it vp for to make the termer looſe his terme, and the termer hath quarell, ſo that the termer may recouer by writ of couenant: The Maior and the Bailifes may inquire by a good Inqueſt in the preſence of the termer & of the demandant, whether the demandant moued his plea vpon good right that hee had, or by colluſion and fraude to make the ſayde termer loſe his terme. And if it bee found by the Inqueſt that the ſaide Demandant moued his Plea vpon good right that hee had, the iudgement ſhalbe giuen forthwith. And if it be found by Inqueſt that hee impleaded him by fraud to put the termer from his terme, then ſhall the termer enioy his terme and the execution of iudgement for the demandant, ſhal be ſuſpended vntill the terme be expired. And in like maner it ſhall be of equitie before the Juſticers in ſuch caſe, if the termer doe challenge it afore the iudgement giuen. Gloceſt.capitul.11.An.6.Ed.1.

to cauſe the demandants to replead of new, whereby ſuch demandants are greatly delayed in the caſe aforeſaide, of their right in the kings Court, by reaſon of ſuch malice, as well by the fraude growing vpon the ſayde Statute, as by other iuſt and reaſonable cauſe, and this is vſed and found dayly before our Iuſtices: In conſideration whereof our Soueraigne Lord the King, for to withſtand all ſuch malice in the foreſaide caſe, and intending to prouide a remedie therein, in his full Parliament hath ordeyned, and from hencefoorth commandeth ſtraightly to be obſerued, that is to wit, from the Munday next after the feaſt of the Purification of our Lady, the twentieth yeere of his reigne, that if any before iudgement in the foreſayde caſe, commeth in on the ſide, and deſireth to be receiued, before his receit he ſhall find ſufficient Suretie ſuretie (as the court will award) to ſatiſfie the demandant of the value of iſſues of the lands ſo to be recouered from the day that he is receiued to make anſwere, vntill the time that finall iudgement be giuen vpon the petition of the demandant. And if the demandant recouer his demand, the defender ſhalbe Amerce grieuouſly amerced, if he haue whereof: and Impriſon if he haue not, he ſhall be impriſoned at the K. pleaſure. And if he can proue his right to be as good, as he affirmed at ſuch time as he was receiued, he ſhall goe quit. An.20.Ed.1.

3 If any ſuch tenant be impleaded, and he in the reuerſion come into the Court, and prayeth to bee receiued to defende his right at the day that the tenant pleadeth to the action or before, he ſhall be receiued to plead in chief to the Action, without taking any delay by voucher, ayde prayer, nonage, or any other delay, ſo that after ſuch receit, hee ſhall haue no maner delay by protection, eſſoine of the kings ſeruice, common eſſoine, or any other delay, but that the buſineſſe bee haſted, in as much as it may be by the law, and that dayes of grace bee giuen by the diſcretion of the Iudges, betweene the demaundant and him that is receiued in ſuch caſe, without giuing the common day in plea of lande, if the Demandant will not aſſent, to the intent that the Demaundants bee not too much delayed, becauſe they muſt pleade with two aduerſaries. And in the right of pleas that be now depending in ſuch caſe, they in the reuerſion ſhall be receiued in the maner as before is ſaid, at the next day that the parties haue in Court, although the ſame parties haue pleaded in chiefe before this time. Prouided alwayes, Reuerſion that they in the reuerſion, which pray to bee Suretie receiued, as before is ſaid, ſhall find ſuretie of the iſſues of the tenements demanded for the time that the ſame demandants bee delayed after the ſaide plea determined betweene the demandants and tenants, if the iudgement paſſe for the demandant, againſt them in the reuerſion aforeſaide, as well where the receit is counterpleaded, as where it is granted. Reſidence.

IT pleaſeth our Soueraigne Lord the king that ſuch clerkes as attend in his ſeruice Clerkes ſhall be corrected by their Ordinaries like as other, but ſo long as they are occupied about his buſineſſe they ſhall not bee bounden to keepe reſidence in their Churches. Here is Reſidence added of newe by the Kinges Councell. The king and his anceſters ſince time out of minde haue vſed that clerkes during ſuch time as they are in his ſeruice, ſhall not bee compelled to keepe reſidence at their benefices. And ſuch things as be thought neceſſary for the king and the Common wealth, ought not to be called preiudiciall to the libertie of the Church. Artic.cleri cap.8.An.9.Ed.2.

SUch as doe feare the ſubtilty of Shirifes, ſhall deliuer their writs originall and iudiciall in the open Countie, or againe in the Shire, where the collection of the kings money is, and may take of the Shirife or vnderſhirife being preſent, a bil, wherein the names of the demaundants and tenants mentioned, in the writ ſhall be conteined, and at the requeſt of him that deliuered the writ, the ſeale of the ſhirife or vnderſhirife ſhall be put to the bill for a teſtimonie, and mention ſhalbe made of the day of the deliuerance of the writ. And if the ſhirife or vnderſhirife will not put his ſeale to the bill, the witneſſe of knights and other credible perſons being in preſence, ſhall be taken, that put their ſeales to ſuch bill. And if the ſhirife will not returne writs deliuered vnto him, & complaint thereof be made to the Iuſtices, a writ iudiciall ſhall goe vnto the Iuſtices aſſigned to take Aſſiſes, that they ſhall inquire by ſuch as were preſent at the deliuerance of the writ of the Shirife, if they knew of the deliuerance, and the inqueſt ſhall be returned. And if it be found by the inqueſt, that the Writ was deliuered to him, dammages ſhall be awarded to the plaintife or demaundant, hauing reſpect to the qualitie and quantitie of the action, and to the perill that might haue come to him by reaſon of the delay that hee ſuſtained, and by this meane there is remedie when the Shirife returneth, that the writ came too late, whereby he could not execute the kinges commaundement. Oftentimes alſo plees be delayed, by reaſon that the ſhirife returneth, that he hath commaunded the Bailifes of ſome Libertie, which did nothing therein, and nameth liberties that neuer had the Returne of Writs, whereupon our Soueraigne Lord the King hath ordeyned, that the Treaſorer and Barons of the Exchequer ſhall deliuer in a Roll all the liberties in all maner of Shires that haue returne of writs. And if the Shirife anſwere, that he hath made returne to a Bailiſe of another libertie, then is conteined in the ſaid Roll, the Shirife ſhall be foorthwith puniſhed, as a diſheritor of the king and his Crowne. And if peraduenture hee returne, that hee hath deliuered the writ to a Bailife of ſome Libertie, that indeed hath returne, the Shirife ſhall be commanded, that he ſhall not ſpare for no libertie, but to execute the kinges precept, and that he doe the Bailifes to wit, to whom hee returned the Writ, that they be readie at a day conteined in the Writ, to anſwer why they did not execute the kings precept. And if they come at the day, and acquite themſelues, that no returne was made to them, the Shirife ſhall be forthwith condemned to the Lord of the ſame Libertie, and likewiſe to the partie grieued by the delay, for to render damages. And if the Bailifes come not in at the day, or do not acquite them ſelues in maner aforeſaid in euery iudiciall writ, ſo long as the plee hangeth, the Shirife ſhall be commaunded to ſpare for no libertie, &c. Manie times alſo Shirifes make falſe Returnes as touching theſe Articles, Quod de exitibus &c. returning ſometime, and lying, that there be no iſſues, ſometime that there are ſmall iſſues, when they may returne great, and ſometime doe make mention of no iſſues: wherefore it is ordeined and agreed, that if the plaintife demaund of the Shirifes returne, it ſhall be graunted him. And if hee offer to auerre, that the Shirife might haue returned greater iſſues vnto the king, hee ſhall haue a Writ Iudiciall vnto the Iuſtices aſſigned to take Aſſiſes, that they ſhall inquire in preſence of the Shirife, (if hee will be there) of what and how great iſſues the Shirifes might haue made returne from the day of the Writ purchaſed, vnto the day conteyned in the Writ. And when the Inqueſt is returned, if hee haue not afore anſwered for the whole, hee ſhall be charged with the ouerplus by the extreats of the Iuſtices deliuered in the Exchequer, and neuertheleſſe ſhall be grieuouſlie amerced for the concealement. And let the Shirife know, that rents, corne in the graunge, and all mooueables (except horſe harneſſe, and houſhold ſtuffe) be conteyned within the name of iſſues. And the King hath commaunded, that Shirifes ſhall bee puniſhed by the Inſtices once or twice (if need be) for ſuch falſe Returnes. And if they offend the third time, none ſhall haue to do therewith but the king. They make alſo manie times falſe anſwers, returning that they could not execute the kinges precept, for the reſiſtance of ſome great man: wherefore let the Shirifes beware from henceforth, for ſuch maner of anſwers redound much to the diſhonour of the King and of his Crowne. And as ſoone as his vnderbailifes doe teſtifie, that they found ſuch reſiſtance, forthwith all things ſet apart, (taking with him the power of the Shire) hee ſhall goe in proper perſon to doe execution: And if hee find his vnderbailifes falſe, he ſhall puniſh them by impriſonment, ſo that other by their example may be reformed. And if he doe find them true, hee ſhall puniſh the reſiſters, by impriſonment, from whence they ſhall not be deliuered without the kinges ſpeciall commaundement. And if percaſe the Shirife when hee commeth, doe finde reſiſtance, hee ſhall certifie to the Court the names of the reſiſters, ayders, conſenters, commaunders, and fauourers, and by a writ Iudiciall they ſhall be attached by the bodies to appeare in the kinges Court: And if they be conuict of ſuch reſiſtance, they ſhall be puniſhed at the kinges pleaſure: neither ſhall any Officer of the kings meddle in aſſigning the puniſhment, for our Soueraigne Lord the king hath reſerued it ſpecially to himſelfe, becauſe that reſiſters beene reputed diſturbers of his peace and of his Realme. And if the Shirife chaunge the returne ſo deliuered to him by Indenture, and be thereof conuict at the ſuit of the Lord of the franchiſe, of whom hee receiued the returne, if the Lord haue had any damage, or if his franchiſe be diſtreined, or at the ſuit of the partie that hath ſuſtained loſſe through that occaſion, hee ſhall be puniſhed by the king for his falſe return, and ſhall yeeld vnto the Lord and to the partie double damages. Alſo it is agreed, that from henceforth Shirifes and other Bailifes, that receiue the kings writs, returnable in his Court, ſhall ſend their owne name with the returnes, ſo that the Court may know of whom they tooke ſuch returnes if need be, and if any Shirife or other Bailife leaue out his name in his returnes, he ſhalbe grieuouſlie amerced to the kings vſe, An. 12. And that the ſaid Commiſſioners incontinent ſhal ſend into the Chancery the inqueſtes and matters before them in this behalfe taken and found. And moreouer that the Coroners of the ſame Countie for the time being, in which Countie ſuch riot, aſſemblie, or rout ſhall be made, ſhall make the panell that ſhall be vpon the ſaid commiſſion returnable, for the time that the Shirife that

And alſo that the ſame Coroners ſhall returne vpon euery of the ſaid perſons impanelled at the firſt day, when iſſues be to be loſt, xx. ſhillings at the leaſt, and at the ſecond day xl. s. at the leaſt, and at the third day one hundred ſhillings at the leaſt, and at euery day after, the double at the leaſt, which iſſues ſo returned becauſe of non appearance of ſuch perſons impanelled, ſhall be adiudged as forfait to the king, and leuiable to his vſe. And if default be found in the ſaid Coroners, touching the returne of ſuch perſons to be impanelled, or touching the returne of ſuch iſſues, as afore is ſaid, that euery of them ſhall pay to the kings vſe xl. pound. And if it happen that the ſaid Shirife ſo reputed in default be diſcharged of his office at the time that ſuch commiſſion ſhall go out of the Chancerie, that then the new Shirife of the ſame Countie, his ſucceſſour mediate or immediate for the time being, and not the Coroners of the ſame Countie, ſhal make the panell vpon this commiſſion, returnable in maner & fourme as the ſaid Coroners ſhould doe, in time when the Shirife ſo reputed in default ſtood in his office. And that the ſame new Shirife ſhall incurre like paine of xl. pounds againſt the King, if any default in him be found, touching the returne of any perſons by him to be impanelled, which haue not lands, tenements, or rents to the value of x. pounds by yere, or for returning ſuch iſſues as the ſaid Coroners be aboue charged to returne, as the ſaid Coroners be to loſe againſt the king in this behalfe. And that the Chauncelor of England for the time being, as ſoone as he may haue knowledge of ſuch Riot, aſſembly, or rout, he ſhal do to be ſent the kings writ to the Iuſtices of the Peace, & to the ſhirife or vnderſhirife of the Countie, where they be ſo made, that they ſhall put the Statute thereof made in execution, vpon the paine contained in the ſame. And though that ſuch writ come not to the ſaid Iuſtices, Shirife, or vnderſhirife, they ſhall not be excuſed of the paine aforeſaid, if they make not execution of the ſaid ſtatute. Prouided alwayes, that the Iuſtices and other officers aforeſaid, ſhall do their offices aforeſaid, at the kings coſtes, in going, carying, and returning, in doing their ſaid offices, by payment thereof to be made by the Shirife of the ſame Countie for the time being, by Indentures betwixt the Shirife and the ſaid Iuſtices and other officers aforeſaid, to be made of the paiment aforeſaid: whereof the ſaid Shirife vpon his accompt in the Exchequer, may haue due allowance. And that ſuch Riotors attainted of great and heynous riots, ſhall haue one whole yeeres impriſonment at the leaſt, without beeing let out of pryſon by bayle, mainpriſe, or in any other maner during the yeere aforeſaid: and that the Riotors attainted of petie riots, ſhall haue impriſonment, as beſt ſhall ſeeme to the King and his Counſell. And that the fines of ſuch Riotours attainted, ſhal bee by the ſaid Iuſtices increaſed and put in greater ſummes then they were wont to be put in ſuch caſes before this time, in ayde and ſupportation of the coſtes of Iuſtices and other Officers aforeſaid in this behalfe. by the aduiſe and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall in the ſame parliament aſſembled, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, that if any perſon in time to come, come into the Chauncerie, and make complaint duely, that any ſuch felon or offender as afore is ſaid, flie or withdraw them to any ſuch place, or elſewhere, to the intent aforeſaid, vpon ſuch complaint, a bill ſhall be ſufficiently made for the king: And the Chauncelor of England for the time being, after ſuch bill to him deliuered (if he may be duely informed, that ſuch Bill containeth trueth) ſhall haue power to make according to his diſcretion, a writ of Capias at the kings ſute, directed to the Shirife of the Countie or Counties where the ſaid murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, & other offences be ſuppoſed by the ſaid bill to be done and perpetrate, retournable in the ſaid Chauncerie at a certaine day. And that in euery ſuch writ of Proclamation ſhall be contained the ſubſtance of the matter compriſed within the ſaid Bill, and if they come not at the day of ſuch proclamation returned, then ſhall they be holden and adiudged for conuict, and attainted, as afore is ſaid. And if they come at the proclamation, be it of them inquired and done in maner as aboue is ſaid. Prouided alwayes, that the ſuggeſtions of ſuch Riots be witneſſed to the Chauncelor of England by letters, ſealed vnder the ſeales of two Juſtices of peace at the leaſt, and the Shirife of the Countie, where ſuch Riots ſhall be made, before that the writ of Capias be granted, in which writ of Capias the matter which is compriſed within the ſame Bil, ſhal be aſwell expreſſed, as in the writ of Proclamation thereof to be made. And if ſuch cauſe happen in the Countie Palantine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere in any Franchiſe, where there is a Chancelor and a Seale: that then the Chancelor of England ſhall doe to be written or ſent by the kings writ to the Chauncelor of ſuch Countie or Franchiſe, all the ſuggeſtion in the ſaid Bill compriſed, commaunding him to make ſuch execution, as in the ſaid article is compriſed: ſo alwaies that the kings writ doe not runne out of the Chauncerie of England into ſuch a Countie or Franchiſe, otherwiſe then hath been vſed in time paſt. And that this ordinance ſhall ſtand in his force vntill the end of the next Parliament, An.2.H.5.cap.9. This act is made perpetuall, as appeareth here next following.

6 The ſaid late ſtatute (s. An. 2. H. 5. cap.9. before 5.) ſhall now be kept & firmely holden for a Statute for euer, aſwell of murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblies of people in great number, in maner of Inſurrections, and diuers other Rebellions and Riots made and committed before the beginning of this preſent Parliament, as in time to come. Prouided alwaies, that it be witneſſed by two Juſtices of the Peace of the Counties where ſuch Riots ſhal be ſuppoſed, that the common fame and voice runneth in the ſame Counties of the ſame riots, before that the writ of Capias ſhall be awarded. Prouided alſo, that if any ſuch caſe happen in the ſaid Countie Palantine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere in a place infranchiſed, where there is a Chauncelor and a ſeale, that then the ſaid Chancelor of ſuch Countie or place infranchiſed for the time being, after complaint to him duely made and witneſſed by a Juſtice, or the Lieutenant of a Juſtice, and the Shirife of ſuch Counties Palantine or place infranchiſed, for the time being, in the forme aforeſaid, ſhall haue like power to awarde a Capias, and a writ of Proclamation aforeſaid, as the ſaid Chancelor of England hath, An. 8.H.6.cap.14.

7 Becauſe the ſtatute of 13.H.4.cap.7. It is therefore &c. that if any Riot, rout, or vnlawfull aſſembly be committed and done at any time after the firſt day of May next comming, within this Realme of England, that the Shirife hauing a precept direct to him, ſhall retourne xxiiii. perſons dwelling within the Shire where ſuch riot, rout, or vnlawfull aſſembly ſhall be ſo committed and done, whereof euery of them ſhall haue lands and tenements within the ſame ſhire, to the yeerely value of xx. ſhillinges of Charter hold, or freehold, or xxvi. ſhillings viii. pence of copy hold, or of both, ouer and aboue all charges, for to inquire of the ſaid riot, route, or vnlawfull aſſembly. FOraſmuch as the peace of this Realme, hath beene weakelie kept heretofore for lacke of quicke and freſh ſuite making after felons in due maner, and namely becauſe of franchiſes, where the felons are receiued: It is prouided, that all generally be ready and apparelled at the commaundement and ſummons of Shirifes, and at the crie of the Countrey, to purſue and arreſt felons (when any neede is) aſwell within franchiſes as without, and they that will not ſo doe, and thereof bee attainted, ſhall make a grieuous fine to the king. And if default be found in the Lord of the franchiſe, the king ſhall take him to the ſame franchiſe: And if default bee in the Baylife, hee ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment, and after ſhall make a grieuous fine: And if hee haue not whereof, hee ſhall haue impriſonment of two yeeres: And if the Shiriffe, Coroner, or other Baylife within Franchiſe or without, for reward or for prayer, or for any maner of affinitie, conceale, conſent, or procure to conceale the felonies done in their Bayliwickes, or otherwiſe doe forbeare to attache or arreſt ſuch felons (there as they may) or otherwiſe to doe theyr office for fauour borne to ſuch miſdoers, and bee attainted thereof, they ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment, and after make a grieuous fine. 2 Foraſmuch as from day to day robberyes, murders, and burning of houſes, bee more often vſed then they haue beene heretofore, and Felons cannot bee attainted by the oath of Iurours, which had rather ſuffer Felonyes done to Strangers to paſſe without paine, then to indict the offenders, of whom a great part bee folke of the ſame Countrey, or at the leaſt if the offenders bee of an other Countrey, the receiuers bee of places neere. And they doe the ſame, becauſe the oath is not now put vnto Iurours, nor vpon the Countrey where ſuch felonyes were done, as to the reſtitution of dammages hytherto no paine hath been lymitted for their concealement and laches: Our Lord the king, for to abate the power of Felons, hath eſtabliſhed a payne in this caſe, ſo that from henceforth, for feare of the payne more then for feare of any oath, they ſhall not ſpare any, nor conceale any felonyes. And commandeth that proclamation bee ſolemnely made in all Countyes, Hundreds, Markets, Fayres, and all other places, where great reſort of people is, ſo that none ſhall excuſe themſelues by ignorance, that from henceforth euerie Countrey bee ſo well kept, that immediately vpon robberyes and felonies committed, ſuch freſh ſute be made from towne to towne, and from Countrey to Countrey. Likewiſe, when need require, that Inqueſts bee made in townes by him that is Lord of the towne, and after in the Hundred, and after in the Franchiſe, and in the Countie and ſometime in two, three, or foure Counties, in caſe where felonies bee committed in the marches of ſhires, ſo that the treſpaſſers may bee attaynted. And if the Countrey doe not anſwere for ſuch maner of miſdoers, the paine ſhall bee ſuch, that the Countrey, that is to wit, the people dwelling in the Countrey ſhall anſwere for the robberyes done, and alſo for the dammages, ſo that the whole Hundred, where the robberie happeneth to bee done with the Franchiſes, being within the precinct of the ſame Hundred ſhall anſwere for the robberyes done. And if the robbery chance to bee done in the diuiſion of two Hundreds, in ſuch caſe both Hundreds together with the Franchiſes, ſhall anſwere it. And after that the Felonie or robberie is done, the Countrey ſhall haue no longer ſpace then fortie dayes, within which it ſhall behooue them to agree for the robbery and treſpaſſe, or elſe that they anſwere for the bodyes of the offenders. And foraſmuch as the King will not that his people ſhould bee ſuddenlie put in feare of this penaltie, that ſeemeth very hard to many, the king graunteth that they ſhall not incurre it immediately, but it ſhall bee reſpited vntill the Eaſter next following, and within that time the king ſhall ſee how the Countrey will order themſelues, and whether ſuch Felonyes and rob-

After which terme let all bee aſſured, that the aforeſayd penaltie ſhall runne generally, that is to wit, that euerie Countrey, that is to ſay, the people of the Countrey ſhall anſwere for the Felonyes and robberies done among them. And for the more ſurety of the Countrey, the King hath commaunded, that in great Townes being walled, the gates ſhall bee cloſed from the Sunne ſetting vntill the Sunne riſing, and that no man doe lodge in the ſuburbes, nor in any forreine part of the Towne but in the day time, not yet in the day time, without his Hoſte will anſwere for him, and the Bayliffes of Townes euery weeke, or at the leaſt euerie fifteenth day, ſhall make inquirie of all perſons being lodged in the ſuburbes, and in the forreine partes of the Townes. And if they doe finde any that doe lodge or receiue in any maner, men, of whom there is ſuſpition, that they bee people againſt the peace, the Bailiffes ſhall doe right therein. And the King commaundeth, that from hencefoorth watches bee made, as it hath been vſed in times paſſed, that is to wit, from the feaſt of Aſcention, vnto Michaelmas, in euery Citie by ſixe men at euerie gate, in euerie Borough by twelue men, in euerie Towne by ſixe or foure, according to the number of inhabitantes of the Towne, and they ſhall watch all night from the Sunne reſting vnto the Sunne riſing. And if any ſtranger doe paſſe by them, hee ſhall bee arreſted vnto the morning: and then if no ſuſpition be found, he ſhall goe quite, and if they finde ſuſpition, they ſhal foorthwith deliuer him to the Sheriffe, and hee ſhall receiue him without dammage, and ſhall keepe him ſafelie vntill hee bee deliuered in due maner: And if they wil not obey the arreſt, hue and crie ſhall bee leuyed vpon them, and the watchmen ſhall follow them with all the towne and the neyghbour Townes, with hue and crie from towne to towne, vntill that they bee taken and deliuered to the Shirife, as before is ſayd, and for the arreſtments of ſuch ſtrangers none ſhall bee puniſhed. And further it is commaunded, that the hygh waies leading from one Market Towne to an other, ſhall bee enlarged where as woodes, hedges, or dikes bee, ſo that there bee neyther dike, vnderwood, nor buſh, whereby any may eſcape to doe euill, within two hundred foote of each ſide the way, ſo as this Statute doe not extend vnto aſhes nor vnto great wood, ſo as it bee there vnderneath. And if by the default of the Lord, that will not auoyde the dike vnderwood, or buſhes in maner aforeſayd, any robberyes bee done, the Lord ſhall anſwere it. And if murder bee done, the Lord ſhall make fine for it at the Kinges pleaſure. And if the Lord bee not able to fell the vnderwoodes, the Countrey ſhall ayde him therein. And the king willeth, that in his demeane landes and woodes within foreſt and without, the wayes ſhall bee inlarged (as before is ſayd.) And if percaſe a parke bee neere to the hye way, the Lord muſt miniſh his Parke the ſpace of two hundred foote from the high wayes, as before is ſayd, or elſe muſt make ſuch a wall, dike, or hedge, that the euill doers may not paſſe ne returne for to doe euill. And further it is commaunded, that euery man haue in his houſe harneſſe for to keep the peace after the ancient aſſiſe, that is for to ſay, that euery man betwixt fifteene yeere of age, and threeſcore yeeres, ſhall bee aſſeſſed and ſworne to haue armour, according to the quantitie of theyr landes and goodes, that is to wit, for fifteene pound landes, and goods of fortie markes, an halbert, helme of yron, a ſwoord, a knife, and an horſe. And for ten poundes of land, and twentie markes goods, an halberd, an helme, a ſwoord, and a knife. And for fiue pound landes, a doublet, an helme of yron, a ſwoord, and a knife, and from forty ſhillings land and more vnto an hundred ſhillinges of land, a ſwoord, a bowe and arrowes, and a knife. And hee that hath leſſe then fortie ſhillinges yeerely, ſhall bee ſworne to keepe giſarmes, kniues, and other leſſe weapons. And hee that hath leſſe then twentie markes in goodes, ſhall haue ſwoordes, kniues and other leſſe weapons, and all other that may haue them, ſhall haue bowes and arrowes out of the forreſt, and in the forreſt bowes and boltes. And that view of armour be made euery yere two times. And in euery Hundred and Franchiſes two Conſtables ſhall bee choſen to make the view of armour, and the Conſtables aforeſaid ſhall preſent before Iuſtices aſſigned, when they ſhall come into the Countrey, ſuch defaultes as they ſhall haue found of armour, and of ſuites, and of watches, and of hygh wayes, and alſo ſhall preſent all ſuch as doe lodge Strangers in vplandiſh Townes, for whom they will not anſwere. And the Iuſtices aſſigned ſhall preſent the ſame at euery Parliament vnto the King, and the King ſhall prouide remedie therein. 4 Whereas in the Statute made at Wincheſter, in the time of king Edward, Grandfather to the King that now is (before 2.) it is conteined, that if any ſtranger paſſe by the Countrey in the night, of whom any hath ſuſpition, hee ſhall bee arreſted and deliuered to the Shiriffe, and remayne in ward till hee be duely deliuered. And becauſe there hath been diuers manſlaughters, felonyes and robberies done in times paſt, by people that bee called Roberdſmen, Waſters, and Drawlatches: It is accorded that if any man haue any euill ſuſpition of ſuch, bee it by day or by night, they ſhall be incontinentlie arreſted by the Conſtables of the Townes. 6 Whereas by two ancient Statutes, the one made in the Parliament holden at Wincheſter, in the thirteenth yeere of the reigne of King Edward the firſt, and the other in the eyght and twentith yeere of the reigne of King Edward the third, it was for the better repreſſing of robberyes and felonyes (amongſt other thinges) enacted to this effect, That if the Country doe not anſwere for the bodyes of ſuch malefactours, that then the paine ſhould be ſuch, that is to wit, that the people dwelling in the Countrey, ſhall bee anſwerable for the robberies done, and the dammages: ſo that the whole Hundred where the robberie ſhall bee done, with the franchiſes which are within the precinct of the ſame Hundred, ſhall anſwere the robberyes done. And if the robberie chance to bee done in the diuiſion of two hundreds, that then both the Hundreds together, with the franchiſes within the precinct of them, ſhall be anſwerable, as in the ſayd two ſeuerall Statutes it doth more at large appeare. Foraſmuch as the ſayd parts of the ſayd ſeuerall Statutes being of late dayes more commonly put in execution then heretofore they haue been, are found by experience to bee very hard and extreame to many of the Queenes Maieſties good ſubiectes, becauſe by the ſame Statutes they doe remaine charged with the penalties therein contained, nothwithſtanding their vnabilitie to ſatiſfie the ſame, and though they doe as much as in reaſon might bee required in purſuing ſuch malefactors and offenders, whereby both large ſcope of negligence is giuen to the inhabitantes and reſiantes in other hundreds and countyes, not to proſecute the hue and cry made, followed and brought vnto them, by reaſon they are not chargeable for any portion of the goods robbed, nor with any dammages in that behalfe giuen, and alſo great incouragement and imboldening is likewiſe giuen vnto the offenders to commit dayly more felonies and robberies, as ſeeing it in maner impoſſible for the inhabitantes and reſiantes of the ſayd hundred and franchiſes wherein the robberie is committed, to apprehend them without the ayde of the other Hundreds and Counties adioyning, and for that alſo that the partie robbed hauing remedie by the aforeſayd Statutes for the recouering of his goods robbed, and dammages againſt the inhabitantes and reſiantes of the hundred wherin the robberie was committed, is many times negligent and careleſſe in proſecuting and purſuing the ſayd malefactours and offenders: Our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, not willing therefore that her people ſhould bee impoueriſhed by any ſuch paine or penalty, which ſhould bee hard or grieuous to them, and haue ſpeciall regard to abate the power of felons, and to repreſſe felonyes, doth for remedie hereof, with the conſent of the Lordes Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame Parliament eſtabliſhe and enact, that the inhabitantes and reſiantes of euery or any ſuch Hundred, (with the franchiſes within the precinct thereof) wherein negligence, fault or defect of purſuite, and freſh ſuite, after hue and cry made, ſhall happen to bee, from and after fortie dayes next after

And that the ſame moitie ſhall and may be recouered by action of debt, bill, playnt or information in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courtes of Record at Weſtminſter, by and in the name of the Clerke of the Peace for the time being, of or in euery ſuch Countie within this Realme, where any ſuch robbery and recouery by the partie or partyes robbed ſhall bee, without naming the Chriſtian name or ſurname of the ſayd Clerke of the Peace, which moytie ſo recouered, ſhall bee to the onely vſe and behoofe of the inhabitantes of the ſayd Hundred where any ſuch robbery or felony ſhall bee committed or done. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, that if any Clerke of the Peace, of or in any Countie within this Realme ſhall at any time hereafter commence or preferre any ſuch ſuite, action, or information, and ſhall after the ſame ſo ſued, commenced or preferred, happen to dye, or to bee remooued out of his office before recouerie and execution had: that yet no ſuch action, ſute, byll, plaint or information, ſued, commenced, or preferred, ſhall by ſuch diſplacing or death, bee abated, diſcontinued or ended, but that it ſhall and may bee lawfull to and for the Clerke of the Peace next ſucceeding in the ſayd Countie, to proſecute, purſue and follow all and euery ſuch action, bill, playnt, ſuite and information, for the cauſes aforeſaid, ſo hanging and depending in ſuch maner and forme, and to all intentes and purpoſes, as that Clerke of Peace might haue done which firſt commenced or preferred the ſayd ſuite, byll, plaint, or information. And although the whole Hundred where ſuch robberies and felonies are committed with the libertyes within the precinct thereof, are by the two former Statutes charged with the anſwering to the party robbed his dammages: yet neuertheleſſe the recouery and execution, by and for the partie and partyes robbed, is had againſt one, or a very fewe perſons of the ſayd inhabitantes, and hee and they ſo charged, haue not heretofore by lawe had any meane or way to haue any contribution, of or from the reſidue of the ſayd Hundred where the ſayd robberie is committed, to the great impoueriſhing of them againſt whom ſuch recouerie or execution is had. For remedie whereof, Bee it enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, that after execution of dammages by the partie or partyes ſo robbed had, it ſhall and may be lawfull (vpon complaint made by the party or partyes ſo charged) to & for two Iuſtices of the Peace, (whereof one to bee of the Quorum) of the ſame County, inhabyting within the ſayd Hundred, or neere vnto the ſame where any ſuch execution ſhall bee had, to aſſeſſe, and taxe ratably and proportionably, according to their diſcretions, all and euery the townes, pariſhes, villages and hamlets, aſwell of the ſayd Hundred where any ſuch robbery ſhall bee committed, as of the libertyes within the ſayd Hundred, to and towardes an equall contribution to bee had and made for the reliefe of the ſayd inhabitant or inhabytantes, againſt whom the party or partyes robbed before that time had his or their execution: And that after ſuch taxation made, the Conſtables, Conſtable, Headboroughs or Headborough of euerie ſuch towne, pariſh, village and hamlet, ſhall by vertue of this preſent act, haue full power and authoritie within their ſeuerall limits, ratably and proportionably to taxe and aſſeſſe according to their abilityes, euerie inhabitant and dweller in euery ſuch towne, pariſh, village and hamlet, for and towards the payment of ſuch taxation and aſſeſſement as ſhall bee ſo made, vpon euery ſuch towne, pariſh, village and hamlet as aforeſayd, by the ſaid Iuſtices: and that if any inhabitant of any ſuch towne, pariſh village or hamlet, ſhall obſtinately refuſe and deny to pay the ſayd taxion and aſſeſſement, ſo by the ſayd Conſtables, Conſtable, Headboroughs or headborough taxed and aſſeſſed, that then it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for the ſayd Conſtables and Headboroughs, and euery of them within theyr ſeuerall limits and iuriſdictions, to diſtreine all and euery perſon and perſons ſo refuſing and denying by his and their goods and chattels, and the ſame diſtreſſe to ſell, and the money thereof comming to reteine to the vſe aforeſayd. And ſuch other of the ſame conſtitutions and canons, as by the ſaid xxxii. or more part of them ſhall bee approued to ſtande with the lawes of God, and conſonant to the Lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſtand in their full ſtrength and power, the kinges moſt royall aſſent firſt had and obteined to the ſame. And that the ſame xxxii. by his Highneſſe ſo to be named, ſhal haue power and authoritie to view, ſearch, and examine the ſaid canons, conſtitutions and ordinance prouinciall and ſynodall, heretofore made: and ſuch of them, as the kinges Highneſſe and the ſaid xxxii. or the more part of them, ſhall deeme and adiudge worthie to be continued, kept and obeyed, ſhall be from thencefoorth kept, obeyed, and executed within this Realme, ſo that the kings moſt royall aſſent vnder his great ſeale be firſt had to the ſame. And the reſidue of the ſaid canons, conſtitutions and ordinances prouinciall which the king and the ſayde thirtie and two perſons, or the more part of them ſhall not approue, or deeme and iudge worthie to be abolite, abrogate and made fruſtrate, ſhall from henceforth be voyde and of none effect, and neuer bee put in execution within this Realme. Prouided alway, that no canons, conſtitutions or ordinance ſhall bee made or put in execution within this Realme, by the authoritie of the Conuocation of the Cleargie, which ſhall bee contrariant or repugnant to the kings prerogatiue royall, or the cuſtomes, lawes or ſtatutes of this Realme: any thing conteined in this acte to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding. And bee it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that from the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhal be in the yeere of our Lord God, 1534. no maner of appeales ſhall bee had, prouoked, or made out of this realme, or out of any the kinges Dominions to the Biſhop of Rome, nor to the ſee of Rome, in any cauſes or matters happening to be in contention, and hauing their commencement and beginning in any of the courtes within this Realme, or within any the kings dominions, of what nature, condition or qualitie ſoeuer they be of, but that all maner of appeales, of what nature or condition ſoeuer they be of, or what cauſe or matters ſoeuer they concerne, ſhall be made and had by the parties grieued, or hauing cauſe of appeale after ſuch maner, forme, and condition, as is limitted for appeales to be had and proſecuted within this Realme in cauſes of matrimonie, tithes, oblations, and obuentions, by a ſtatute thereof made and eſtabliſhed ſithen the beginning of this preſent Parliament (viz. 24. So that no Archbiſhop nor Biſhop of this Realme ſhall intermit or meddle with any ſuch appeales otherwiſe, or in any other maner, then they might haue done before the making of this act, any thing in this acte to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. And that no maner of perſon or perſons to bee named, elected, preſented or poſtulated to any Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke within this Realme, ſhould pay the ſaide annates or firſt fruites, nor any other maner of ſumme or ſummes of money, penſions, or annuities for the ſame, or for any other like exaction or cauſe, vpon paine to forfeite to our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, al maner his goods and cattels for euer, and all the temporall landes and poſſeſſions of the ſaide Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke, during the time that he or they that ſhould offend contrary to the ſaid act, ſhould haue, poſſeſſe and enioy the ſayde Archbiſhopricke or Biſhopricke. Archbiſhop, in whoſe prouince the ſaide Biſhopricke ſhall be: ſo alwayes that the ſame perſon ſhould be named and preſented to the king for the time being, to the ſaid Archbiſhop. And if any perſon being named and preſented as is aforeſaid, to any Archbiſhopricke of this Realme, making conuenient ſuite as is aforeſaid, ſhould happen to be letted, delayed, deferred, or otherwiſe diſturbed from the ſayd Archbiſhopricke, for lacke of pall, bull, or other things to him requiſite to bee obtained at the ſee of Rome, that then euery ſuch perſon ſo named and preſented to bee Archbiſhop, might and ſhould be conſecrated and inueſted after preſentation made as is aforeſaide, by any other two Biſhops within this Realme, whom the kinges Highneſſe, or any his heires or ſucceſſors, kinges of England, would appoint and aſſigne for the ſame, according, and after like maner as diuers Archbiſhops and Biſhops haue bene heretofore in ancient time, by ſundry the kings moſt noble progenitors made, conſecrated and inueſted within this Realme. And it was further enacted by the ſayd act, that euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop beeing named and preſented by the kings Highnes his heires and ſucceſſors, kings of England, and being conſecrated and inueſted as is aforeſaid, ſhall be inſtalled accordingly, and ſhould be accepted, taken and reputed, vſed and obeyed, as an archbiſhop or biſhop of the dignitie, ſee or place whereunto he ſhall bee ſo named, preſented and conſecrated as other like Prelates of the Prouince, See or Dioceſſe haue bene vſed, accepted, taken and obeyed, which haue had and obteined completely their buls and other thinges requiſite in that behalfe from the ſee of Rome, and alſo ſhould fully and entirely haue and inioy all the ſpiritualties and temporalties of the ſaid archbiſhopricke or biſhopricke, in as large, ample, and beneficiall maner, as any of his or their predeceſſors had or enioyed in the ſaid archbiſhopricke or biſhopricke, ſatiſfying and yeelding vnto the kinges Highneſſe, and to his heires and ſucceſſors all ſuch dueties, rights and inueſts as before time hath beene accuſtomed to be paied for any ſuch archbiſhopricke or biſhopricke, according to the ancient lawes and cuſtomes of this realme, and the kings prerogatiue royall, as in the ſaide acte amongeſt other thinges is more at large mentioned. And albeit the ſaide biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, hath bene enformed and certified of the effectuall contents of the ſaide Acte, to the intent that by ſome gentle wayes the ſaide exactions might haue bene redreſſed and reformed: yet neuertheles the ſaid biſhop of Rome hitherto, hath made none anſwere of his minde therein to the kings Highnes, nor deuiſed or required any reaſonable wayes to and with our ſaid ſoueraigne Lorde for the ſame: wherefore his moſt excellent goodneſſe, for the wealth and profite of this his realme, and ſubiects of the ſame, hath not onely put his moſt gracious and royall aſſent to the foreſaid acte, but alſo hath ratified and confirmed the ſame, and euery clauſe and article therein conteined, as by his letters patents vnder his great Seale inrolled in the Parliament roll of this preſent Parliament more at large is conteined. And foraſmuch as in the ſaid act it is not plainely and certainely expreſſed, in what maner and faſhion archbiſhops and biſhops ſhall be elected, preſented, inueſted and conſecrated within this realme, & in all other the kings dominions: Bee it now therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act and euery thing therein conteined, ſhall bee and ſtand in ſtrength, vertue and effect, except onely that no perſon or perſons hereafter ſhall be preſented, nominated, or commended to the ſaid biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the Pope, or to the ſee of Rome, to or for the dignitie or office of any archbiſhop or biſhop within this realme, or in any other the kings dominions, nor ſhall ſende nor procure therefore any maner of buls, brieues, palles, or other things requiſite for an archbiſhop or biſhop, nor ſhal pay any ſums of money for annates, firſt fruites, or otherwiſe for expedition of any ſuch buls, brieues, or palles, but that by the authoritie of this act, ſuch preſenting, nominating or commending to the ſaid biſhop of Rome, or to the ſee of Rome, & ſuch buls, brieues, palles, annates, firſt fruits, and euery other ſummes of money heretofore limitted accuſtomed or vſed to bee paide at the ſaid ſee of Rome, for procuration or expedition of any ſuch buls, brieues, or palles, or other thing concerning the ſame, ſhal vtterly ceaſe, and no longer bee vſed within this realme or within any the kinges dominions, any thing conteined in the ſaid acte afore mentioned, or any vſe, cuſtome, or preſcription to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. And furthermore be it ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaide, that at euery ordinance of archbiſhopricke or biſhopricke within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, the King our Soueraigne Lorde, his heires and ſucceſſours may graunt the Prior

And if they doe, or deferre or delay their election aboue twelue dayes next after ſuch Licence and letters miſſiues to them deliuered, that then for euery ſuch default, the kinges highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſours, at their libertie and pleaſure, ſhall nominate and preſent by their Letters Patents vnder their great ſeale, ſuch perſon to the ſayd office and dignitie, ſo being voyde, as they ſhall thinke able and conuenient for the ſame. And that euery ſuch nomination and preſentment to bee made by the kinges Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, if it be to the office and dignitie of a Biſhop, ſhall bee made to the Archbiſhop and Metropolitane of the Prouince where the See of the ſame Biſhopricke is voyde, if the See of the ſaid Archbiſhop be then full and not void, and if it bee voyde, then to bee made to ſuch Archbiſhoppe or Metropolitane within this Realme, or in any the Kinges Dominions, as ſhall pleaſe the Kinges Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors. And if any ſuch Nomination or Preſentment ſhall happen to bee made for default of ſuch elections to the dignitie or office of any Archbiſhop, then the kinges Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, by his Letters Patents vnder his great ſeale ſhall nominate and preſent ſuch perſon as they will depoſe to haue the ſayde office and dignitie of the Archbiſhopricke being voyde, to one ſuch Archbiſhop, and two ſuch Biſhops, or elſe to foure ſuch Biſhops in this Realme, or in any the kinges dominions, as ſhall bee aſſigned by our ſayde Soueraigne Lorde, his heires or ſucceſſors. And bee it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that whenſoeuer any ſuch preſentment or nomination ſhall be made by the Kinges Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, by vertue and authoritie of this Acte, and according to the tenor of the ſame, that then euery Archbiſhoppe and Biſhop, to whoſe handes any ſuch preſentment and nomination ſhall bee directed, ſhall with all ſpeede and celeritie, inueſt, and conſecrate the perſon nominate and preſented by the kinges Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, to the office and dignitie that ſuch perſon ſhall be ſo preſented vnto, and giue and vſe to him pall and all other benedictions, ceremonies and thinges requiſite for the ſame, without ſuing, procuring, or obteining hereafter any bulles or other things at the See of Rome, for any ſuch office or dignitie in any behalfe. And if the ſaid Deane and Chapter, or Prior and Couent, after ſuch Licence and Letters miſſiue to them directed within the ſayde twelue dayes, do elect and chuſe the ſayd perſon mentioned in the ſaid letters miſſiues, according to the requeſt of the Kinges Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, thereof to be made by the letters miſſiues in that behalfe: then their election ſhall ſtand good and effectuall to all intents, and that the perſon ſo elected after certification made of the ſame election vnder the common and Couent ſeale of the electors, to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall be reputed, and taken by the name of Lord elected of the ſayde Dignitie and Office, that hee ſhall be elected vnto. And ſhall alſo entitle in his bookes and inroll of record, ſuch other writings as thither ſhall be brought vnder the Archbiſhops ſeale not to bee confirmed, taking for his paines ſuch reaſonable ſummes of money, as hereafter by this act to him ſhall be limitted for the ſame. And foraſmuch as the charges of obteyning the ſaid licences, diſpenſations, faculties, and other reſcripts or writinges aforenamed, at the court of Rome, by the loſſes, and exchanges, and in conducting of curors, and waging ſolicitors to ſue for anie ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, inſtruments, and other reſcripts or writings, haue beene grieuous and exceſſiue to your people, and manie times greater ſummes haue beene demaunded for the ſpeedie expedition in the court of Rome, then be expreſſed in the old taxe, limitted to be paide for the ſaid expeditions, whereby your people haue beene brought to an incertaintie vpon the payment for expeditions of ſuch thinges, and by reaſon thereof haue been conſtrained to pay more then they were wont to doe, to the great impoueriſhing of this Realme as is aforeſaid: And ſometime the ſpeeding of ſuch diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other writinges at Rome, haue been ſo long differred, that the parties labouring for the ſame, haue ſuffered great incommodities and loſſe for lacke of quicke ſpeede, which hereafter may be had within this your Realme, to the great commoditie of your people, whereby the charges of making exchanges, conducting of curors, and ſolicitors for the ſaid diſpenſations, ſhall bee abated, and your people ſo much relieued and eaſed, to the intent that all ambiguitie and incertaintie of payments for diſpenſation, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts & writings, may be taken away, that no fraud nor exaction ſhalbe exerciſed vpon your people by ſuch officers as ſhal be appointed by this act, to take pains in ſpeeding ſuch diſpenſations, faculties & licences, but that your people may be ſure and certain what they be appointed to pay for the ſame: Be it enacted by this preſent Parliament, & by authoritie of the ſame, that there ſhall be two books drawen, and made of one tenor, in which ſhalbe conteined the taxes of all cuſtomable diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other writinges wont to be ſped at Rome, which books & euery leafe of thoſe books, and both ſides of euery leafe, ſhalbe ſubſcribed by the Archbiſhop of Canterburie, the L. And one of the ſaid books ſhall remain in the hands of him, which ſhalbe appointed to be regiſter & ſcribe of the ſaid diſpenſation, faculties, & licences, vnder the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterburie, in forme as is before ſaid: And that other booke ſhall remain with the clerk of the Chãcerie, which by your grace, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall be appointed as is before rehearſed. Which clerke of the Chancerie ſhall alſo intitle and note particularly & daily in his book ordeined for that purpoſe, the number & qualitie of the diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts and writings, which ſhalbe ſealed only with the ſeale of the ſaid Archbiſhop, & alſo which ſhalbe ſealed with the ſaid ſeale & confirmed with the great Seale, in forme as is before ſaid, and that al fraud & concealment in this behalfe may be auoyded. And be it enacted by this preſent parliament, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no man ſuing for diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts or writinges, which were wont to be ſped at Rome, ſhall pay any more for their diſpenſations, licences, or reſcripts, then ſhall be contained, taxed, & limitted in the ſaid duplicate books of taxes, only compoſitions excepted, of which being arbitrarie, no taxe can be made. Wherefore the taxe thereof ſhalbe ſet and limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterburie, and the L. Chancelor of England, or the Lord Keeper of the great ſeale for the time being. Supremacie

And that it may be &c. that albeit the title or ſtile of Supremacie, or ſupreme head of the Church of England, and of Ireland, or either of them, neuer was, ne could be iuſtly or lawfully attributed or knowledged to any king, or Soueraigne gouernor of this Realme, nor in any wiſe could or might rightfully, iuſtly, or lawfully by any King or Soueraigne gouernor of the ſame Realme be claimed, challenged, or vſed: Yet foraſmuch as the ſaid title and ſtile, ſithence the third day of No. in the xxvi. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid king Henry the eight, hath been vſed, and is mentioned and contayned in diuers and ſundry writs, letters patents, recordes, exemplifications, court rolles, charters, deedes, inſtruments, euidences, bookes, and writings, it ſhall be lawfull aſwell to and for your Maieſties, and your ſoueraigne Ladies heires and ſucceſſors, as to and for euery other perſon or perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, at all time and times hereafter to haue, retaine, and keepe the ſaid writs, letters patents, recordes, exemplifications, court rolls, charters, deedes, inſtruments, euidences, bookes, and writings, and them to ſhew, exhibite, vſe, alleage, and plead in all times and places requiſite or needfull, without any danger, penaltie, loſſe, forfaiture, trouble, vexation, or impeachment, for the ſame: any thing in this act, or in any other act or acts to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And where your Highneſſe our ſoueraigne Ladie, ſince your comming to the Crowne of the Realme, of a good and Chriſtian conſcience, omitted to write the ſaid ſtile of ſupremacie, ſpecified in one Act made in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation, in the 35. yere of the reigne of your late father king Henry the eight cap. 3. aſwell in gifts, graunts, letters patents, as in commiſſions, & other writings, and alſo other haue in their writings done the ſame, aſwell in your time as before: And foraſmuch as notwithſtanding any law made concerning the ſaid ſtile of Supremacie, it was in the free choiſe, libertie, and pleaſure of the king of this Realme, and of your highneſſe, whether ye would expreſſe the ſame in the ſaid ſtile or not.

Graunts
Letters patents

Be it therefore &c. that all graunts, letters patents, commiſſions, inditements, recordes, and writinges made in your our ſoueraigne Ladies name, or in the names of your our ſoueraigne Lord & Lady, or other, wherein the ſaid ſtile of ſupremacie is omitted, is, and ſhall be, to all intents and purpoſes, as good & effectuall, as if the ſame had been therein expreſſed, and may be detayned, kept, pleaded, and alleaged without any danger, paine, penaltie, or forfaiture to inſue to any perſon or perſons, or body politike, for, or concerning the omiſſion of the ſame ſtile, or any part thereof, in any ſuch writings, and that no perſon ne perſons ſhal be impeached, moleſted, or damnified, for or by reaſon of any ſuch omiſſion. And where in an Act of parliament made ſince the ſaid xx. yeere of king Henry the eight, (s. An. 23. H. 8. cap. 16.) all bulles, diſpenſations, and writings, which were before that time obtained from the Sea of Rome, ſhould be voide, aboliſhed, and extinguiſhed, with a clauſe: neuertheleſſe, that the matter of them by vertue of letters Patents from the King then being, ſhould and might be alleaged, pleaded, and allowed, as if the ſame had not been ſo aboliſhed, or extinguiſhed: Foraſmuch as the ſaid Act is here before amongſt other repealed & made voide.

Bulles
Diſpenſations

Be it therefore enacted &c. that all bulles, diſpenſations, and priuiledges obtayned before the ſaid twenty yeres, or at any time ſithence, or which ſhall hereafter be obtayned of the Sea of Rome, not contayning matter contrary or preiudicial to the authority, dignitie, or preeminence royall or imperiall of the Realme, or to the lawes of this Realme now being in force, and not in this Parliament repealed, may be put in execution, vſed, and alleaged in any Court within this Realme or elſewhere, whether the ſame remaine yet whole, or can appeare to haue been cancelled, in as vayleable and effectuall maner, to all intents & purpoſes, as if the ſaid Act had neuer been had or made: any obiection by pretence of extinguiſhment, or cancelling of the ſaid bulles, diſpenſations, or priuiledges, or of any other matter or cauſe, by the pretence of the lawes of this Realme, whatſoeuer in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Monaſteries
Pariſh churches

And wheras by diſſolution of Monaſteries, & other religious houſes, certain pariſh Churches & chappels, which were before exempt from the iuriſdiction of yͤ Archbiſhop & Biſhop of the dioceſſe, and by ſpeciall exemption & priuiledge from Rome, were vnder the gouernment & order of the Abbots & Priors of thoſe Religious houſes, which ſaid Churches by colour of the ſaid exemptions be now of ſpeciall graunt from king Henry and king Edward, vnder the rule, gouernement, and iuriſdiction of temporall and lay men, who can no more inioy the Supremacie ouer thoſe particular Churches, then the King might ouer the whole Realme: Be it therefore &c. that all Archbiſhops and Biſhops, in their Dioceſſe, and all other ſpirituall perſon and perſons hauing iuriſdiction, and their miniſters and officers, and no lay perſon or perſons in euery Church and place, within the precinct of the ſame, being exempt, or not exempt, may freely & without impediment execute their ſpirituall iuriſdiction in all points & articles, as though no ſuch exemption or graunt had neuer been made. Prouided alway, and be it &c. that this Act extend not to take away or diminiſh the priuiledge of the Vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, the priuiledges or prerogatiues graunted heretofore to the Churches of Weſtminſter and Windſor, ne the Tower of London, ne preiudiciall to ſuch temporall Lords and poſſeſſions in this Realme, as by auncient cuſtome haue inioyed probate of Teſtaments, of their tenants or other. And foraſmuch as after this reconciliation, and vnitie of this noble Realme, to the bodie of Chriſts Church, it is to be truſted, that by the abundance of Gods mercie and grace, deuotion ſhall increaſe and grow in the hearts of many ſubiects of this Realme, which deſire to giue and beſtow the worldly poſſeſſions for the reſuſcitating of almes, prayer, and example of good life in this Realme, to the intent ſuch godly motions and purpoſes ſhould be aduanced: Be it therefore &c. that it ſhall be lawfull to ſuch as ſhall be ſeiſed of any manours, lands, tenements, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer, in fee ſimple, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, or remainder, in their owne rights, not being copyhold, may thereof make feoffements, graunts, or any other aſſurances, or by his laſt will and teſtament in writing may bequeath and giue in fee ſimple, all and euery the ſaid manours, lands, tenements, parſonages, tythes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments to any ſpirituall bodie, politike or corporate, in this Realme, or the Dominions of the ſame, now erected or founded, or hereafter to be erected or founded without any licence of Mortmain therein to be obtained, or any writ of Ad quod dampnum to be ſued out of the ſame: the acts De terris ad manum mortuam non ponendis, or any other act or ſtatute heretofore had or made in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Sauing to the Lordes of the fee, all rents ſeruices, due or going out of any of the ſaid lands, tenements, or hereditaments ſo to be amortiſed, as is aforeſaid. Prouided alway, that this clauſe of this act for giuing the libertie, of, or for the amortiſing of lands or tenements, ſhall continue for and during the ſpace of twentie yeeres next and immediatly following, and no longer. And foraſmuch as we your Maieſties humble and obedient ſubiects, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, neither by the making or deliuering of either the ſupplications aforeſaid, nor by any clauſe, article, or ſentence thereof, or of any other clauſe, article, or ſentence of this, or any other ſtatute of any of the Preambles of the ſame, made or agreed vpon in this Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, by any maner of interpretation, conſtruction, implication, or otherwiſe, intend to derogate, impaire, or diminiſh any of the prerogatiues, liberties, franchiſes, preeminences, or iuriſdictions of your Crowne imperiall of this Realme, and other the dominions of the ſame belonging, we do moſt humbly beſeech your Maieſtie, that it may be declared and ordeined. And be it &c. that neither the making, exhibiting, or inſerting in this preſent ſtatute, or in the preambles of the ſame, of the ſupplications or promiſe aforeſaid, or either of them, nor any other thing or things, words, ſentences, clauſes, or articles in the preambles or body of the act aforeſaid, ſhal be conſtrued, vnderſtanded, or expounded to derogate, diminiſh, or take away any the liberties, priuiledges, prerogatiues, preeminences, authorities, or iuriſdictions, or any part or parcell thereof, which were in your Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, or did belong to your ſaid Imperiall Crowne the xx. yeere of the reigne of your the Queenes Maieſties moſt noble Father, or any other your moſt noble progenitours, before the ſaid xx. yeeres. And the Popes holyneſſe, and ſea Apoſtolike to be reſtored, and to haue and inioy ſuch authoritie, preeminence, and iuriſdiction, as his Holyneſſe vſed and exerciſed, or might lawfully haue vſed and exerciſed by the authoritie of his ſupremacie, the ſaid xx. yeere of the reigne of the king your father, within this your Realme of England, and other your dominions, without diminution, or inlargement of the ſame, and none other. And the Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and Ordinaries to be in the ſame ſtate for proceſſe of ſuites, puniſhment of crimes, and execution of cenſures of the Church, with knowledge of cauſes belonging to the ſame, and as large in theſe points as the ſaid iuriſdiction was the ſaid xx. yeere. 4 Foraſmuch as great care hath bin heretofore takē for yͤ maintenance of good ſtrength and force vpō the borders & frontiers againſt Scotland, and to the end that the inhabitants & tenants there might be the better able, and more encouraged for the defence of the ſame borders, when any occaſion ſhould be offered in that behalfe, all charges of Subſidies and taxes haue been borne, to be laide or charged vpon the ſaid inhabitants, and for like reſpect it hath been heretofore alſo vſed in diuers places within the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland and the Biſhopricke of Durham, that diuers, and a great part of the inhabitantes there, haue enioyed theyr tenementes and Fermeholdes in diuers fauourable ſortes and formes of tenure. And for that the Queenes Maieſtie hath of late yeeres beene oftentimes informed by report and certifycate of her principall Officers hauing charge of her borders, that the force of her ſayd borders both of horſemen and footemen are greatly decayed, and likely dayly to growe weaker by many occaſions, & among other by decay and ruyne of ſundrie the habitations of thoſe borders, whereby the number of the ancient Inhabitants able for ſeruice, haue been diminiſhed, and that part of the ſame habitations, Tenancies and Fermes, haue been reduced rather to paſturing of cattell, then to the maintenance of men of ſeruice: And that alſo in ſome partes the Tenantes and Inhabitantes themſelues haue diminiſhed their owne ſtrength, by deuiding their houſes & Fermes, which were meete onely for one able houſeholder and family, into the occupation of ſundry perſons commonly being their children or other kinſfolks. So as by the ſmalnes and meanes of the holding, no one of them is able to furniſh a man for ſeruice: And that alſo diuers owners & tenants vpon the borders, haue for more gaine then they could haue of natural ſubiectes, letten their landes or feedinges, or ſome part thereof to Scottiſhmen, therby not onely weakening the ſtrength of her Maieſties natural ſubiects, but ſtrengthning forrainers. For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the Queenes Maieſtie ſhall and may from time to time, as need ſhall require, by Commiſſion vnder the great ſeale of England, make and appoint ſuch and ſo many Commiſſioners as to her Maieſtie ſhall bee thought conuenient, giuing vnto them or ſixe of them (whereof two to bee of the Quorum) full power and authoritie in all and euerie of the ſayd Countyes of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, and the Countie Palantine of Durham, or in any one of them, or in any part of any of them, to enquire by the oaths of twelue men or moe, or by other good meanes, according to their diſcretions, what tenancyes and houſes of habitations be ſince the ſeauen & twentyth yeere of King Henry the eyght ruined and decayed, and not helde or occupyed by men able to ſerue as horſemen and footemen, according to the ancient duety of thoſe tenancies, and in like maner to examine and ſearch out the iuſt or probable cauſes of thoſe ruines and decayes, and of the wants and euill furnitures of the ſaid horſemen and footemen, and to giue order and direction for reformation thereof with all ſpeed reaſonable. And to that end, if it ſhal appeare to the ſaid Commiſſioners or ſuch ſixe of thē, as is aforeſaid, that the fault of the ſayd ruynes or decayes, hath been onely in the Lords and owners or their principall Officers, or in the Officers and Farmers of her Maieſtyes Manours, Landes or Tenements, or any their aſſignes, then the ſayd Commiſſioners, or ſuch ſixe as is aforeſayd, ſhall order, commaund and enioyne as well her Maieſties Officers, farmers, or theyr aſſignes, as others the Lords and owners, and their Officers or Farmers, to reedifie or repayre the ſame tenements and houſes of habitation, and ſpecially the capitall houſes and Barnekins within a conuenient time at theyr owne charges, with reſtoring like quantityes of landes thereunto, as with the ſame hath been occupyed in the ſayd twenty ſeauenth yeere of King Henry the eight. And ſhall ſet paines for euery default of ſuch reedifying or reſtoring in reaſonable time, not exceeding one hundreth Markes for euery ſuch default: And if they ſhal finde default of furniture of the Tenants with horſe, weapon or armour, according to their dueties, then they ſhall by perſwaſion in reſpect of the Queenes Maieſties ſeruice, and the defence of their natiue countrie, treat with ſuch Lords and other whom it may concerne, and the Freeholders, Leſſees or Tenantes, for order to bee taken by their mutuall aſſentes for the renewing and continuance of the ſaid ſeruice, and for want of reaſonable conformitie on either part, may enioyne the ſaid Lords and all others vnder them, and alſo all the Queenes Maieſtyes Officers, Farmers, and theyr aſſignes, to giue ſuch helpe as the ſayd Commiſſioners or ſuch ſixe as aforeſaid ſhall thinke fit, toward the inabling of the ſayd Tenant or Tenantes, to bee furniſhed according to the auncient duety of the ſayd tenement, and to take order how the ſaid Tenant ſhall thereby bee furniſhed and bee able

And if the vnableneſſe of the ſayd tenantes ſhall bee found to haue growen, or to grow heereafter by theyr owne default or wilfulneſſe, without iuſt occaſion: the ſayd Commiſſioners or ſuch ſixe of them, as is aforeſayd, ſhall order, enioyne and direct the ſayd Tenantes within ſome reaſonable ſpeedy time, to furniſh themſelues with horſe, armour, and weapon, or with armour and weapon according to their auncient vſage, and their vttermoſt reaſonable habilitie, at their owne charges without any contribution of the Lords, but at their owne good wils, vpon paine to be expelled by the Lord, owner or ſuperiour farmers or their aſſignes, which ſo expelling, ſhall place in ſuch holding or Farme another Tenant, that ſhall bee furniſhed and ready for ſuch ſeruice as is aforeſayd, or elſe ſhall within one moneth giue notice to the Commiſſioners, or to the Warden of the ſame Marches, of his not placing of ſuch Tenant, vpon ſuch paine as the Commiſſioners, or ſuch ſixe of them, as is aforeſayd, ſhall aſſeſſe, not exceeding one hundreth Markes, and the ſayd Commiſſioners or Warden after ſuch notice giuen, ſhall place one other tenant ſufficient for the ſeruices aforeſaid, and in her Maieſtyes lands by the officers of her reuenue, within ſome time to bee limitted. And the ſaid Landlordes, owners, ſuperiour Farmers, or their aſſignes, and alſo her Maieſties officers to be alſo enioyned and bound vpon ſome paine, to cauſe the ſame to bee executed, and that a new Tenant ſhall be placed, ſufficiently furniſhed to hold the ſame. And further where it ſhal appeare, that within the ſpace of thirtie yeeres any Tenement or habitation of houſhold, which haue maintained any horſemen or footemen, by auncient vſage for ſeruice toward the frontires, haue been by the Tenants and owners themſelues, or by any other meanes diuided into ſundry habitations, or the Landes thereunto belonging, diſtributed to other Tenantes, whereby any one principall Tenement ſo deuided, or the ſame Tenement with the land therewith now occupyed, ſhall not bee able to maintaine the Inhabitant thereof to bee furniſhed according to the auncient duety of ſeruice: That in ſuch caſe the ſayd Commiſſioners or ſuch ſixe of them, as is aforeſayd, ſhall take order, that for the preſent time, the perſons which ſhall haue the vſe and profit of any part of the ſame Tenementes, or of the ſaid landes ſo withdrawen from the ſayd principall Tenement, during the time of their preſent termes, ſhall yeerely contribute to the principall Tenant there reſiding, to bee ready and furniſhed for the ſayd ſeruice, ſome reaſonable yeerely ayde by money or otherwiſe, towardes his furniture meete for ſeruice. Prouided alwaies, that where the ſayd Commiſſioners, or ſuch ſixe as aforeſaid ſhall finde, that meane or vndertenantes, hauing particular eſtates ouer the terretenant (other then the Lords & owners) haue been cauſe of any ſuch decay: In thoſe caſes they ſhal order and compell all ſuch perſons meane (which from vnder the Lord, vnto the baſe or terretenant, ſhall bee found to haue been cauſe of ſuch decaie) to contribute towardes the reedifying or repayring of any tenement ruined or decayed ſince the time of their intereſt in the premiſſes, and alſo to the helpe of the furniture of the party ſo decayed: And ſhall alſo cauſe them to be bound, during their particular eſtates, to obſerue the order of the ſayd Commiſſioners, to bee taken as is aforeſayd, towards the ſayd Tenantes, inhabitantes, and ſeruice. And becauſe diuers perſons being Lordes and owners, and others alſo, that haue particular eſtates vnder the ſayd Lordes and owners, which are by the ſayd Commiſſioners in diuers caſes aboue mentioned, to bee charged with the contributions aboue mentioned, may bee abſent out of the partes, where the ſayd Commiſſioners ſhall haue authority to execute the ſaid Commiſſion, and ſhall not appeare vpon ſummons and preceptes, and ſhall haue no landes or tenementes within the iuriſdiction of the ſayd Commiſſion, to ſatiſfie ſuch paines or amercementes, as ſhall be ſet vpon them, to performe theyr order: In ſuch caſes the Commiſſioners or ſuch ſixe of them as is aforeſayd, ſhall eſtreate the ſame paines and amercementes into the Exchequer, in like maner as Iuſtices of peace ought to doe for fines and amercementes, taxed or ſet before them. Seruice and Sacraments.

The King perceiuing that many arrogant and ignorant men doe peruert many thinges well and godly inſtituted, and namely in the moſt comfortable Sacrament of the body and blood of our Sauiour Ieſus Chriſt, commonly called the Sacrament of the altar, and in Scripture, The Supper and Table of the Lord, the Communion and partaking of the body and blood of Chriſt, which Sacrament was inſtituted of no leſſe authour then our Sauiour both God and man, when at his laſt Supper among his Apoſtles, hee did take the bread into his holy hands, & did ſay, Take you and eate: This is my body which is giuen and broken for you. And taking vp the Chalice or cup, did giue thankes and ſay, This is my blood of the New Teſtament, which is ſhed for you and for many, for the remiſsion of ſinnes, that whenſoeuer wee ſhould doe the ſame, wee ſhould doe it in the remembrance of him, and to declare and ſet foorth his death and moſt glorious paſsion vntill his comming. Of which bread whoſoeuer eateth, or of the which cup whoſoeuer drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh condemnation and iudgement to himſelfe, making no difference of the Lords body. The inſtitution of which Sacrament, being ordeined by Chriſt as is aforeſaid, and the ſaid wordes ſpoken of it heere before rehearſed, being of eternall, infallible and vndoubted truth, yet the ſaid Sacrament hath been of late maruailouſlie abuſed by the ſaid perſons, contemning the whole thing for certaine abuſes heretofore committed therein, reuiling it, and diſputing vngodly of that moſt holie Miſterie, and calling it by vile and vnſeemely words: For reformation whereof, Be it &c. That whatſoeuer perſon or perſons from and after the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall depraue, deſpiſe or contemne the ſayd moſt bleſſed Sacrament in contempt thereof by any contemptuous words, or by any words of deprauing, deſpiſing or reuiling, or what perſon or perſons ſhall aduiſedly in any other wiſe contemne, deſpiſe or reuile the ſayd moſt bleſſed Sacrament contrarie to the effectes and declaration aforeſaid, that then he or they ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies, ond make fine and ranſome at the kinges will and pleaſure. And for full and effectuall execution of the premiſſes before deuiſed, ordeined and enacted by this Act: Be it further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that immediatly after the firſt day of May next comming, the Iuſtices of Peace or three of them at the leaſt, whereof one of them, to be of the Quorum in euerie ſhire of this Realme, and Wales, and all other places within the Kinges dominions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, aſwell to take information as accuſation by the oathes and depoſitions of two hable, honeſt, and lawfull perſons at the leaſt, and after ſuch accuſation or information ſo had, to enquire by the oathes of twelue men in euery their foure quarter Seſſions yeerely to be holden, of all and ſinguler ſuch accuſations or informations to bee had or made of any the offences aboue ſaid to bee committed or done after the ſaid firſt day of May, within the limits of their Commiſſion, and that vpon euery ſuch accuſation or information, the offendour and offendours ſhall be enquired of, and indicted before the ſaid Iuſtices of peace or three of them at the leaſt, as is aforeſaid, of the ſayd contempts and offences by the verdict of twelue honeſt and indifferent men, if the matter of the ſaid accuſation and information ſhall ſeeme to the ſaid Iury, good and true. And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, or three of them at the leaſt, as is aforeſaid, before whom any ſuch preſentmēt, information, and accuſation ſhall be made or taken, as is aforeſaid, ſhall examine the accuſers what other witneſſes were by and preſent at the time of doing & committing of the offence, whereof the information, accuſation and preſentment ſhal bee made, and how many other then the accuſers haue knowledge thereof, and ſhal haue power and authority by their diſcretions to bind by recogniſance to be taken before them, aſwell the ſaid accuſors, as al ſuch other perſons, whom the ſame accuſors ſhal declare to haue knowledge of the offences by them preſented and informed, euery of them in v.li. to the king, to appeare before the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, before whom the offendor or offendors ſhall be tryed at the day of tryall & deliuerance of ſuch offendors. And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſayd Iuſtices of Peace or three of them at the leaſt, as is aforeſayd, by vertue of this act, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, to make Proceſſe againſt euerie perſon and perſons ſo indicted by two Capias and one exigent, and by Capias Vtlagatum, aſwell within the limits of their Commiſſion, as into all other Shires and places of this Realme, Wales and other the kings dominions, as wel within the liberties as without, and the ſame Proceſſe to be good and effectuall in the Law, to all intentes, conſtructions and purpoſes, and vpon the apparance of any of the offendours ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, and the Commiſſion of peace, to determine the contempts and offences aforeſaid, according to the lawes of this Realme, and effectes of this act. And that the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, or three of them at the leaſt, as is aboueſaid, ſhall haue full power and authority, to let any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted vpon ſufficient ſureties by their diſcretions to bayle for their appearance, to be tryed according to the tenour, forme and effect of this act. Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted that the ſaid Iuſtice of Peace, or three of them at the leaſt, at their quarter ſeſſions where any offender or offenders ſhal be or ſtand indicted of any of the cōtempts or offences aboueſaid, ſhal direct & award one writ in yͤ kings name, to the Biſhop of the Dioceſſe wherin the ſaid offence or offences are ſuppoſed to be committed or done, willing and requiring the ſayd Biſhop, to be in his owne perſon, or by his Chancellor, or o-

Prouided alway and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, that no perſon or perſons ſhall bee indicted of any the contempts or offences aboueſayde, but onely for ſuch contempts or offences as ſhall be done or perpetrated, within three moneths next after the ſaide offences or offence ſo committed or done. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that in all trials for any ſuch offenders before the ſayde Iuſtices as is aforeſayde, the perſon or perſons being complained on and arraigned, ſhall be admitted to purge or try his or their innocencie, by as many or more witneſſes in number, and of as good honeſtie and credence as the witneſſes be, which depoſed againſt him or them, or any of them. And foraſmuch as it is more agreeable, both to the firſt Inſtitution of the ſayde Sacrament of the moſt precious Body and Blood of our Sauiour Ieſus Chriſt, and alſo more conformable to the common Vſe and Practiſe, both of the Apoſtles, and of the Primitiue Church by the ſpace of fiue hundred yeeres and more after Chriſtes Aſcenſion, that the ſayde bleſſed Sacrament ſhould bee miniſtred to all Chriſtian people, vnder both the kindes of Bread and Wine, then vnder the fourme of Bread onely: and alſo it is more agreeable to the firſt Inſtitution of Chriſt, and to the Vſage of the Apoſtles, and the Primitiue Church, that the people being preſent, ſhould receyue the ſame with the Prieſt, then that the Prieſt ſhould receiue it alone. Therefore bee it enacted by our Soueraigne Lorde the King, with the conſent of the Lordes Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſayde moſt bleſſed Sacrament bee hereafter commonly deliuered and miniſtred vnto the people, within this Church of England and Ireland, and other the Kinges Dominions, vnder both the kindes, that is to ſay, of Bread and Wine, except neceſſitie otherwiſe require, and alſo that the Prieſt, which ſhall miniſter the ſame, ſhall at the leaſt one day before, exhort all perſons which ſhall bee preſent, likewiſe to reſorte, and prepare themſelues to receiue the ſame. And when the day prefixed commeth, after a godly Exhortation by the Miniſter made (wherein ſhal bee further expreſſed the Benefite and Comforte promiſed to them which worthily receiue the ſayde holy Sacrament, and danger and indignation of God threatned to them which ſhall preſume to receiue the ſame vnworthily, to the ende that euery man may trie and examine his owne conſcience, before hee ſhall receiue the ſame) the ſayde Miniſter ſhall not without a lawfull cauſe deny the ſame to any perſon, that will deuoutly and humbly deſire it: Any law, ſtatute, ordinance or cuſtome contrary hereunto in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Not condemning hereby the vſage of any Church out of the K. 2 Anno 2. E. 6, capitulo primo, was an Acte made that the ſeruice and Sacraments ſhould bee in Engliſh according to a Booke thereof made. And diuers things bee in that acte concerning thoſe matters. And after, Anno 5. Ed. 6. cap. 1. it appeareth that the ſayde Engliſh booke was altered and changed in diuers things, and that thereunto was added a forme of making and conſecrating of Biſhops and Prieſtes. And in the ſame Acte of Anno 5. Ed. 6. cap. 1. It was enacted to compell people to come to the Church to the Engliſh ſeruice, and puniſhment appointed for them that ſhould bee preſent at any other ſeruice, as followeth here 3.

3 Bee it enacted by the king our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from and after the feaſt of all Saintes next comming, all & euery perſon and perſons, inhabiting within this realme or any other the K. Maieſties dominions, ſhall diligently and faithfully, hauing no lawfull or reaſonable excuſe to bee abſent, endeuour themſelues to reſort to their pariſh Church or Chappell accuſtomed, or vpõ reaſonable let therof, to ſome vſuall place where Common prayer and ſuch ſeruice of God ſhall bee vſed in ſuch time of let, vpon euery Sunday, and other dayes ordayned and vſed to be kept as holy dayes, and then there to abide orderly and ſoberly during the time of the Common prayer, preachings, or other ſeruice of God, there to bee vſed and miniſtred, vpon payne of puniſhment, by the Cenſures of the Church. And for the due execution hereof, the Kings moſt excellent Maieſtie, the Lords temporall, and all the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doth in Gods name earneſtly require and charge all the Archbiſhops, Biſhops and other Ordinaries, that they ſhall endeuour thẽſelues to the vttermoſt of their knowledges, that the due and true execution hereof may be had throughout their Dioceſſe and charges, as they will anſwere before God, for ſuch euils and plagues wherewith almightie God may iuſtly puniſh his people for neglecting this good and wholeſome law. And for their authoritie in this behalfe, bee it further likewiſe enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that all and ſinguler the ſame Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and all other their officers, exerciſing Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, aſwell in place exempt as not exempt within their Dioceſſe, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by this Acte, to reforme, correct and puniſh by the cenſures of the Church, al and ſinguler perſons, which ſhall offend within any their iuriſdictions or Dioceſſes, after the ſaid feaſt of al Saints next comming againſt this act and ſtatute, any other law, ſtatute, priuiledge, libertie or prouiſion heretofore made, had, or ſuffered to the contrary notwithſtanding. And becauſe there hath ariſen in the vſe and exerciſe of the foreſayde common ſeruice in the Church heretofore ſet forth, diuers doubts for the faſhion and maner of the miniſtration of the ſame, rather by the curioſitie of the Miniſter, and miſtakers, then of any other worthie cauſe: Therefore as well for the more plaine and manifeſt explanation hereof, as for the more perfection of the ſayde order of Common Seruice in ſome places where it is neceſſary to make the ſame prayer and faſhion of Seruice more earneſt and fitte to ſtirre Chriſtian people to the true honouring of Almightie God: The kings moſt excellent Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords and commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath cauſed the foreſayde Order of Common Seruice, entituled The booke of Common Prayer, to be faithfully and godly peruſed, explained and made fully perfect, and by the aforeſayde authoritie, hath annexed and ioyned it ſo explained and perfected to this Statute, adding alſo a forme and maner of making & conſecrating of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, & Deacons to be of like force, authoritie & value, as the ſame like aforeſayd Booke, intituled the booke of common prayer, was before, and to be accepted, receiued, vſed, and eſteemed, in like ſorte and maner, and with the ſame clauſes of prouiſions, and exceptions to all intentes, conſtructions and purpoſes, as by the Acte of Parliament made in the ſecond yeere of the kinges Maieſties raigne, was ordayned, limitted, expreſſed, and appointed for the vniformitie of Seruice and adminiſtration of the Sacramentes throughout the Realme, vpon ſuch ſeuerall paynes as in the ſayde Acte of Parliament is expreſſed: And the ſayde former Acte to ſtand in full force and ſtrength to all intentes and conſtructions, and to bee applyed, practiſed and put in vre, to, and for the eſtabliſhing of the booke of Common prayer, now explained, and hereunto annexed, and alſo the ſayde forme of making of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſtes, and Deacons, hereunto annexed, as it was for the former booke. And by the authoritie aforeſayde it is now further enacted, that if any maner of perſon or perſons, inhabiting and beeing within this Realme, or any other the kinges Maieſties Dominions, ſhall after the ſayd feaſt of all Saintes, willingly and wittingly, heare and be preſent at any other maner or forme of Common prayer, of adminiſtration of the Sacraments, of making of Miniſters in the Church, or of any other rites contayned in the Booke annexed to this Acte, then is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſayde Booke, or that is contrary to the forme of ſundry prouiſions and exceptions contayned in the foreſayde former Statute, and ſhall bee thereof conuicted, according to the lawes of this Realme before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Iuſtices of Oyer and determiner, Iuſtices of Peace in their Seſſion, or any of them by the verdict of twelue men, or by his or their owne confeſſion or otherwiſe, ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment for ſixe monethes, without bayle or mainpriſe, and for the ſeconde offence, beeing likewiſe conuicted, as is abouesayd, impriſonment for one halfe yeere, and for the thirde offence in like maner, impriſonment during his or their liues. And for the more knowledge to bee giuen hereof, and better obſeruation of this Lawe: Bee it enacted by authoritie aforeſayde, that all and ſinguler Curates ſhall vpon one Sunday euery quarter of the yere, during

16 Forasmuch as the Act made in the 5. yere of the Q. Maieſties reigne, touching certain politike conſtitutions made for the maintenance of the Nauie (before 13.) is found by experience to be very good, & greatly to haue increaſed the Nauie & Fiſhermen, & cauſed many poore men to be ſet on worke, & is in great likelyhood daily to increaſe the ſame more & more: Be it enacted &c. that ſo much of the ſaid act, for libertie of tranſporting of Herring & ſea fiſh, by the natural born ſubiects of your Maieſtie, your heires or ſucceſſors, & for freedome from paying of any cuſtome, ſubſidie, or poundage money, ſhall be reuiued, and ſhall from hēceforth continue for the ſpace of ſixe yeres from the end of this Seſſion of parliament, & from thenceforth to the end of the next Parliament, after the ſaid ſixe yeres to be ſummoned, & from thenceforth during your Maieſties moſt gracious pleaſure, ſo that ſuch tranſporting be in veſſels with croſſe ſailes. And where alſo in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid fift yere, amongſt other things, all maner of perſons are generally forbidden to bring into this Realme any Cods or Lings in barrels or other caſkes, vpon paine of forf. of all the cods & lings ſo to be brought in, or the value therof, contrary to the tenor of that act. Foraſmuch as by that branch of the ſaid ſtatute, it was well intended & meant to meete with the fraude of ſtrangers & other, which brought into this this Realme great quantitie of Cods & Lings deceitfully packed in barrels, & not meant to hinder any the Q. Maieſties ſubiects, vſing vprightneſſe & trueth in the barrelling of ſuch fiſh: May it therfore pleaſe your Maieſty, that it be further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1575. it ſhalbe lawful from thēceforth to all your Maieſties louing ſubiects, born within this Realme, or within any other your Maieſties dominions (vſing no fraud or deceit in packing or barrelling thereof) for the terme of ſixe yeres next inſuing, to bring into this Realme, or any other your highneſſe dominions, all ſuch cods & lings as they ſhall happen to take vpon the ſea, by their owne fiſhing in veſſels with croſſe ſailes, wout incurring any forfeiture or penaltie therfore: any thing in the ſaid act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. And for the auoiding of the lewd outrages committed & done vpon the ſea coaſts of Norfolke & Suffolk by the catches, mongers, & picards, pretending to buy freſh herrings, and which do cut in ſunder diuers pieces of fiſhermens nets, traueling the high Seas, to take freſh Herrings, to the vtter vndoing of the ſaid poore fiſhermen: Be it therefore enacted, ordained, & eſtabliſhed by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon or perſons, vſing any ſhip, boat, or veſſell, called catch, monger, or picard, or other veſſell of like vſe, ſhal in the time of common fiſhing, vpon the ſea coaſts of Norfolk & Suffolk, betweene the xiiii. day of Sept. and the xiiii. day of Nouemb. from ſunne ſetting, to ſunne riſing, anker vpon the maine Sea, or in the common ſtreame or trade of fiſhing where the fiſhermen vſe to driue, vpon pain to forfait their catch, monger, or picard, or veſſell, with the tackle, & all the fiſh in the ſame, or the value therof: The one halfe to your Maieſtie, your heires & ſucceſſors, the other halfe to the Baylifes, Burgeſſes, and Communaltie of the Town of great Yarmouth, to be imployed to the recompenſing his dammages to the partie whoſe nets ſhall ſo be cut, & to the building and repayring of the decayed hauen there, and to be taken by way of ſeiſure, or otherwiſe to be recouered by bill, action, or information, in any of your Maieſties court of record: any ſtatute, law, or vſage to the contrary notwithſtanding. And where your ſubiects, vſing the trade of fiſhing for Herring, haue of many yeres, & time out of minde, vſed to pack their herring in caſke of barrels, contayning about two and thirty gallons of vſuall wine meaſure, and with ſuch aſſiſe hath bin vſually gauged & allowed at your honorable Citie of London, and doe conteine the ſaid meaſure of xxxii. gallons, according to ſuch vſual braſſe meaſure, as is out of your honorable court of Exchequer deliuered to your ſaid honorable Citie of London, which meaſure yet hath lately bin quarrelled at by certain Informers, for that the ſame containe not two and thirtie gallons by the olde meaſure of Standerd, which they neuer did, though peraduenture the extremitie of olde ſtatutes in words, by ſome mens conſtructions might be ſtretched to require ſo much: And for that the vſuall barrels now be as great as euer within the time of any memorie they haue been knowen to be, and the alteration therof would be a great decay, and a perill of vndoing to the ſaid Fiſhermen: It may alſo pleaſe your moſt excellent Maieſtie, that it be alſo enacted & declared, that the ſaid aſſiſe of two and thirtie gallons of wine meaſure, which is about eight and twentie gallons by olde ſtanderd, well packed, and containing in euery barrell vſually a thouſand full herrings at the leaſt, is and ſhall be taken for good, true, & lawfull aſſiſe of herring barrels, throughout the whole libertie of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, & elſewhere: any auncient or former law or ſtatute to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Be it further enacted, that no fiſh hereafter to be taken or brought into this realm by any ſtrāger, nor any fiſh commonly called Scottiſh fiſh, or Flemiſh fiſh, ſhall be dried within England to be ſold, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch fiſh to be dried, contrarie to the meaning of this act, or the value therof, which forfeiture ſhal be to ſuch perſon dwelling at any Towne where is any port, peere, or hauen, as will ſeiſe the ſame fiſh, or will ſue for the ſame value, in any Court of record, to be imployed to the reparation & maintenance of ſuch port, peere, or hauen, as is next to the place where the offence ſhall be committed, An. 13. Shirifes.

WEe haue alſo ordeined by the aduice of our Councell, that from henceforth Shirifes ſhall not bee charged of any iſſues to bee leuied, nor ſhall leuy any before they paſſe out of the Eſchequer, there to bee deliuered by the extracts of the Iuſtices. And that in the eſtreats of Iuſtices, euery head ſhall be charged for iſſues forfeited like as of amerciaments, and if peraduenture any Shirife will anſwere for the iſſues of any recognisor, pledge or mainparnor by him aſſigned and returned into our Court, which at the time of the returne is not able to pay ſuch iſſues or amerciaments, the Shirife ſhall be charged, and ſhall anſwere therefore in our Eſchequer. And let the ſhirifes beware vnder paine of great forfeiture, that from henceforth they doe make tailes of all ſuch money, as they or their officers haue receiued by our commandement. And that they doe not returne any where, the names of any mainparnours, or ſureties, iurors or any other, except ſuch ſureties, mainparnours, or other, according to the tenour of our writs, being directed to the ſhirifes for the ſame cauſe, be lawfully and manifeſtly impanelled thereupon: And they ſhall not returne the names of any free men as pledges, without that they will plainly conſent & agree to the ſame. And hereupon wee haue enacted that at one time certaine euery yeere, one Baron and one Clerke of our ſaid Eſchequer ſhall be ſent thorowout euery ſhire of England, to enroll the names of all ſuch as haue payed that yeere debts exacted of them by a greene ware. And the ſame Baron and Clerke ſhall view all ſuch tailes, and enroll them. And ſhall heare and determine complaints made againſt Shirifs and their Clearkes, and Baylifes that haue done contrary to the premiſſes, and the offenders ſhalbe grieuouſly puniſhed. Foraſmuch as ſhirifes and other heretofore, haue let out by pleuin, common felons and openly defamed, being taken and impriſoned for murder and felonie, and ſuch as bee not repleuiſable, contrary to the forme of our ſtatute made at Weſtminſter, of perſons repleuiſable, and not repleuiſable, whereby ſuch tranſgreſſors not repleuiſable be let out, and for to deliuer them deceitfully before the comming of the Iuſtices errant, or other aſſigned for their deliuerance, they procure by themſelues and by their friends Iurours of the countrey, and ſome they threat, whereby as wel for feare of the Shirife, and other that let them at large by the pleuine, as for feare of the theeues being ſo deliuered before the Iuſtices aſſigned for gaole deliueries, ſuch felonies and murders are concealed, and ſo beeing concealed, remaine ſtill vnpuniſhed: We for the vtilitie of our Realme, and for the more aſſured conſeruation of our peace, haue prouided and ordeined, that Iuſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in all Shires where they take aſſiſes, as it is ordeined, incontinent after the aſſiſes taken in the Shires, ſhall remaine both together if they be lay. And if one of them be a Clerke, then one of the moſt diſcreete knights of the Shire beeing aſſociate to him that is a Lay man, by our writ ſhall deliuer the gaoles of the Shires, as well within the liberties as without, all maner of priſons, after the forme of the Gaole deliueries of thoſe Shires before times vſed. And the ſame Iuſtices ſhall enquire thẽ, if ſhirifs or any other haue let out by pleuine, priſoners not pleuiable, or haue offended in any other thing contrary to the forme of the foreſaide ſtatute, lately made at Weſtminſter, and they ſhall reforme and puniſh them in al things according to the forme of the ſtatute aforeſayde. FOr doing ſuits vnto the courtes of great Lords, or of meaner perſons, from henceforth this order ſhall be obſerued, that none that is infeoffed by deed, from henceforth ſhal be diſtreined to doe ſuch ſuite in the court of his lord, without he be ſpecially bound thereto by the forme of his deede. Theſe onely being except, whoſe anceſtors or they themſelues, haue vſed to do ſuch ſuit before the firſt voyage of the ſaid king Henry into Britaine, ſithence which xxxix. yeeres and an halfe are paſſed vnto the time that theſe ſtatutes were enacted.

Without deed

Likewiſe from henceforth none that is infeoffed without deed from the time of the Conqueſt, or any other ancient feoffement, ſhal be diſtrained to do ſuch ſuits, vnleſſe that he or his anceſtors vſed to do it before the ſaid voiage.

Seruice

And they that are infeoffed by deede to do a certaine ſeruice, as for ſeruice of ſo many ſhillings by yeere, to be acquited of all ſeruice from henceforth, ſhall not be bounden to ſuch ſuites or other like, contrary vnto the forme of their feoffement. And if any inheritance (whereof but one ſuite is due) diſcend vnto many heires, as to parceners, who ſo that hath the eldeſt part of the inheritance ſhal doe that one ſuit for himſelfe and his fellowes, and the other coheires ſhall be contributaries according to the portion for doing ſuch ſuite. And if many feoffees be ſeiſed of any inheritance, (whereof but one ſuite is due) the lord of the fee ſhall haue but that one ſuite, and ſhall exact of the ſayde inheritance but that one ſuite, as hath bin vſed to be done before. And if thoſe feoffees haue no warrant or meane which ought to acquite them, then all the feoffees according to their portion, ſhall be contributaries for doing the ſuite of them.

Lords attached

And if it chance that the Lordes of the fee doe diſtraine their tenants, for ſuch ſuites, contrary to this Acte: Then at the complaint of the Tenants, the Lordes ſhall be attached to appeare in the kinges court at a ſhort day, to make anſwere thereto, and ſhal haue but one eſſoine therein (if they be within the Realme.) And immediatly the beaſtes or other diſtreſſes taken by this occaſion, ſhal be deliuered to the plaintifes, and ſo ſhall remaine vntill the plea betwixt them be determined.

And if the Lordes of the Courtes, which tooke diſtreſſes, come not at the day that they were attached, or doe not keepe the day giuen to them by eſſoine: then the Shirifes ſhall bee commaunded to cauſe them to come at another day, at which day if they come not, then he ſhall be commaunded to diſtraine them by all the goods and cattels that they haue in the ſhire, ſo that the Shirife ſhal anſwere to the king of the iſſues of the ſayde inheritance, And that hee haue their bodies before our Iuſticers at a certaine day limited, ſo that if they come not at that day, the party pl. ſhall go without day, and his beaſtes or other diſtreſſes taken by that colour, ſhal remaine deliuered vntill the ſame lords haue recouered the ſame ſuit by award of the kings Court, and in the meane time ſuch diſtreſſes ſhall ceaſe. And when the Lordes of the Courtes come in to anſwere the plaintifes of ſuch treſpaſſes, and be conuict thereupon, then by award of the kinges court the plaintifes ſhall recouer againſt them the damages, that they haue ſuſtained by occaſion of the ſaid diſtreſſe. Likewiſe if the tenants after this acte withdrawe from their Lordes ſuch ſuites, as they were wont to doe, and which they did before the time of the ſaide voiage, and hitherto vſed to doe, then by like ſpeedineſſe of iuſtice as be to limitting of dayes, & awarding of diſtreſſes, the lords of the courts ſhall obtaine iuſtice to recouer their ſuites with the damages, in like maner as the tenant ſhould recouer theirs. And this recouering of damages muſt be vnderſtood of withdrawing from themſelues, and not of withdrawing from their aunceſtours, neuertheleſſe the Lordes of the courts ſhall not recouer ſeiſin of ſuch ſuites againſt their tenants by default, as they were wont to doe. one bench or the other, Iuſtices in Eyre, or Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, and all other Iuſtices aſſigned to heare and determine, being in their places doing their offices. It is to bee vnderſtood that the caſes aboue rehearſed, ought to bee iudged treaſon, which extendeth to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and his royall Maieſtie. And of ſuch treaſon the forfeiture of the eſcheates perteineth to our Soueraigne Lord, as well of the lands and tenementes holden of other as of himſelfe. And moreouer there is an other maner of treaſon, that is to ſay, when a ſeruant ſlayeth his Maſter, or a wife her huſband, or when a man ſecular or religious ſlayeth his Prelate to whom hee oweth fayth and obedience. And of ſuch treaſon the eſcheates ought to perteine to euery Lord of his owne fee. And becauſe that many other like caſes of treaſon may happen in time to come, which a man can not thinke nor declare at this preſent time: It is accorded, that if any other caſe ſuppoſed treaſon, which is not aboue ſpecified, doe happen before any Iuſtices, the Iuſtices ſhall tarry without any going to iudgement of the treaſon, till the caſe bee ſhewed and declared before the King and his Parliament, whether it ought to bee iudged treaſon or felony. And if percaſe any man of this Realme ride armed couertly or ſecretly with men of armes againſt any other to ſlay him or robbe him, or to take him or keep, till he hath made fine or ranſome for to haue his deliuerance, it is not the minde of the king nor his Councell, that in ſuch caſe it ſhall bee iudged treaſon, but ſhal be iudged felony or treſpaſſe according to the lawes of the land of old time vſed, and according as the caſe requireth. And if in ſuch caſe or other like before this time, any Iuſtices haue iudged treaſon, and for this cauſe the landes and tenementes haue commen into the kings hands as forfeit, the chiefe Lords of the fee ſhall haue the eſcheats of the tenements holdē of them, whether that the ſame tenementes bee in the Kings hands or in others, by gift or in other maner. Sauing alwaies to our Soueraigne Lord the King, the yeere and the waſte, and the forfeitures of cattels, which perteine to him in the caſes aboue named. And that writs of Scire facias bee graunted in ſuch caſe againſt the landtenants without other originall, & without allowing any protection in the ſaid ſuite. And that of the lands which be in the Kinges hands, writs bee graunted to the Shirifes of the Counties where the lands bee, to ſet them out of the kings handes without other delay. An.25.E.3.cap.2.

And bee it &c. that euery offender or offenders beeing hereafter lawfully conuict of any maner of high treaſon, by preſentment, confeſſion, verdict proceſſe or outlawry, according to the due courſe and cuſtome of the common lawes of this Realme, ſhal loſe and forfeit to the kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors aforeſaid, al ſuch lands, tenements and hereditaments, which any ſuch offender or offenders ſhall haue of any eſtate of inheritance in his owne right, in vſe or poſſeſſion, within this realme of England, or elſewhere within any the Kinges Dominions at the time of any ſuch Treaſon committed, or any time after. diſcretions ſhall ſeeme moſt fit, and agreeable to the good intent of the founders, giuers, & graunters, and thereof to make certificate in the high court of Chauncery, once in euerie yeere. Prouided alwayes, that whereas by reaſon of this act, the common gaoles of euery Shire within this Realme, are like to bee greatly peſtered with a more number of priſoners, then heretofore hath been, for that the ſaid vagabondes & other lewd perſons before recited, ſhall vpon their apprehenſion be committed to the common gaole of the ſame ſhire where they are ſo taken & apprehended, and that in moſt Shires of this Realme, the common Gaoles are in ſuch Townes, where there bee a great number of poore people, more then they are well able to ſuſtaine with their reliefe, and in ſome Shires the Aſſiſes are kept far diſtant from the place where the common Gaoles are, by reaſon whereof, the ſaid priſoners are like to famiſh for want of ſuſtenance, if they bee not therefore prouided: For remedie whereof, be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawfull for the Iuſtices of peace, of euery Shire within this Realme at their generall quarter Seſſions of the peace to be holden within the ſame Shires, or the moſt part of the ſaid Iuſtices being then preſent, to rate and taxe euery pariſh within the ſaid ſhires, at ſuch reaſonable ſummes of money, for & towardes the reliefe of the ſaid priſoners, as they ſhall think conuenient by their diſcretions: So that the ſaid taxation and rate doeth not exceede aboue ſixe pence, or eight pence by the weeke out of euery Pariſh: and that the Churchwardens of euerie Pariſh within this Realme for the time being, ſhall euerie Sunday leuie the ſame, and once euery quarter in the yeere pay to the high Conſtable or head Officers of euerie towne, pariſh, hundred, riding, or wapentake within this realm, all ſuch ſummes of money, as their pariſh ſhalbe rated & taxed, for and towards the reliefe of the ſaid priſoners within their ſaid ſeueral pariſhes: And that the ſaid high conſtables & head officers, & euery of thē, ſhall pay all ſuch ſummes of money ſo to them paid by the ſaid Churchwardens, at euery generall quarter ſeſſions, to be holden within the ſaid ſeuerall Shires, to ſuch ſufficient perſons dwelling nere the ſaid gaoles, as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid Iuſtices in their ſaid open quarter ſeſſions, to be there readie to receiue the ſaid money, ſo collected, as is aforeſaid, and that the collectors for the ſaid priſoners, ſhall weekely diſtribute and pay all ſuch ſummes of money, as they and euery of them ſhall receiue for the reliefe of the ſaid priſoners, as aforeſaid, vpon paine as well the ſaid Churchwardens of euery pariſh, conſtables & head officers of euery hundred, or wapentake, as alſo the ſaid collectors appointed for the collection and contribution of the ſaid priſoners ſo making default, as aforeſaid, to forfeit v.li. the one moitie thereof ſhall be to the vſe of the Queenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie to the reliefe of the priſoners: any ſtatute, law, cuſtome, vſe, or other thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaye, that the Iuſtices of Peace within any County of this realme or Wales, ſhall not intromit or enter into any citie, borough, or towne corporate, where be any Iuſtice or Iuſtices of peace, for any ſuch citie, borough, place, or towne corporate, for the execution of any branch, article, or ſentence of this act, for or concerning any offence, matter, or cauſe growing or ariſing, within the precincts, liberties, or iuriſdictions of ſuch citie, borough, place, or towne corporate, but that it may and ſhalbe lawfull to the Iuſtice and Iuſtices of Peace, Maior, Bailifes, or other head Officers of thoſe Cities, Boroughs, places, and townes corporate, where there be Iuſtice or Iuſtices, to proceed to the execution of this acte, within the precinct and compaſſe of their liberties, in ſuch maner & forme as the Iuſtices of Peace in any Countie may or ought to doe within the ſame County by vertue of this act: anie matter or thing in this acte expreſſed, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And that euery Iuſtice and Iuſtices of the peace, within euery ſuch citie, borough, place, and towne corporate, for euerie offence by them, or anie of them to be committed, contrarie to the intent and meaning of this ſtatute, ſhall be puniſhable and chargeable as other Iuſtices of peace at large in the Counties, are by this act aboue appointed to be. Prouided alwayes, and bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if it ſhall chance anie Citie or Towne corporate, to haue in it more poore folkes then the inhabitants thereof ſhalbe able to relieue, that in ſuch caſe vpon certificate thereof made, and of the number and names of the perſons, with which they be ſo ſurcharged, vnto the Iuſtices of the P. of the Countie in which ſuch Citie or Towne corporate ſhall lie and be ſituate, at their quarter Seſſions of the peace, by two Iuſtices of P. of the ſaid Countie, and the Maior or other head officer of the ſaid citie or towne corporate: the Iuſtices may by their diſcretions in the ſame Seſſions, take order, appoint, and

10 For ſome better explanation, and for ſome needfull addition to the ſtatute concerning the puniſhment of vagabondes & reliefe of the poore, made in the ſeſſion of parliament, holdē the 14. yere of the Q. Maieſties reigne, (before 9.) Be it ordeined, declared, and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parliamēt, in maner and forme following, that is to ſay, firſt, concerning baſtardes, begotten & borne out of lawful Matrimonie (an offence againſt Gods law and mans law) the ſaid baſtardes, being now left to be kept at the charges of the pariſh where they bee borne, to the great burden of the ſame pariſh, & in defrauding of the reliefe of the impotent & aged true poore of the pariſh, and to the euill example and encouragement of lewde life: It is ordeyned and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that two Iuſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, in or next vnto the limits where the pariſh Church is, within which pariſh ſuch baſtard ſhalbe borne, (vpon examination of the cauſe and circumſtance) ſhall and may by their diſcretion take order, aſwell for the puniſhment of the mother and reputed father of ſuch baſtard child, as alſo for the better reliefe of euery ſuch pariſh in part or in al, and ſhall and may likewiſe by like diſcretion, take order for the keeping of euery ſuch baſtard child, by charging ſuch mother or reputed father with the payment of money weekely, or other ſuſtentation for the reliefe of ſuch child, in ſuch wiſe as they ſhall thinke meete and conuenient. And if after the ſame order by them ſubſcribed vnder their handes, anie the ſaid perſons, viz. mother or reputed father, vpon notice thereof, ſhal not for their part obſerue & performe the ſaid order: that then euery ſuch partie ſo making default, in not performing of the ſaid order, to be committed to ward to the common gaole, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, except hee, ſhee, or they ſhall put in ſufficient ſuertie to performe the ſaid order, or els perſonally to appeare at the next generall Seſſions of the peace, to bee holden in that countie, where ſuch order ſhall be taken, & alſo to abide ſuch order as the ſaid Iuſtices of the peace, or the more part of thē then & there ſhall take in that behalfe (if they then and there ſhall take any) & that if at the ſaid ſeſſions the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall take no other order, then to abide and performe the order before made, as is abouesaid. Alſo concerning ning Rogues, in as much as by the former act, they are to bee conueyed to the gaole or priſon by the Conſtable or other officer, at the charges of the pariſh where ſuch rogue is apprehended, for auoyding of great trauaile and charges riſing thereby, many are ſuffered to paſſe and winked at: Be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parliament, that from henceforth euery ſuch rogue apprehended, ſhall be conueied by the Conſtable or other officers of the pariſh where ſuch apprehenſion ſhall be, but to the conſtable, tithingman, and other officer of the next townſhip, or pariſh in the next hundred, and ſo from one hundred to another, by the conſtables, tythingmen, or officers of euery ſuch towneſhip or pariſh which ſhall bee next in euerie ſuch hundred, the direct way, vntill they ſhal come to the gaole or priſon appointed for ſuch Rogues and vagabonds, and that euery ſuch conſtable, tythingman, and officer, ſhall accordingly conuey ſuch rogue & vagabond, vnder the paines and penalties by the ſaid former eſtatute limitted, to the conſtable, tythingman, or other officer, in whoſe pariſh ſuch rogue or vagabond ſhall be firſt apprehended. And as concerning perſons inquirable of, as of a rogue in the ſecond degree, if any ſuch perſon ſhal after his firſt conuiction, either by curing or alteration of the marke of any ſuch perſon, or by alteration of name, or denying to be the ſame perſon, or by any other waies or meanes goe about to auoide the hauing of his or their further puniſhment, that the ſame or any ſuch other allegation, ſhall be conſidered of, & tryed by the Iurie, vpon the arraignement, as parcell of their euidence: and as they ſhal in their conſciences finde the proofes, circumſtances, and euidences, ſo to giue their verdict, which ſhall be a ſufficient triall in law, without anie further certificate or triall of the former record or conuiction, from any other countie or place, or by any other meane. And moreouer, that if the rogue in the ſecond degree indicted, and by confeſſion or verdict afterwardes conuicted, ſhall afterward a third, or fourth, or other time after, be indicted and conuicted of rogiſh life: that then ſuch perſon the third, or more often times, indicted and conuicted as a rogue, ſhall ſuffer in all reſpects as a Felon, without allowance of the benefit of cleargie. Alſo to the intent youth may be accuſtomed and brought vp in labor and worke, and then not like to grow to bee idle rogues, and to the intent alſo that ſuch as be alrrady growen vp in idlenes, and ſo rogues at this preſent, may not haue any iuſt excuſe, in ſaying that they cannot get any ſeruice or work, and then without any fauour or tolleration worthie to be executed, and that other poore and needy perſons, being willing to worke, may be ſet on worke: Be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in euerie Citie and towne corporate within this realme, a competent ſtore and ſtocke of wooll, hempe, flaxe, yron, or other ſtuffe, by the appointment and order of the Maior, Bailifes, Iuſtices, or other head officers, hauing rule in the ſaid cities or townes corporate, (of themſelues, and all other inhabitants within their ſeueral authorities, to be taxed, leuied, & gathered) ſhall be prouided. And that likewiſe in euery other Market towne or other place, within euerie countie of this realme, (where to the Iuſtices of P. or greater part of them, in their generall Seſſions yerely next after Eaſter, within euery limit ſhall be thought meet and conuenient) a like competent ſtore and ſtocke of wooll, hempe, flaxe, yron, or other ſtuffe, as the Countrey is moſt meete for, by appointment and order of the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, or the greater part of them in their generall Seſſions (of all the inhabitants within their ſeuerall authorities, to be taxed, leuied, and gathered) ſhall be prouided. The ſaid ſtores and ſtockes in ſuch Cities and Townes corporate, to bee committed to the handes and cuſtodie of ſuch perſons, as ſhall by the Maior, Baylifes, Iuſtices, or other head Officers, hauing authoritie in euerie ſuch citie or towne corporate, be appointed, and in other townes and places, to ſuch perſons, as to the ſaid Iuſtices of the Peace, or the greater part of them, in their ſayd generall Seſſions of the peace in their ſeuerall Counties ſhall bee by them appointed: Which ſaid perſons ſo appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall haue power and authoritie (by the aduice of them who doe appoint them) to diſpoſe, order, and giue rules, for the diuiſion and maner of working of the ſaid ſtockes and ſtores, who ſhall from henceforoth be called the Collectors and Gouernors of the poore, to the intent euerie ſuch poore and needie perſon, olde or yong, able to doe anie worke ſtanding in neceſſitie of reliefe, ſhall not for want of worke goe abroade eyther begging, or committing pilfrings, or other miſdemeanour, liuing in idleneſſe: which Collectors and Gouernors of the poore, from time to time (as cauſe requireth) ſhall and may of the ſame ſtocke & ſtore deliuer to ſuch poore and needie perſon, a competent portion to be wrought into yarne, or other matter, within ſuch time, and in ſuch ſort, as in their diſcretions ſhall be from time to time limitted and prefixed, and the ſame after-

And if hereafter any ſuch perſon able to doe any ſuch worke, ſhall refuſe to worke, or ſhall goe abroad begging, or liue idlely, or taking ſuch worke, ſhall ſpoile or imbeſell the ſame, in ſuch wiſe that after monition giuen, the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh, and Collectors & Gouernors of the poore, or the more part of them, ſhall thinke the ſame perſon not meet to haue any more worke deliuered out of the ſame ſtore and ſtocke: and then vpon certificate therof made vnder their hands, and brought by one of the Collectors and Gouernors of the poore, to the handes of ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall in that Countie haue the ouerſight and gouernment of one of the houſes of Correction, in conuenient apparell meete for ſuch a body to weare, he, ſhee, or they, from ſuch towne, place or pariſh ſhall be receiued into ſuch houſe of Correction, there to be ſtraightly kept as well in diet as in worke, and alſo puniſhed from time to time as the ſaid perſons, hauing the ouerſight and gouernement of the ſaid houſe of Correction, ſhall be appointed, as hereafter in this Act is declared: All which ſtocks and ſtores, ſhall be prouided and deliuered to the handes of the ſaid Collectors and Gouernors of the poore, before the firſt day of Nouember next comming, and at all times hereafter as occaſion ſhall ſerue. And that euery perſon refuſing to pay, or not paying ſuch ſumme of money towardes the ſaid ſtockes and ſtores, as vpon them or any of them ſhall be by order aforeſaid taxed, and at ſuch time as by the ſame order ſhall be appointed, ſhall for euery default, forfeit double ſo much as hee or they ſhall be ſo taxed vnto. And moreouer be it ordeyned and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that within euery county of this realme, one, two, or more abiding houſes, or places conuenient in ſome Market towne, or corporate towne, or other place or places, by purchaſe, leaſe, building, or otherwiſe by the appointment and order of the Iuſtices of peace, or the more part of them in their ſaid general Seſſions (of the inhabitants within their ſeuerall authorities, to be taxed, leuyed, and gathered) ſhall be prouided and called the houſe or houſes of Correction, and alſo ſtocke and ſtore, and implements to be in like ſort alſo prouided, for ſetting on worke and puniſhing, not onely of thoſe which by the Collectors, and Gouernors of the poore, for cauſes aforeſaid to the ſaid houſes of Correction, ſhall be brought, but alſo of ſuch as be, or ſhall be inhabiting in no pariſh, or be, or ſhall be taken as Rogues, or once puniſhed as Rogues, and by reaſon of the vncertaintie of their birth, or of their dwelling by the ſpace of three yeeres, or for any other cauſe ought to be abiding and kept within the ſame Countie: which ſaid houſe or houſes of Correction, with ſtockes, ſtores, and implements appointed for ſuch houſes of Correction, ſhalbe prouided in euery Countie, within one yeere next after this preſent Seſſion of Parliament (if the ſame conueniently may bee) and if in the ſaid time the ſame cannot conueniently be, then within ſuch time as to the Iuſtices of Peace, or the more part of them, in their ſaid generall ſeſſions of the Peace in euery Countie, within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions, ſhall be thought meete and conuenient, ſo as it exceed not two yeeres after taxation in ſuch Countie for that purpoſe made, or els the money leuyed to bee repayed. And that euery perſon refuſing to pay, or not paying, (ſuch ſumme of money, towards the making, obteining and furniſhing of the ſaid houſes of Correction, and buying of ſtockes and ſtores, and for the reliefe and ſuſtentation of ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed to the ſaid houſes of Correction, vpon them or any of them ſhall be by order aforeſaid taxed, & at ſuch time, as by the ſame order ſhall be appointed) ſhall for euery default forfeit double ſo much as he or they ſhalbe ſo taxed vnto. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, or the more part of them in their ſaid generall Seſſions, in euery countie ſhall and may appoint from time to time, perſons which ſhall be Ouerſeers of euery ſuch houſe of correction, which ſaid perſons ſhalbe called the cenſors, and wardens of the houſes of correction, and ſhall haue the rule, gouernment, and order of ſuch houſes of correction, according to ſuch orders, as by the ſaid Iuſtices of P. or the more part of them in their generall Seſſions in euery county, ſhall be preſcribed: And ſhall alſo by like authoritie appoint

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the Iuſtices of Peace of euery Countie or place corporate, or the more part of them in their generall Seſſions to be holden next after the feaſt of Eaſter next, and ſo yeerely as often as they ſhall thinke meete, ſhall rate euery Pariſh to ſuch a weekely ſumme of money as they ſhall thinke conuenient, ſo as no Pariſh be rated aboue the ſumme of vi. pence, nor vnder the ſumme of a halfepenie, weekely to be paied, and ſo as the totall ſumme of ſuch taxation of the Pariſhes in euery Countie, amount not aboue the rate of two pence for euery pariſh within the ſaid County: Which ſummes ſo taxed, ſhall be yeerely aſſeſſed by the agreement of the Pariſhioners within themſelues, or in default thereof, by the Churchwardens and petie Conſtables of the ſame Pariſh, or the more part of them, or in default of their agreement, by the order of ſuch Iuſtice or Iuſtices of peace, as ſhall dwell in the ſame Pariſh, or (if none be there dwelling) in the parts next adioyning. And if any perſon ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay any ſuch portion of money ſo taxed, it ſhall be lawfull for the ſaid Churchwardens & Conſtables, or any of them, or in their default for any Iuſtice of peace of the ſaid limit, to leuie the ſame by diſtreſſe, and ſale of the goods of the partie ſo refuſing or neglecting, rendring to the partie the ouerplus, and in default of ſuch diſtreſſe, it ſhall be lawfull to anie Iuſtice of that limit, to commit ſuch perſon to the ſaid priſon, there to abide without bayle or mainepriſe, till hee haue payed the ſame. And be it alſo enacted, that the ſaid Iuſtices of the Peace at their generall quarter Seſſions to be holden at the time of ſuch taxation, ſhall ſet downe what competent ſummes of money ſhall be ſent quarterly out of euery Countie or place corporate, for the reliefe of the poore priſoners of the Kinges bench, and Marſhalſey, and alſo of ſuch Hoſpitals, and Almes houſes, as ſhall be in the ſaid Countie, and what ſummes of money ſhall be ſent to euery one of the ſaid Hoſpitals and Almes houſes, ſo as there be ſent out of euery Countie yerely twentie ſhillings at the leaſt to each of the ſaid priſons of the kings bench, and Marſhalſey, which ſummes rateably to bee aſſeſſed vpon euery Pariſh, the Churchwardens of euery Pariſh ſhall truely collect and pay ouer to the high Conſtables in whoſe diuiſion ſuch Pariſh ſhall be ſituate, from time to time, quarterly ten dayes before the ende of euery quarter, and euery ſuch Conſtable at euery ſuch quarter Seſſions in ſuch Countie, ſhall pay ouer the ſame to ſuch two Treaſurers, or to one of them, as ſhall by the more part of the Iuſtices of Peace of the Countie, be elected to be the ſaid Treaſurers, to be choſen by the Iuſtices of P. of the ſaid Countie, Citie, or towne, or place corporate, or of others which were ſeſſed and taxed at fiue pound landes, or ten pound goods, at the leaſt, at the taxe of ſubſidie next before the time of the ſaid election to be made. And the ſaid Treaſurers ſo elected, to continue for the ſpace of one whole yeere in their office, and then to giue vp their charge with a due accompt of their receipts and diſburſements, at the quarter Seſſions to be holden next after the feaſt of Eaſter in euery yeere, to ſuch others as ſhall from yeere to yeere in forme aforeſaid ſucceſſiuely be elected Treaſurers for the ſaid Countie, citie, towne, or place corporate: which ſaid Treaſurers, or one of them ſhall pay ouer the ſame to the Lord chiefe Iuſtice of England, and Knight Marſhall for the time being, equally to be deuided to the vſe aforeſaid, taking their acquittance for the ſame, or in default of the ſaid Chiefe Iuſtice, to the next ancienteſt Iuſtice of the kings Bench as aforeſaid. And if any Churchwarden or high Conſtable, or his executors, or adminiſtrators, ſhall faile to make payment in forme aboue ſpecified, then euery Churchwarden, his executors or adminiſtrators, ſo offending, ſhall forfait for euery time the ſumme of x. ſhillings, and euery high Conſtable, his executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall forfeit for euery time the ſumme of xx. ſhillings, the ſame forfeitures together with the ſummes behind, to be leuied by the ſaid treaſurer and treaſurers, by way of diſtreſſe, and ſale of the goods as aforeſaid, in forme aforeſaid, & by them to be imployed towards the charitable vſes compriſes in this act. And be it further enacted, that all the ſurpluſage of money which ſhall be remaining in the ſaid ſtocke, of any Countie, ſhall by diſcretion of the more part of the Iuſtices of peace in their quarter Seſſions, be ordered, diſtributed, and beſtowed for the reliefe of the poore Hoſpitals of that Countie, and of thoſe that ſhall ſuſtaine loſſes by fire, water, the ſea, or other caſualties, and to ſuch other charitable purpoſes, for the reliefe of the poore, as to the more part of the ſaid Iuſtices of peace ſhall ſeeme conuenient. ☞ 6 Where diuers acts haue beene made for the auoyding and puniſhment of Vſurie, being a thing vnlawfull, and of other corrupt bargaines, ſhifts, and cheuiſances, which be ſo obſcure in termes, and ſo manie queſtions growen vpon the ſame, and of ſo little effect, that little puniſhment, but rather encouragement to offenders hath enſued thereby: For reformation thereof, be it &c. that all and euerie acts, ſtatutes, and lawes heretofore made, of, for, or concerning vſurie, ſhiftes, corrupt bargaines, cheuiſances, and euerie of them, and all paines, forfeitures and penalties concerning the ſame, and euery part thereof, ſhall from henceforth be vtterly void and of none effect to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes. And be it &c. that no perſon ne perſons of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer hee, or they be, from &c. ſhall by him ſelfe, factor, atturney, ſeruant or deputie ſell his marchandiſes or wares to any perſon or perſons, and within three monthes next after by himſelfe, factor, atturney, deputie, or by any other perſon or perſons to his vſe and behoofe, buy the ſame marchandiſes or wares, or any part or parcell thereof, vpon a leſſer price, knowing them to be the ſame wares or marchandiſes, that he before did ſo bargaine and ſell, vppon the paines and forfeitures hereafter limitted in this eſtatute. And be it &c. that no perſon or perſons of what eſtate &c. by way or meane of any corrupt bargaine, loane, eſchange, cheuiſance, ſhift, or intereſt of anie wares, marchandizes, or other thing or thinges whatſoeuer, or by anie other corrupt or deceitfull way or meane, or by anie couin, engine, or deceitfull way or conueyance, ſhall haue, receiue, accept, or take in lucre or gaines, for the forbearing or giuing day of payment of one whole yeere, of, and for his or their money or other thing, that ſhall be due for the ſame wares, marchandizes, or other thing or thinges aboue the ſumme of tenne pound in the hundred, and ſo after that rate and not aboue, of, and for a more or leſſe ſumme, or for a longer or ſhorter time, and no more greater gaine or ſumme thereupon to be had, vpon the paines and forfeitures hereafter in this act mentioned and conteyned. And be it enacted &c. that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time after &c. doe bargaine and ſell, or lay to morgage by anie way or meane anie mannors, landes, tenements, or hereditaments to anie perſon or perſons, vpon condition of payment or non payment of anie ſumme or ſummes of money to be had, payed, or made, at anie day certaine, or before anie ſuch day by him that ſhall ſo bargaine, ſell, or lay to morgage the ſame manors, landes, tenements, or hereditaments, that the ſame perſon or perſons, to whom any ſuch manors, landes, tenements, or hereditaments ſhall be ſo bargained, ſold, or layed to morgage, ſhall not by reaſon thereof, haue ne take in lucre or gaines of the iſſues, reuenues, and profits of the ſame manors, landes, tenements, or hereditaments aboue the ſumme of tenne pound in the hundred for one whole yeere, and ſo after the rate aboueſaid for a more or leſſer ſumme, or for a longer or ſhorter time and no more, nor otherwiſe, vppon the paines, forfeitures, and penalties hereafter in this preſent eſtatute limitted and expreſſed. And bee it enacted &c. that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate &c. ſhall doe any acte or actes, thing or thinges, contrarie to the tenour, forme, and effect of this eſtatute, or of any clauſe, article or ſentence contayned in the ſame, that then all & euerie offender and offenders therein, or in anie part thereof, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euerie ſuch offence the treble value of the wares, marchandizes, and other thing or thinges ſo bargained, ſold, eſchanged, or ſhifted, and the treble value of the iſſues and profits of the ſaid manors, landes, tenements, and hereditaments ſo had, taken or receiued by reaſon of any ſuch bargaine, ſale, or morgage, and alſo ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment of his bodie, and make fine and ranſome at the kinges will and pleaſure. 7 Where in the ſeauen and thirtie yeere of the reigne of the late king Henrie the eight (before 6.) amongſt other acts and Statutes then made, it was enacted by authoritie of Parliament, that no perſon or perſons at any time after the laſt day of January, in the ſaid ſeauen and thirtie yeere, ſhould haue, receiue, accept, or take in lucre, or gaines, for the loane, forbearing, or giuing day of payment of anie ſumme of money, for one whole yeere, aboue the ſumme of tenne pound in the hundred, and ſo after that rate, and not aboue, of, and for a more, or leſſe ſumme, or for longer or ſhorter time, vpon the paines and forfeitures in the ſaid acte mentioned and conteyned. The which acte was not meant nor entended for the maintenance and allowance of Uſurie, as diuers perſons, blinded with inordinate loue of themſelues, haue and yet doe miſtake the ſame, but rather was made and intended againſt all ſorts and kindes of Uſurie, as a thing vnlawfull, as by the title and preamble of the ſaid acte it doth plainely appeare. And yet neuertheleſſe the ſame was by the ſaid acte permitted, for the auoyding of a more euill, and inconuenience, that before that time was vſed and exerciſed. But foraſmuch as Uſurie is by the word of God vtterly prohibited, as a vice moſt odious and deteſtable, as in diuers places of the holie Scriptures it is euident to bee ſeene, which thing by no godly teachings and perſwaſions can ſinke into the hearts of diuers greedie, vncharitable, and couetous perſons of this Realme, nor yet by any terrible threatnings of Gods wrath and vengeance, that iuſtlie hangeth ouer this Realme, for the great and open Uſurie therein dayly vſed and practiſed, they will forſake ſuch filthie gaine and lucre, vnleſſe ſome temporall puniſhment bee prouided and ordeyned in that behalfe. For reformation whereof be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that from the firſt day of May, which ſhall bee in the yeere of our Lord God, a thouſand, fiue hundred, fiftie and two, the ſaid Act and Statute, concerning onely vſurie, lucre, or gaine, of, or for the loane, forbearing, or giuing daies of anie ſumme or ſummes of money, be vtterly abrogated, voide, and repealed. And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that from and after the ſaid firſt day of May next comming, no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, qualitie, or condition ſoeuer hee or they be, by anie corrupt, colourable, or deceitfull conueyance, ſlight or engine, or by anie way or meane, ſhall lend, giue, ſet out, deliuer, or forbear any ſumme or ſummes of money, to anie perſon or perſons, or to any corporation, or bodie politique, to or for anie maner of Uſurie increaſe, lucre, gaine, or intereſt to be had, receiued, or hoped for, ouer and aboue the ſumme or ſummes ſo lent, giuen, ſet out, deliuered, or forborne, vpon paine of forfeiture the valure, aſwell of the ſumme or ſummes ſo lent, giuen, ſet out, deliuered, or forborne, as alſo of the vſurie, increaſe, lucre, gaine, or intereſt thereof, and alſo vppon paine of impriſonment of the body or bodyes of euery ſuch offender or offenders, and alſo to make fine and ranſome at the kinges will and pleaſure. The moitie of which forfeiture of the ſaid value, ſhall be to the king, and the other moitie to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any of the kinges Courts of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted. An. 5. & 6. E. 6. c. 20. This act was repealed for a time by 15. Eliz. cap. 8. as here followeth 8.

8 Wherein 37. H. 8. (before 6.) a good act was made for the reformation of Uſurie, whereby eſpecially the corrupt cheuiſance and bargaining by way of ſale of wares, and ſhiftes of intereſt was well expreſſed, which was repealed by another acte made 5. & 6. E.6. (before 7.) againſt vſurie, which latter acte hath not done the good that was hoped for, aſwell for that there was no prouiſion againſt ſuch ſhifts of intereſt & ſale of wares, as alſo for that there is no difference of forfeiture, vpon greater or leſſer exactions, by reaſon of loanes vpon Vſurie: Be it enacted, that the ſtatute made in the fift and ſixt yere of the raigne of king Edward the ſixt, and euery branch and article of the ſame, from and after the xxv. day of Iune next comming, ſhalbe vtterly abrogated, repealed, and made voyd: and that the ſaid acte made in the ſaid xxxvii. yeere of king Henrie the eight, from and after the ſaid xxv. day of Iune next comming, ſhall be reuiued, and ſtand in full force, ſtrength and effect. And be it further enacted, that all bondes, contracts, and aſſurances collaterall, or other, to be made for payment of anie principall, or money to be lent, or couenant to be performed, vpon or for any Vſurie in lending or doing of any thing againſt the ſaid acte now reuiued, vpon or by which loane or doing, there ſhall be reſerued or taken aboue the rate of ten pounds for the hundred for one yeere ſhall be vtterly void. And be it further enacted, that all brokers, ſollicitors, and driuers of bargaines for contracts, or other doing againſt the ſaid Statute now reuiued, whereupon ſhall be reſerued or taken more then after the rate of tenne pound, for the loane of an hundred pound for a yere, ſhall bee to all intents and purpoſes iudged puniſhed, and vſed as Councellers, Atturneis, or Aduocates in any caſe of Præmunire. And foraſmuch as all Vſurie being forbidden by the law of God, is ſinne and deteſtable: Be it enacted, that all Vſurie, loane and forbearing of money, or giuing dayes for forbearing of money by way of loane, cheuiſance, ſhifts, ſale of wares, contract, or other doings whatſoeuer for gaine, mentioned in the ſaid Statute, which is now reuiued, whereupon is not reſerued, or taken, or couenanted to bee reſerued, payed or giuen to the lender, contracter, ſhifter, forbearer, or deliuerer, aboue the ſumme of ten pound for the loane or forbearing of one hundred pound for one yeere, or after that rate for a more or leſſer ſumme or time, ſhall be from the fiue and twentie day of Iune next comming, puniſhed in forme following, that is to ſay: that euery ſuch offender againſt this branch of this preſent ſtatute, ſhall forfeit ſo much as ſhall be reſerued by way of Vſurie, aboue the principall for any money ſo to be lent or forborne. All ſuch forfeitures to be recouered and imployed, as is limitted for forfeitures by the ſaid former ſtatute now reuiued. And be it further enacted, that Iuſtices of oyer and terminer, and Iuſtices of Aſſiſe in their circuits, Iuſtices of peace in their Seſſions, Maiors, Shirifes, and Baylifes of Cities, ſhall alſo haue full power and authoritie to enquire, heare, and determine of all and ſinguler offences committed againſt the ſaid Statute now reuiued. And be it further enacted, that the ſaid Statute now reuiued, ſhall be moſt largely and ſtrongly conſtrued for the repreſſing of Vſurie, and againſt all perſons that ſhall offend againſt the true meaning of the ſaid ſtatute by any way or deuice, directly or indirectly. Prouided alway, that this Statute doeth not extend, nor ſhall bee expounded to extend vnto any allowances or payments for the finding of Orphanes, according to the ancient rates or cuſtomes of the Citie of London, or anie other Citie where like order is for the cuſtodie of Orphanes, & their goods, as is in the ſaid Citie of London. Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, ſhall from and after the ſaid fiue and twentie day of Iune, offend contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute reuiued by this preſent act, made in the ſeauen and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late king Henry the eight: that then all and euery ſuch offender or offenders ſhall and may alſo be puniſhed and corrected, according to the Eccleſiaſticall lawes heretofore made againſt Vſurie. And that all and euery perſon and perſons, offending in Vſurie, ſhifts, or cheuiſance againſt this preſent act, and not taking or receiuing, but only after the rate of tenne pound in the hundred, or vnder, for a yeere, ſhall be onely puniſhed by the paines and forfeitures prouided and appointed by this act, againſt ſuch as ſhall not take or receiue ouer and aboue the rate of ten pound in the hundred for a yeere, and not otherwiſe. This acte to continue and endure for and during the ſpace of fiue yeeres next after the ende of this preſent Parliament, and from thence vnto the end of the firſt Seſſion of the Parliament then next enſuing. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that if this preſent Act ſhall not bee continued in the firſt Seſſion of the Parliament next enſuing the ſaide terme of fiue yeeres, and then in the ſame Seſſion no other Statute or prouiſion made againſt vſurie, or corrupt cheuiſance: that then all and euery the Lawes and Statutes repealed by this acte, ſhall remaine and bee of ſuch like the perpetration of manifold wickedneſſes, ſtand neede of ſharpe correction: Be it &c. that all & ſinguler perſon and perſons, dwelling or reſiant within Wales, or in the lordſhips Marchers of the ſame, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, vpon ſuch monition or warning giuen for the Court to be kept in Wales, or in any of the lordſhips Marchers aforeſaid, as before this time hath been vſed, ſhal perſonally repaire, reſort, & appeare before the Juſtice, ſteward, lieutenãt, or other officer, at all & euery ſeſſions, court and courts to be holden before the ſame Juſtice, ſteward, or other officers in any whatſoeuer caſtle, fortreſſe, or other place within Wales, or within the precinct, limits, and iuriſdictions of euery the lordſhips Marchers or ſeignories aforeſaid, or the Marches of the ſame, as by the ſaid Juſtice, ſteward, or other officers ſhall be appointed, and then or there ſhall giue his or their perſonall attendance, to doe, execute, and accompliſh, all and euery thing and things which to him or them ſhall afferre and appertaine, vpon paine of ſuch fines, forfeitures, and amerciaments, as ſhall be affered, aſſeſſed, and taxed by the Juſtice, Steward, or other officer to the kings vſe, if it be within any of the kings lordſhips Marchers. And if it be within any other lordſhips Marchers, then to the vſe of the Lord of the ſaid lordſhip Marcher for the time being: The ſaid forfeitures & amerciaments to be leuied, perceiued, and taken by way of diſtreſſe of the goods and cattels of euery perſon not appearing at the ſaid court or courts, or not doing, executing, or accompliſhing his duetie, as is aboueſaid. And foraſmuch as the officers in the Lordſhips Marchers in Wales, haue oft and ſundry times heretofore vnlawfully exacted the kings ſubiects within ſuch lordſhps, where they haue had rule or authoritie by many and ſundry wayes and meanes, and alſo committed them to ſtraight dureſſe and impriſonment for ſmall and light feined cauſes, and extorciouſly compelled them thereby to pay vnto them fines for redemptions, contrarie to the law: Therefore be it &c. that if any Steward, lieutenant, or any other officer of any lordſhip Marcher, doe faine, procure, or imagine any vntrue ſurmiſe againſt any perſon or perſons that ſhall ſo giue their perſonall attendance before them at ſuch court or courts, and vpon the ſame vntrue ſurmiſe commit them to any dureſſe or impriſonment contrarie to the Law, or contrarie to the true and laudable cuſtome of that lordſhip, that then vpon ſute made vnto the kings Commiſſioners or Councell of the Marchers for time being, by any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned, or by any their friends, that then the ſame Commiſſioners or Councell ſhall haue full power and authority to ſend for ſuch Steward, lieutenant, or officer, and alſo for the perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned. And if the ſame perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned, can euidently prooue before the ſaid Counſell, by good and ſubſtantiall witneſſe, or otherwiſe, that his impriſonment was vpon any fayned ſurmiſe without cauſe reaſonable or lawfull: that then the ſame Commiſſioners, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to aſſeſſe the ſaid officer to pay to the ſaid perſon or perſons wrongfully impriſoned, ſixe ſhillings eight pence for euery day of their impriſonment, or more, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, according to the hurts and behauiour of the perſon or perſons impriſoned. And that the ſame Commiſſioners ſhall ſet further fine vpon the ſaid officer to be paid to the kinges vſe, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought conuenient. And in caſe the ſame officers doe refuſe to appeare before the ſame Commiſſioners incontinent after any commandement to them directed and deliuered, after any ſuch complaint made to the ſame Commiſſioners: that then the ſame Commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoritie vpon euery default made by any officer or officers, to aſſeſſe and ſet vpon euery ſuch officer or officers making default, ſuch fine or fines to be leuyed to the kinges vſe, as by their diſcretions ſhall bee thought conuenient. And that the ſame commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoritie to compell the ſaid officer or officers by way of impriſonment, aſwell to pay ſuch fine as ſhall be ſet and taxed vpon them to the kinges vſe, as to pay to euery perſon and perſons ſo impriſoned, ſuch ſummes of money as they ſhall be ſeſſed to pay for their wrong impriſonment. And alſo be it further enacted &c. that no perſon or perſons dwelling or reſiant within Wales or the Lordſhips marchers of the ſame, of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſoeuer hee or they be of, comming, reſorting or repayring vnto any Seſſions or Court to bee holden within Wales, or anie Lordſhips marchers of the ſame, ſhall bring or beare, or cauſe to bee brought or borne to the ſame Seſſions or Court, or to any place within the diſtance of two miles, from the ſame Seſſions or Court, nor to anie Towne, Church, Faire, Market or other congregation, except it be vpon a hue or outcry made of any felonie or robberie done or perpetrated, nor in the high wayes in afray of the kinges peace or the K. liege people, any bil, longbow,

25 Foraſmuch as the people of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, perſeuering in the

And further they and euery of them ſhal make ſuch fine, as by the diſcretion of the kings Commiſſioners of his Marches ſhall be thought conuenient. And further the ſaid Commiſſioners by this preſent acte, ſhall haue power and authoritie to heare & determine the ſaid offences by their examination. And that no perſon or perſons ſhall hereafter at any time caſt any thing into any Court within Wales, or in any lordſhips Marchers of the ſame, by the meane or name of an Arthell, by reaſon whereof the Court may be letted, diſturbed, or diſcontinued for that time, vpon paine of one whole yeeres impriſonment of any ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall caſt or cauſe to be caſt any ſuch Arthell into any court or courts, hereafter to be holded within Wales or lordſhips Marchers of the ſame: any cuſtome before this time vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that all Seſſions and Courts hereafter to be holden within Wales, or the lordſhips Marchers of the ſame, ſhall be kept within the moſt ſureſt and peaceable place within the ſame lordſhip Marcher, where the ſaid Iuſtice, Steward, or other officer ſhall appoint.

¶ And for the puniſhment and ſpeedy triall, aſwell of the counterfeiters of any Coine currant within this Realme, waſhing, clipping, or miniſhing of the ſame, as of all and ſinguler felonies, murders, wilfull burning of houſes, manſlaughters, robberies, burglaries, rapes, and acceſſaries of the ſame, and other offences feloniouſly done, perpetrated, & committed, or hereafter to be done, perpetrated & committed within any lordſhips Marcher of Wales: Be it &c. that yͤ Iuſtices of the gaole deliuerie, and of the peace, and euery of them for the time being, in the ſhire or ſhires of England, where the kings writ runneth, next adioyning to the ſame lordſhip Marcher, or other place in Wales, where ſuch counterfeiting, waſhing, clipping, or miniſhing of any coine currant within this Realme, or murder hath been, or hereafter ſhall be committed or done, or where any other felonies or acceſſaries ſhall be hereafter committed, perpetrated, or done ſhall haue from henceforth full power and authoritie at their Seſſions and gaole deliuerie, to inquire by verdict of xii. men of the ſame ſhire or ſhires next adioyning within England where the kings writ runneth, there to cauſe all ſuch counterfeiters, waſhers, clippers of money, felons, murderers, & acceſſaries to the ſame, to be indicted according to the Lawes of this land, in like maner and forme, as if the ſame petie treaſons, murders, felonies, and acceſſaries to the ſame, had been done, committed, or perpetrated within any of the ſaid ſhires within the ſaid Realme, and alſo to heare, determine, and iudge the ſame, according to the Lawes of the Realme. 34 Foraſmuch as in the principalitie of Wales and Countie Palantine of Cheſter, manie great and mightie matters be now determinable before one onely Iuſtice, which breedeth infinite trouble & great delay, and it hath beene doubted whether her Maieſtie

may by her Letters patents conſtitute more, or aſſociate any there: for plaine explanation thereof, and for the more ſpeedie adminiſtration of Juſtice: Be it declared, explaned, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall: and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the Queenes highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors may and ſhall at her or their will & pleaſure, haue full power, prerogatiue, and authoritie from time to time, to conſtitute, authorize, name, or appoint, two or more learned as aforeſaid, in the lawes of this Realme, to bee Juſtices of, and for the ſaid counties of Cheſter, Flint, Denbigh, and Mountgomerie: and two or more learned as aforeſaid, to bee Juſtices of Northwales, viz. of and for the ſaid ſhires of Angleſey, Carnaruan, and Merioneth: and likewiſe two or more learned as aforeſaid, to be Juſtices of and for the ſaid circuit and Shires of Radnor, Glamorgan, and Brecknock, and alſo two or more learned as aforeſaid, to be Juſtices of and for the ſaid circuit and Shires of Cardigan, Carmarthen, and Pembroke, and the Towne and Countie of Hauerford Weſt: any law, vſage, opinion, or ſtatute to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, may and ſhall at her and their good will and pleaſure from time to time, aſſociate, and graunt Commiſſion and Commiſſions of aſſociation or aſſociations, vnder the great Seale of England, to anie perſon or perſons learned as aforeſaid, to be aſſociate to or with euery or any ſuch ſeuerall Juſtice or Juſtices for the time being, of the ſaid ſeuerall circuits and Counties aforeſaid, or in anie of the ſaid counties: and that all and euerie ſuch two Juſtices or more, within euerie of the ſaid ſeuerall circuits and counties, and alſo that euerie ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices together with ſuch perſon or perſons aſſociate, if any ſuch aſſociation or aſſociations ſhall happen to be as aforeſaid, during ſuch aſſociation: and after ſuch aſſociation ended, or without ſuch aſſociation, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall haue the like full power, preeminence, authoritie, & iuriſdiction from henceforth, to all intents, conſtructions, purpoſes, and effects, as anie one Juſtice within any of the ſaid Circuits or Shires aforeſaid, now hath, or at anie time heretofore had or ought to haue: and alſo ſhall haue like power, authoritie, preeminence, and iuriſdiction, to keepe and hold the ſeuerall ſeſſions aforeſaid, twice in euery yere in euery of the ſaid ſhires, within their ſeuerall circuits aforeſaid, & to heare, determine, order, award, adiudge, receiue, take knowledge of, and execute all and ſinguler cauſes, matters, pleas of aſſiſes, treaſons, murders, felonies, indictments, appeales of murder, felonie, and maimes, actions reals, perſonals, and mixt ſuits, plaints, informations, quarrels, attaintes, conſpiracies, quare impedit, and all actions grounded vppon any Statute or Satutes, writs, proceſſe, returnes, eſſoines, verdicts, iudgements, fines, acknowledges, confeſſions, warrants and executions, actions, and acts whatſoeuer, and to do, performe, obſerue, accompliſh, and make all and euery other act and acts, matter and matters, thing & things whatſoeuer, in like, and in as ample, beneficiall, lawfull, and effectuall maner and forme, to all conſtructions, qualities, intents, & purpoſes, as any of the now ſeuerall Juſtices, or any one of the now Juſtice or Juſtices within the ſame ſeuerall circuit or circuits, and counties aforeſaid, may, ought, hath or might lawfully doe by force of any law, vſage or ſtatute heretofore had, made, or vſed, before the making of this act: and that from henceforth all and ſinguler writs, proceſſe, returnes, eſſoines, verdicts, iudgements, fines, recoueries, recogniſances, acknowledges, confeſſions, act and acts, thing and thinges, matter and matters, as aforeſaid, had, made, taken, done, returned, heard, determined, awarded, adiudged, or executed, by or before any ſuch two Juſtices or more: or any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, and aſſociate or aſſociates, as aforeſaid, to be appointed, nominated, authorized, or conſtituted, as aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed, taken, conſtrued, expounded, and adiudged as good, effectuall, and auailable, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if the ſame had been had, made, taken, done, returned, heard, determined, awarded, iudged, or executed by or before any ſuch one Juſtice, or one of the Juſtices now, or late being Juſtice or Juſtices of the ſame circuit, or ſeuerall circuits aforeſaid: any law, vſage, ſtatute, act, ordinance, or preſcription to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the exemplification of any ſuch Inrolment of any fine or recouerie, or of any part thereof, within any of the ſaid twelue Shires of Wales, or the ſaid Towne and Countie of Hauerford Weſt, vnder the Judiciall ſeale of the ſaid Shire Towne or Countie where ſuch fine or recouerie was leuied, had, or paſſed, and the exemplification of any ſuch inrolment of any Fine or Recouerie, or of any part thereof, within any of the ſaid Counties Palantine, vnder the Seale of that Countie Palantine where ſuch fine or recouerie was leuied, had, or paſſed, ſhall be of as good force and validitie in the law to all intents, reſpects, and purpoſes, for ſuch part, and ſo much of any of them as ſhall be ſo exemplified, as the verie originall record it ſelfe being extant and remaining were, or ought by law to be. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull for the Juſtices clerkes, authorized by their warrant in the ſaid ſeueral offices & places where the ſame Records, or any of them doe or ſhall remaine, to write out, or inroll the ſame records and euery part thereof, and that the ſaid Records, nor any of them for the writing out or making the rolles thereof by the Clerkes of the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall be brought or caried foorth of the ſaid offices or places. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that none of the ſaid Fines or Recoueries aforeſaid heretofore leuied, paſſed, or ſuffered, which ſhall be exemplified vnder any Judiciall ſeale of any of the ſaid ſhires of Wales, or Towne or Countie of Hauerford Weſt, or vnder the ſeale of any of the ſaid Counties Palantine, according to the forme of this act, ſhall after ſuch exemplification had, be in any wiſe amended. Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to the preiudice of the heires of Sir Edward Grey knight, Lord Powys deceaſed, or of Sir Edward Herbert knight, or his heires or aſſignes, Henry Vernon, or John Vernon Eſquiers, or their heires or aſſignes, for, or concerning any fine leuied, or recouerie ſuffered, by, or againſt the ſaid Lord Powys, of any baronies, honors, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments in the Countie of Mountgomerie, or any exemplification thereof, or for, or concerning any writ of Errour, brought, or to be brought for the reuerſing of any ſuch fine or recouerie, but that they and euery of them, ſhal haue and inioy the ſame right, title, benefite, and aduantage, to all intents and purpoſes, as if this act had neuer been had or made. And foraſmuch as vpon great examination it appeareth, that diuers Fines and Recoueries haue been heretofore leuied and ſuffered of diuers caſtels, manours, meſuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which ſometime were the inheritance of George ſometime Earle of Kent, great grandfather to Henry now Earle of Kent, in vſe, poſſeſſion, reuerſion, or remainder, whereunto the ſaid now Earle of Kent pretendeth title, in vſe, poſſeſſion, reuerſion, or remainder, which if they be erronious as is pretended, do much varie from the generall cauſe and miſchiefe for which this Statute meaneth to prouide: Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that neither this ſtatute, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to take away any writ of Error, whereunto any perſon or perſons is now, or hereafter ſhall be lawfully intituled to haue for the reuerſing of the ſaid fines and recoueries, or any of them heretofore leuied or ſuffered of any of the ſaid caſtels, manours, meſuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which late were any part or parcell of the inheritance of the ſaid George ſometime Earle of Kent, in vſe, poſſeſſion, reuerſion, or remainder: any thing in this ſtatute conteined to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding, Anno 27. IF the heire of any ſuch (s. holding by knights ſeruice) be within age, his Lord ſhall not haue the warde of him, nor of his land, before that he haue taken of him homage. And after that ſuch an heire hath been in ward (when he is come to age) that is to ſay, to the age of xxi. yeeres, he ſhall haue his inheritance without reliefe and without fine, ſo neuertheleſſe, that if ſuch an heire being within age be made knight, yet his land ſhall remaine in the keeping of his Lord vnto the terme aforeſaid, Magna charta cap. 3. Marriage

4 Of heires that be led away, withholden, or married by their kniſfolks, or by other with force againſt our peace: Thus it is prouided, ỹ whatſoeuer lay man be conuict thereof, that he hath ſo withholden, led away, or married any childe, he ſhall yeeld to the loſer the value of the mariage. And for the offence, his bodie ſhall be taken and impriſoned vntill he haue recompenſed the loſer, if the childe be maried, and further, vntill he hath ſatiſfied the king for the treſpaſſe. And this ſhall be done of an heire beeing within the age of xiiii. yeeres. But touching an heire being xiiii. yeeres old or aboue, vnto his full age, if he marrie himſelfe without the licence of his Lord to defraud him of the marriage, and his Lord offer him a reaſonable and conuenient marriage (without diſparagement) then his Lord ſhall hold his land beyond the terme of his age, that is to ſay, of xxi. yeeres, ſo long that he may receiue thereof the double value of the marriage, after the eſtimation of lawfull men, or after as it hath been offered him for the ſaid marriage before without fraud and colluſion, and after as it may be prooued in the kings Court, Merton cap. 6. Anno 20. H. 3.

Refuſe

5 As touching Lords, which marrie thoſe that they haue in ward to villaines or other, as Burgeſſes, where they be diſparaged, if ſuch an heire be within the age of xiiii. yeres, and of ſuch age that he cannot conſent to mariage: then if his kinſfolke complaine thereof, the Lord ſhall loſe the wardſhip, vnto the age of the heire. And all ỹ profit that thereof ſhall be taken, ſhall be conuerted to the vſe of the heire being within age, after the diſcretion and prouiſion of his kinſfolke, for the ſhame done to him: But if he be xiiii. yeeres old and aboue, ſo that he may conſent, and do conſent to ſuch marriage, no paine ſhall follow. If an heire (of what age ſoeuer he be) will not marrie at the requeſt of his Lord, he ſhall not be compelled thereto: But when he commeth to full age, he ſhal giue to his Lord, and pay him as much, as any would haue giuen him for the marriage, before he receiue his land, & that whether he will marrie himſelfe, or not, for that marriage of him that is within age, of meere right pertayneth to the Lord of the fee, Merton cap. 6. and 7. Anno 20. H. 3.

Feoffement

6 As touching them that vſe to enfeoffe their eldeſt ſonnes and heires being within age, of their heritage, for to defraud the Lordes of the fee of their wardſhips: It is prouided and agreed, that by occaſion of any ſuch feoffement no chiefe Lord ſhall loſe his ward. Moreouer touching them that faine falſe feoffements of their lands, which they would deliuer out for terme of yeeres, for to defraud the chiefe lords of their wards, wherin it is contained, that they are ſatiſfied of the whole ſeruice due vnto them vntill a certaine terme, ſo that ſuch feoffees are bound at the ſaid terme to pay a certaine ſumme to the value of the ſame lands, or farre aboue, ſo that after ſuch terme, the land ſhall returne to them, or to their heires, becauſe no man will be willing to keepe it vpon the price.

Fraud

Writ

Dammages

It is prouided and agreed, that by ſuch fraud no chiefe Lord ſhal loſe his ward: Neuertheleſſe it ſhall not be lawfull to them to diſſeiſe ſuch feoffees without iudgement, but they ſhall haue a writ for to haue the wardſhip yeelded vnto them, and by the witneſſes contained in the deede of feoffement, with other free and lawfull men of the Countrey, and by the quantitie and value of the land, and by the quantitie of the ſumme payable after the terme, it ſhall be tried whether ſuch feoffements were made in good faith, or by colluſion to defraud the chiefe lords of the fee of their wards. And if the chiefe Lords in ſuch caſes recouer their wardes by iudgement, the feoffees ſhall neuertheleſſe haue their artion to recouer ſuch terme or fee (which they had therein) when the heires come to their lawfull age. And if any chiefe Lords doe maliciouſly implead ſuch feoffees, feining this caſe, namely where the feoffements were made lawfully, and in good faith, then the feoffees ſhall haue their dammages awarded, & their coſts which they haue ſuſteined by occaſion of the foreſaid plea, and the plaintifes ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed by amerciament, Marlebridge cap. 6. An. 52. H. 3.

Graund diſtreſſe

Rebell Forf.

7 In the common plea for wardſhip, if the deforceors come not at the great diſtreſſe, then the ſaid writ ſhall be renewed twiſe or thriſe at ſuch termes as it may be done within the halfe yeere following, ſo that euery time the writ be read in the open Countie (if the deforceor be not found before) and there be openly proclaimed that he come at the day limitted: and if he abſent himſelfe then, ſo that he come not to anſwere within the ſaid halfe yeere, nor the Shirife can find him, by which he cannot haue his body before our Iuſtices, to anſwere according to the law and cuſtome of the Realme: then as a Rebell, and ſuch a one as will not be iuſtified, he ſhal leeſe the ſeiſing of the ward: ſauing to him his action at an other time, if perhaps he haue any right to the ſame. But in ſuch caſes, where wardſhips belong to the keepers of wards being within age, and where keepers demand a wardſhip, which belongeth to the heire, or as appertayning to their inheritance, ſuch heires within age ſhall not leeſe their inheritance by the negligence or rebellion of their keepers, as in the caſe afore rehearſed: But let the common law run in like maner as it hath been accuſtomed to do, Marleb. cap. 7. An. 52. H. 3.

Waſt

8 It is prouided, that if land holden in ſocage be in the cuſtodie of the kinſfolke of the heire, becauſe the heire is within age, the keepers ſhall make no waſt, nor ſale, nor any deſtruction of the ſame inheritance, but ſafely ſhall keepe it to the vſe of the ſaid heire, ſo that when he commeth to his lawfull age, they ſhall anſwere to him for the iſſues of the ſaid inheritance by a lawful accompt: ſauing to the ſame keepers their reaſonable coſtes. Neither ſhall the ſaid keepers giue or ſell the marriage of ſuch an heire, but to the aduantage of the foreſaid heire: But the next kinſfolke which had the ward, (for all that time that writs of impleading doe not lie) ſhall haue ſuch wardſhip vnto the aduantage of the heire, as is ſaid before, without waſt, ſale, or deſtruction making, Marleb. cap. 17. 9 Concerning the lands of heires being within age, which be in the ward of their Lords: It is prouided, that the wardens ſhal keepe and ſuſtaine the land without making deſtruction of any thing. And that of ſuch maner of wardes ſhall be done in all points, as is contained in the great Charter of liberties made in the time of king Henry, father to the king that now is, and that it be ſo vſed from henceforth. And in the ſame maner ſhall Archbiſhopprickes, Biſhopricks, Abbathies, Churches, and all ſpirituall dignities bee kept in time of vacation, Weſtminſt. 1. capit. 21.

Women xiiij. Yeeres

10 Of heires married within age, without the conſent of their keepers, afore that they be paſt the age of fourteene yeeres, it ſhall be done according as it is contained in the ſtatute of Merton. And of them which ſhall be married without the conſent of their keepers, after they be paſt the age of xiiii. yeeres, the keeper ſhall haue the double value of their marriage, after the tenor of the ſame Act. Moreouer, ſuch as haue withdrawen the marriage, ſhall pay the full value thereof vnto the keeper for the treſpaſſe: And neuertheleſſe the king ſhall haue his amends according to the ſame act, of him that hath ſo withdrawen it. And of heires females after they haue accompliſhed the age of xiiii. yeres, and the lord (to whom the marriage belongeth) will not marrie them, but for couetouſnes of the land will keepe them vnmarried: It is prouided, that the Lord ſhall not haue nor keepe by reaſon of marriage, the lands of ſuch heires females more then two yeeres after the terme of the ſaid xiiii. yeres. And if the Lord within the ſaid two yeeres do not marrie them, then ſhall they haue an action to recouer their inheritance quite without giuing any thing for their wardſhip, or their marriage. And if they of malice, or by ill counſel wil not be married by their chiefe Lords (where they ſhall not be diſparaged,) then their lords may hold their land and inheritance, vntill they haue accompliſhed the age of an heire male, that is to wit, xxi. yeeres, and further, vntill they haue taken the value of the marriage, Weſtm̃ 1.cap.22.

11 In caſe where to one being within age, there diſcendeth inheritance of the fathers ſide that held of one lord, & of the mothers ſide, that helde of an other lord, there hath bin hitherto great doubt for the mariage of ſuch an heire, to which of them two Lords it ſhould belong: It is agreed, that the ſame lord ſhall from henceforth haue the marriage, of whom the childes aunceſtour was firſt infeoffed, not hauing reſpert to the ſexe, nor to the quantitie of the land, but onely to the more ancient feoffement by knights ſeruice, Weſt.2.cap.16.

Ancient feoffement

12 Concerning children, males or females (whoſe marriage belongeth to an other taken & carried away, if the rauiſhour haue no right in the marriage, though afterward he reſtore the childe vnmarried, or elſe pay for the marriage, he ſhall neuertheleſſe be puniſhed for his offence by two yeeres impriſonment: And if he do not reſtore, or do marrie the childe after the yeeres of conſent, and be not able to ſatiſfie for the marriage, he ſhall abiure the Realme, or haue perpetuall impriſonment, and thereupon the plaintife ſhall haue ſuch a writ: Si A. fecerit te ſecurum de clamore ſuo &c. tunc pone per vadium &c. B. quod ſit coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris &c. oſtenſurus, quare talem hæredem infra ętatem exiſtentem, cuius maritagium ad ipſum pertinet, tali loco inuentum, rapuit & abduxit, contra voluntatem ipſius A. & contra pacem noſtram &c. And if the heire be in the ſame Countie, then this clauſe muſt be thereto added: Et diligenter inquiras, vbi ille hæres ſit in balliua tua: Et ipſum (vbicunque inuentus fuerit) capias, & ſaluo & ſecurè cuſtodias, ita quod eum habeas coram præfatis Iuſticiarijs noſtris ad præfatum terminum, ad reddendum cui prædictorum A. & B. reddi debeat. And ſuite ſhall be made againſt the partie, on whom complaint is made, vntill he come in by diſtreſſe, if he haue whereof he may be diſtrayned, or elſe for his contumacy, in caſe he be not iuſtifiable, he ſhall be outlawed. And if percaſe the heire be married, or carried into an other Countie, then a writ ſhall be directed to the Shirife of the ſame Shire in this forme. /Queſtus eſt nobis A. quod B. nuper talem hęredem infra ætatem, & in cuſtodia ſua exiſtentem, tali loco in comitatu tali rapuit, & ab comitatu illo ad talem locum in comitatu tuo abduxit, contra voluntatem ipſius A. & contra pacem &c. Et ideo tibi præcipimus, quod prædictum hæredem (vbicunque eum in balliua tua inuenire poteris) capias, & ſaluo & ſecure eum cuſtodias, ita quod eum habeas coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris &c. tali die, quam idem A. habet verſus prædictum B. ad reddendum cui de iure reddi debeat. And if the heire happen to die, (before he be reſtored, or afore he can be found) the plea ſhall paſſe betweene them neuertheleſſe, vntill it be tried who ought to haue had it, if he had been liuing: Neither ſhall the rauiſhour be excuſed or eaſed of the puniſhment aforeſaid, by the death of the heire whom he did withhold by wrong during his life. And if the plaintife die before the plea tried, if the right belong to him by reaſon of his proper fee, the plea ſhall be reſummoned at the ſuite of the heire of the plaintife, and the plea ſhall paſſe in due order, but if the right belonged to him by an other title, as by a title of gift, ſale, or other like, then the plea ſhall be reſummoned at the ſuite of the executors of the plaintife, and the plea ſhall paſſe, as before is ſaid. In the ſame maner if the defendant die before the plea be tried, or the plea be reſtored, the plea ſhal paſſe by reſummons betweene the plaintife, his heires, or executors, and the executors of the defendant or his heires, if the executors be not ſufficient to ſatiſfie for the value of the marriage after, as it is contained in other ſtatutes, but not as to the paine of impriſonment: for none ought to be puniſhed for the offence of an other. In the ſame maner when a plea hangeth betweene parties for the ward of land, or of an heire, or of both, by the common writ that beginneth, Præcipe tali &c. quod reddat &c. reſummons ſhall be made betweene the heires & executors of the plaintife. And likewiſe the heires or executors of the defendant, if death preuent any of the parties afore the plea determined: And when they haue paſſed vnto the great diſtreſſe, a day ſhal be giuen, within which three courts may be holden at the leaſt: in euery of which, open proclamation ſhall be made, that the deforcer ſhall come into the bench at the day contained in the writ, to anſwere the plaintife: at which day if he come not, & the proclamation be ſo returned once, twice, or thriſe, the iudgement ſhall paſſe for the plaintife: ſauing the right of the defendant, if afterward he will claime it. In the ſame maner it ſhal be done in a writ of Treſpas, when any complaineth himſelf to be eiected from ſuch wardſhips, W.2.ca.34.

King

13 Our Soueraigne Lord the king ſhall haue the Ward of all the landes of ſuch as holde of him in chiefe by knightes ſeruice, whereof the tenantes were ſeiſed in their demeſne as of fee, at the day of their death (of whomſoeuer they hold elſe by like ſeruice, ſo that they held of ancient time any land of the Crowne) vntill the heire come to his lawfull age, except the fees of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Biſhop of Durham, betweene Tine and Teeſe, fines of Earles and Barrons in the Marches, where the kinges writs doe not lye, and wherof the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Earles and Barons, ought to haue ſuch Wardes, though they helde of the King in ſome other place, Prærog. Regis. capit. 1. 17. Ed. 2.

Marriage

14 Alſo the king ſhall haue the marriage of an heire being within age, and in his ward, whether the landes of ſuch heyres haue appertained to the Crowne of ancient continuance, or that it came by reaſon of eſcheate, being in the kinges handes, or that hee had the marriage by reaſon of the Ward of the Lordes of ſuch heires, without any reſpect to the prioritie of feoffement, albeit they helde of other. Prærogatiua regis capit. 2. Anno. 17. Ed. 2.

Woman

15 If any woman (before the death of her anceſtor that held of yͤ king in chiefe) be married before ſhe be marriageable, thē the king ſhall haue the Ward of the body of the ſame woman, vntill ſhee bee of age to conſent, and then ſhee may chooſe whether ſhee will haue him to whom ſhee was firſt married, or him that the king wil offer her. Reliefe

Sergeantie

16 It is to wit, that where any reliefe is giuen, there wardſhip is incident and contrariwiſe. And ſuch as holde by ſergeancy to go with the king in his hoſte, their ward and reliefe are incident. And ſuch as holde by petit ſergeanty, as to beare ſhield or ſpeare in the kinges hoaſt, to beare or to carry, there lyeth neither ward, mariage nor reliefe. Alſo a free ſokeman ſhal not giue ward nor reliefe, but he ſhall double his rent after the death of his anceſtor, according as hee hath vſed to pay, and ſhal not be vnmeaſurably grieued. Now ſomwhat is to bee ſayd of the nature of hauing wards. There be two maner of writs to haue wards, one is where lands be holdē in knights ſeruice, the other is where lands be holden in ſocage. The ward of land that is holden in knights ſeruice, belongeth to the chiefe Lord, and marriage, which ought to be without diſparagement, as the great charter limitteth vntill he commeth to the age of one & twenty yeres. The ward of an heire that holdeth in ſocage, if the inheritance diſcend of his mothers ſide, then it belongeth to the next friend of the fathers ſide, and contrariwiſe. And a writ to recouer ward, may bee brought in iii. maners: one is when a man demandeth ward of the land & of the heire, & that is in caſe whē a man holdeth land of of an other by knights ſeruice, & the tenant dyeth, thē may the chiefe lord (if he bee deforced) demaund the ward of his land & heire, and ſhall haue both ward and marriage. An other maner is when a man is infeoffed of a rod of land by one man, & by an other, of an other rod, the ſecond Lord may not bring a writ of ward to recouer eyther the land or the heire, for the ward belongeth to the lord, of whom he was firſt infeoffed. The third maner is, where a man hath land in his hand by reaſon of a ward, and hath not the heire, then hee may bring a writ to demaund the heire and not the land. An. 28. E. 1. ſtat. of Wards.

And haſtily after the diem clauſit extremum delivered to him, to returne the ſame by a good and true extent in the Chauncerie: after which returne if it bee found that the heire is within age, & the next friends of the heire to whom the inheritance cannot deſcend, ſhall come and offer them to take the ſaid landes, yeelding the value to the king, till the age of the heire, as farre foorth as other will yeeld without fraude by accord betwixt the Chauncelor and the Treaſorer, they ſhall haue Commiſſion to keepe the ſaid landes by good and ſufficient ſuertie, till the age of the ſaid heires, and to anſwere the king of the value. And it is not the kinges intent, that by this ſtatute hee be foreclosed to hane an action of waſte againſt ſuch gardiens and fermers, as he and his anceſtors haue had before this time: And that the heires when they come to their age, ſhall haue their action by writ of waſte againſt ſuch gardians and fermers. 7 William Butler, which is within age, and in ward of our Soueraigne Lord the king, hath ſhewed vnto his Highneſſe, that where Gawin Butler his brother (whoſe heire hee is) had impleaded one Walter de Hapeton by the Kinges writte, for waſte and deſtruction made by him in certaine his landes & tenements which the ſame Walter helde for terme of his life, of the inheritance of the foreſaid Gawin in Wimme & Trike: And the aforeſaide Gawin before hee had obtayned iudgement, dyed: After whoſe death the foreſaid William by like writ impleaded the foreſaide Walter, for the waſte and deſtruction made by him of long time: The ſame Walter before Gilbert Thornton and his companions, aſſigned to heare the kings Pleas, came in and ſaid that hee ought not to anſwere to the ſame William for the waſte and deſtruction made in the time of an other, before the Right of the ſayde Inheritance deſcended vnto him, and thereupon demaunded iudgement. And foraſmuch as certaine Iuſtices did not agree in giuing of the ſaide iudgement, becauſe it ſeemeth to ſome, that it ſhould not bee agreeable to the law, that any perſon ſhould obtaine aduantage & recompence by the foreſaid Writ, which is a Writ or treſpaſſe done to a perſon certaine, but onely the ſame perſon to whom and in whoſe time the treſpaſſe was done. Other Iuſtices with the more part of the kinges Councell, were in the contrarie opinion, alleadging by diuers reaſons, that the ſaid William ought to bee heard and anſwered vnto, and all other whatſoeuer they be, in like caſes, or in like treſpaſſes. And for becauſe like matters haue remained not amended, and treſpaſſes vnpuniſhed, which was inconuenient: Our Soueraigne Lord the king in his full Parliament, holden the day after the feaſt of the Purification in the xx. yeere of his raigne, by a generall Councell hath ordeined, and from henceforth hath commaunded to be ſtraightly obſerued, that euery heire in whoſe ward ſoeuer he be, and as well within age, as of full age, ſhall haue his recouerie by a Writ of waſte in the foreſaid cauſe, and alſo in other where the ſame Writ ought to holde place, and it ſhall hold place as well for waſte and deſtruction made in landes & tenements of his owne inheritance, and as well in the times of his aunceſtors, as at anie other time that the fee and inheritance diſcended vnto him, and ſhall bee anſwered vnto therefore: And that hee ſhall recouer the landes waſted and dammages, as it is ordeyned in the Statute of Weſtminſter of dammages to be recouered in a Writ of waſte, if the tenant bee conuict for the waſte. And it is commaunded by the king himſelfe vnto the ſame Gilbert Thornton and his companions, that they doe proceed in the foreſaid matter, and in other like from henceforth, and iudgement ſhall be giuen according as the matter is found. And likewiſe it was commaunded vnto the Iuſtices, that they ſhal cauſe all the foreſaid things to bee ſtraightly obſerued before them from hencefoorth. Statute of Waſte. Anno 10. Ed. 1.

26 Whereas by a ſtatute it was ordained, that all the wools and woolfels, hides, lead, and tinne, and diuers other marchandizes paſſing out of the Realme of England, the lands of Ireland, Wales, and Berwicke vpon Twede, ought to repaire to the ſtaple of Caleis, and to none other place beyond the Sea to be ſold vnder the gouernance of the Maior and Conſtables of the ſaid Staple, vpon certaine paines contained in the ſaid Statute, which paines be ſo eaſie and not doubted, that many take in cuſtome to carie, and doe daily to be caried out of the Realme & lands aforeſaid by diuers meanes & waies, a great ſubſtance of wools, woolfels, hides, lead, & tinne, and other merchandizes, which ought to repaire to the ſaid ſtaple into Scotland, and into Flanders, Holland, Zeland, and Brabant, without cuſtome or other charge thereof, paying as is payed for wools repayring to Caleis. And alſo by the ſaid wools & merchandizes ſo carried to the ſaid parties, there commeth no money into this Realme of England, nor the ſame Realme is in no wiſe increaſed, nor the Mint at Caleis ſuſtained: And moreouer the ſame wools and merchandizes be ſold in the ſaid partes at ſo little price and valure, that the Merchants aliens be ſo great inſtored of the ſame, that they come not to Caleis for to buy wools & woolfels, as they were accuſtomed to doe, to the great loſſe and dammage of our ſoueraigne Lord the King, and the vniuerſall dammage of his Realme, and great hinderance of the vtterance of the commodities of the ſaid Realme repayring, and being at the ſaid towne of Caleis, as the ſame our ſoueraigne Lord the king hath conceiued at the grieuous complaint to him made by the Marchants, and commons of the Realme in this preſent parliament aſſembled: Our ſoueraigne Lord the king conſidering the grieuous loſſes and dammages aforeſaid, hath ordained that the valure of all ſuch goods ſo found carried, or to be carried to the ſaid partes, except thoſe wools and woolfels which by our ſoueraigne Lord the king be, or ſhall be licenced, if there be any forf. whereof the ſame our ſoueraigne Lord the king ſhall haue the one halfe, and the perſon that eſpieth and proueth the ſame by the diſcretion of the Treaſorer & the Barons of the Eſchequer, ſhall haue the other halfe. 25 Whereas by the Statute made An. 1. And whereas by an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament, holden by Prorogation at Weſtminſter, Añ 23. Eliz. intituled, An Act to retaine the Subiects of the ſaid late Queene in their due obedience, It was amongſt other things enacted &c. that euery perſon aboue the age of ſixteene yeares, which ſhould not repayre to ſome Church, Chappel, or vſuall place of Common Prayer, but forbeare the ſame contrary to the tenour of a Statute made in the firſt yeare of the raigne of the ſaid late Queene, for vniformitie of Common prayer, & being thereof lawfully conuicted, ſhould forfeit vnto the ſaid Queene, for euery Moneth after the end of the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament, which he or ſhe ſhould ſo forbeare, 20. li. of lawful Engliſh money, as in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament more at large appeareth. And whereas afterwards by an other Act of parliament of the ſaid Queene, it was further enacted &c. (amongſt other things) how & when the ſaid payments of the ſaid 20. li. ſhould be made, and that if default ſhould be made in any part of any payment of the ſaid 20. li. contrary to the forme in the ſaid laſt ſpecified Statute limitted, that then and ſo often the ſaid Queene ſhould and might by proceſſe out of her Highneſſe Exchequer, take, ſeiſe, and inioy all the goods, and two parts aſwell of all the lands, tenements, & hereditaments, leaſes, & farmes of ſuch offendors, as of all other the lands, tenements, and hereditaments lyable to ſuch ſeiſure, or to the penalties aforeſaid, by the true meaning of the ſaid Act of parliament, leauing the third part onely of the ſame lands, tenements, &c. to and for the maintenance & reliefe of the ſame offendor, his wife, children, and familie, as in and by the laſt ſpecified Statute more at large alſo may appeare: Now foraſmuch as the ſaid Penaltie of 20. li. Monethly, is a greater burden vnto men of ſmall lyuing, then vnto ſuch as are of better abilitie, & do refuſe to come vnto Diuine ſeruice as aforeſaid, who rather then they will haue two parts of their lands to be ſeiſed, will be ready alwaies to pay the ſaid 20. li. according to the limitation of the ſaid Statutes, and yet retain the reſidue of their Lyuings, & inheritance in their owne hands, being of great yearely value, which they do for the moſt part imploy (as experience hath taught) to the maintenance of Superſtition & Popiſh Religion, & to the reliefe of Ieſuites, Seminaries, Popiſh Prieſts, & other dangerous perſons to the State: Therefore to the intent that hereafter the Penaltie for not repayring to Diuine Seruice might be inflicted in better proportion vpon men of great abilitie: Be it enacted &c. that the Kings Ma. his heires &c. ſhall from & after the feaſt of S. Mich. the Archangell next comming after the end of this Seſſ. of parliament, haue full power & liberty to refuſe the penaltie of 20. li. a Moneth, though it be tendered ready to be paied according to the Law, & thereupon to ſeiſe & take to his owne vſe, and the vſes, intents & purpoſes hereafter limitted, two parts in three parts to be diuided as well of all the lands, tenements, & hereditaments, leaſes, & farmes that at the time of ſuch ſeiſure ſhall be, or afterward ſhall come to any the ſaid offendors, in not comming to Church, or any other to his or her vſe, or in truſt for him or her, or at his or her diſpoſition, or whereby or wherewith, or in conſideration whereof ſuch offendor or his familie or any of them ſhall be relieued, maintayned, or kept, as of all other lands, tenements, & hereditaments in any wiſe, or at any time liable to ſuch ſeiſure, or to the penalties aforeſaid, and the ſame to retaine to his owne & other vſes, intents & purpoſes hereafter in this Act appointed, till euery ſuch offendor ſhal conforme him or her ſelfe, reſpectiuely as aforeſaid, in lieu and full recompence of the 20. li. I A. B. do truely and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſſe, teſtifie, and declare in my conſcience before God and the world, That our Soueraigne Lord King IAMES, is lawfull and rightfull King of this Realme, and of all other his Majeſties Dominions and Countries; And that the Pope, neither of himſelfe, nor by any authoritie of the Church or See of Rome, or by any other meanes with any other hath any power or authoritie to depoſe the King, or to diſpoſe any of his Majeſties Kingdomes, or Dominions, or to authorize any forraigne Prince to inuade or annoy him, or his Countreys, or to diſcharge any of his Subiects of their allegiance and obedience to his Maieſtie, or to giue licence or leaue to any of them to beare Armes, raiſe tumult, or to offer any violence, or hurt to his Majeſties roial Perſon, State, or gouernment, or to any of his Majeſties Subjects, within his Majeſties Dominions. Alſo, I do ſweare from my heart, that notwithſtanding any Declaration or ſentence of Excommunication or depriuation made or granted, or to be made or granted by the Pope, or his Succeſſors, or by any authoritie deriued, or pretended to be deriued from him, or his See, againſt the ſaid King, his Heires or Succeſſors, or any abſolution of the ſaid Subjects from their obedience: I will beare faith and true allegiance to his Majeſtie, his Heires and Succeſſors, and him and them will defend to the vttermoſt of my power, againſt all Conſpiracies and attempts whatſoeuer, which ſhal be made againſt his or their Perſons, their Crowne and dignitie, by reaſon or colour of any ſuch Sentence or declaration, or otherwiſe, and will do my beſt endeuour to diſcloſe and make knowen vnto his Majeſtie, his Heires and Succeſſors, all Treaſons and Traiterous conſpiracies, which I ſhal know or heare of to be againſt him, or any of them. And I do further ſweare, That I do from my heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as impious and hereticall, this damnable doctrine and poſition, That Princes which be Excommunicated or depriued by the Pope, may be depoſed or murthered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoeuer. And I do beleeue, and in conſcience am reſolued, that neither the Pope, nor any perſon whatſoeuer, hath power to abſolue mee of this Oath, or any part therof, which I acknowledge by good and full authoritie to be lawfully miniſtred vnto mee: and do renounce all Pardons and Diſpenſations to the contrary. And all theſe things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge & ſweare, according to theſe expreſſe words by me ſpoken, & according to the plaine and common ſenſe and vnderſtanding of the ſame words, without any Equiuocation, or mentall euaſion, or ſecret reſeruation whatſoeuer. And I do make this recognition and acknowledgement heartily, willingly, and truely, vpon the true faith of a Chriſtian. So helpe me God.

Unto which Oath ſo taken, the ſaid perſon ſhall ſubſcribe his or her name or marke. And be it further enacted &c. that no Indictment or Indictments had or found, or hereafter to be had or found againſt any perſon or perſons, for not repayring to ſome Church or Chappell, or vſuall place of Common Prayer, but abſenting him or her ſelfe by the ſpace of one Moneth, contrary to the Lawes & ſtatutes in that behalfe prouided, or for not receiuing the ſaid Sacrament contrary to this preſent Law, nor any proclamation, vtlawry, or other procéeding therupon ſhal at any time hereafter be auoyded, diſcharged, or reuerſed by reaſon of any default in forme, or lacke of forme, or other defect whatſoeuer, (other then by direct Trauerſe to the point of not comming to Church, or not receyuing the ſaid Sacrament) whereof ſuch perſon or perſons, hath béen, or ſhall be indicted, but the ſame Indictment ſhall ſtand in force and be procéeded vpon: Any ſuch default of forme, or other defect whatſoeuer notwithſtanding. And be it further enacted &c. That euery Iuſt. of P. of the Counties aforeſaid, vpon whom complaint ſhall be made, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by vertue of this Act, to bind ouer by Recogniſance in a conuenient ſumme taken to his Maieſties vſe, aſwell the party proſecuting, as any witneſſes, which he ſhall deſire to produce (ſo as the ſaid witneſſes may haue their reaſonable charges firſt tendred vnto them) to proſecute & giue in euidence before ſuch his Maieſties Iuſtices as aforeſaid, as the caſe ſhal require. And be it &c. that no natural borne Subiect of the Realme of England, or the Dominions of the ſame, ſhall for any high Treaſon, Miſpriſion, or concealment of high Treaſon, petie Treaſon, or any other whatſoeuer offence, or cauſe committed within Scotland, be ſent out of England, where he is apprehended, to receiue his triall, vntil ſuch time as both Realmes ſhal be made one in Lawes & gouernment; which is the thing ſo much deſired, as that wherin the full perfection of the bleſſed Vnion, already begun in his Maieſties roial perſon, conſiſteth. And becauſe there is too great reaſon to feare, that the partiality & corruptions of many that liue in thoſe parts, thorough their long & euill courſe of life, cannot but produce much & frequent periurie at ſuch trials as aforeſaid, if the Iurie in their proceeding do not vſe great wiſdome and circumſpection, in which reſpect it is moſt iuſt & neceſſary to prouide, aſwell that the guilty ſhall not eſcape, as that the innocent ſhall not be condemned: Be it therefore prouided & enacted &c. That at all ſuch trials, the Iurors then & there ſworne, or the greater part of them, (who in reſpect of the great truſt & charge which muſt now be layed vpon them, are by vertue of this Act as before appeareth, to be perſons of better condition & quality, then the Law required heretofore for Iurors in trials of like offences) ſhall haue in their power & election according to their conſcience & diſcretion vpon their oaths, to receiue and admit onely ſuch ſufficient, good, & lawful witneſſes vpon their oaths, either for, or againſt the partie arraigned, as ſhall not appeare to them, or the greater part of them to be vnfit and vnworthy to be witneſſes in that caſe, either in regard of their hatred and malice, or their fauour & affection, either to the partie proſecuting, or to the partie arraigned, or of their former euill life and conuerſation. Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted, that if the Offendor in any the caſes aforeſaid, ſhall be a Peere of the Realme, then his triall therein ſhall be by his Peeres, as is vſed in caſes of Felony or Treaſon, & not otherwiſe. ☞ 16 Whereas ſithence the making of the Act Añ 39. Eliz. cap. 4. diuers doubts and queſtions haue bin moued & growne by diuerſity of opinions, taken in & vpon the letter of the ſaid Act. For a plaine declaration whereof, be it declared and enacted, That from henceforth no authority to be giuen or made by any Baron of this Realm, or any other honourable Perſonage of greater degrée, vnto any other perſon or perſons, ſhal bee auailable to frée & diſcharge the ſaid perſons or any of them from the pains and puniſhments in the ſaid Statute mentioned, but that they ſhall bée taken within the offence & puniſhment of the ſame Statute. And whereas in the ſaid ſtatute there is a Prouiſo contained, That the ſaid ſtatute, nor any thing therin contained, ſhal extend to any ſuch Glaſſemen as ſhalbe of good behauiour, & ſhall trauell in or through any County without begging, hauing Licence for their trauelling, vnder the Hands and Seales of 3. Iuſt. of the Peace of the ſame County where they trauell, whereof one to be of the Quorum, as by the ſtatute more at large appeareth: By reaſon of which liberty, many notorious Rogues & Vagabonds and euil diſpoſed perſons haue vndertaken and do profeſſe the trade of Glaſſemen, and by colour thereof do trauell vp & downe diuers Counties of this Realme, & do commit many Pickeries, petie Felonies, and other miſdemeanors. For the auoiding of which incõuenience, be it eſtabliſhed & enacted &c. That from & after 2. Eliz. and ſhalbe ſet down, limitted, and appointed by this preſent Act, any thing in the ſaid ſtatute of 39. Eliz. to the contrary thereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And whereas by the ſaid ſtatute Añ 39. Eliz. it was further enacted, That if any of the ſaid Rogues ſhall appeare to be dãgerous to the inferiour ſort of the people, where they ſhal be taken, or otherwiſe be ſuch as wil not be reformed of their Roguiſh kind of life, that in euery ſuch caſe it ſhall bée lawfull to the Iuſtices of P. of yͤ ſame Limit, where any ſuch Rogue ſhal be takẽ, to cõmit yͤ Rogue to yͤ houſe of correction, or to yͤ Gaole of the County, there to remaine vntil yͤ next Qu. Seſſions to be holdẽ in yͤ County: and then ſuch of the Rogues ſo committed, as by the Juſt. of the peace then and there preſent, or the moſt part of them, ſhall be thought fit not to be deliuered, ſhall or may lawfully by the ſame Juſtices, or the moſt part of them, be baniſhed out of the Realme and al other the Dominions thereof, and at the charges of that Countie ſhall be conueyed into ſuch parts beyond the Seas, as ſhall be at any time hereafter for that purpoſe aſſigned by the priuie Counſell vnto the ſaid Queene Elizabeth, her heires & ſucceſſors, or by any ſixe or more of them, whereof the Lord Chancelour, or Lord Keeper of the greate Seale, or Lord Treaſurer for the time being, to be one, or other wiſe be adiudged perpetually to the Gallies of this Realme, as by the ſaid Juſtices or the more part of them ſhalbe thought fit or expedient. And if any ſuch Rogue ſhall returne (being baniſhed as aforeſaid) againe into any part of this Realme or Dominion of Wales, without lawfull Licence or Warrant ſo to do, That in euery ſuch caſe, ſuch offence ſhall be Felony, and the party offending therein, ſuffer death as in caſe of Felony: The ſame Felony to be heard and determined in that Countie of this Realme or Wales, in which the offender ſhalbe apprehended, as by the ſaid ſtatute more at large appeareth: Which branch of the ſaid ſtatut is taken to be ſomewhat defectiue, for that the ſaid Rogues hauing no marke vpon them to be knowen by, notwithſtanding ſuch iudgement of Baniſhment, may retorne or retire themſelues into ſome other parts of this Realme where they are not knowen, and ſo eſcape the due puniſhment which the ſaid ſtatute did intend to inflict vpon them. For remedy whereof be it ordeined and enacted, That ſuch Rogues as ſhall after the end of two moneths next after the ende of this Seſſion of Parliament, be adiudged as aforeſaid incorrible or dangerous, ſhall alſo by the iudgement of the ſame Juſtices, or the more part of them then preſent, in their open Seſſions of the peace, be branded in the left ſhoulder with an hot burning yron of the breadth of an Engliſh ſhilling with a great Roman R vpon the yron, & the branding vpon the ſhoulder to be ſo throughly burned and ſet on vpon the ſkinne & fleſh, that the letter R be ſeene, and remaine for a perpetuall marke vpon ſuch Rogue during his or her life, and thereupon be ſent by the ſame Juſtices to the place of his dwelling if hee haue any, if not, then to the place where he laſt dwelt by the ſpace of a yeere, if that can be knowen by his confeſſion or otherwiſe: And if that cannot be knowen, then to the place of his birth, there to be placed in labour as a true Subiect ought to doe: And after ſuch puniſhment of any ſuch Rogue as aforeſaid, if any Rogue ſo puniſhed ſhall offend againe, in begging or wandering contrary to the ſaid ſtatute, or this preſent Act, That then in euery ſuch caſe, the party ſo offending ſhalbe iudged a Felon, and ſhall ſuffer as in caſes of Felony without benefite of Clergie, the ſame Felony to be tried in the County where any ſuch offender ſhalbe taken. And be it further enacted, that if ſuch Conſtable or Tithingman do not cauſe the ſaid Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy Beggers to be puniſhed, according to the forme ſet downe in the ſaid Act made Añ 39. Eliz. and to be conueyed, according to the purport of the ſaid Act, that then the ſaid Conſtable, or Tithingman, ſhall forfeit and looſe the ſumme of 20.s. for euery default, to be leuied and imploied in maner and forme, as in the ſaid Statute is ſet forth and declared.
